Revolutionary Committee Assured Sailors That Garrison and Entire Fleet Were in Revolt.

St. Petersburg, July 4.-The governnental story of the events in Odessa, as published in The Official Messenger, after detailing the activity of the socialisite revolutionary committee in stirring up the strikers ashore, and the arrival of the mutinous crew of the batleship Kniaz Potemkine at Odessa June 27, proceeds:

"The mutiny of the warships provided the revolutionary committee with a good opportunity to influence the masses. The committee visited the battleship and assured the mutineers that the garrison of Odessa had laid down its arms, and that the whole Black Sea squadron had joined hands with the crew of the Kniaz Potemkine. According to eyewitnesses, officers took an active part in the council on board the battleship, especially two young cadets. The results of the enarchist intrigues among the workman.
