FOR SCHOOL BOARD

Mrs. Williams Doubtful-Other Nominations Must

with no women's names forthcoming.

No Action Taken

The meeting, however, felt itself too small to take any definite action in this direction and the matter was left, so that if a sufficient number of the affiliation of the action in the could be a sufficient number of the affiliation of the action in the could be a sufficient number of the affiliation of the action of the act

ated societies wish to call a general meeting of the council to discuss this matter, that meeting will be called by the president, Mrs. E. B. Smith. At the same time the meeting expressed itself as favorable towards women trustees in Another request which was broug in by the Mothers' Clubs was that in power after the election, was not sufficiently representative of the people, and that often the members were not as competent to deal with health probmmittee to take charge of the women magistrates and jurymen, the encouragement of Canadianization, the encouragement of the showing of Brit-ish and Canadian moving picture films, the more careful censorship of vaude ville and moving pictures and the appointment of women on the censors' board, the teaching of French and English alike in the schools, the supervision of playgrounds and the establishment in the Dominion of a bureau of information for women

Mrs. E. B. Smith occupied the chair at this meeting, which was honored with the presence of the advisory president, Mrs. H. A. Boomer.

The Best Cough Syrup

is Home-made.

Here's an easy way to save $2, and yet have the best cough remedy you ever tried.

information for women.

R. A. Simpson of Toronto is her sister, Mrs. C. R. Somer-iccadilly street.

Mrs. A. E. White is now in Vancouver, after having spent three months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgeald here.

Mrs. John Diprose and her sister, Mrs. S. Cummings, will receive for the first ne in their new home, 428 Piccadilly reet on Monday afternoon, November function which is being looked for-rd to with interest is Mrs. H. A. creer's annual drawing-room sale, lich will be held some time this Sine Carmen, the great Canadian it, and Peter McArthur of Ekfrid, int the night with Dr. and Mrs. H. McCallum. Mr. Carmen is on his y to visit Mr. McArthur at Ekfrid.

Miss Huella Douglass, bride-elect, whose marriage to Mr. Dean Russell lakes place shortly, was the guest of bonor at an enjoyable function on Thursday by the staff of the Boyle Memorial School. Mr. and Mrs. William R. Smith, "Maplehurst," Northwood, Ont., announce the engagement of their eldest laughter, Minerva Lois, to Mr. Charles Stafford Pesha, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Pesha, Kent Bridge, Ont., the wed-

A very enjoyable fancy dress dance was given at the Y.M.C.A. hut at Tecumseh barracks on Thursday evening by the wives of the W.O.'s, N.C.O.'s and other members of the P.P.C.L.I. and the Y.M.C.A. staff. About 250 were in attendance, the hut being very tastefully decorated for the occasion. The decision as to the best costume worn by lady and gentleman was a rather difficult matter, because of the great variety of costumes. However, the prizes were awarded to Mrs. T. Currie, who appeared as a Victorian lady and Bugier A. C. Cronyn who represented a splendid lady. Much of the success of the evening was due to the regimental orchestra, which has always given its services willingly for the dances held at the barracks from time to time. During the evening a vocal solo was rendered by Miss Clark. prizes were awarded to Mrs. T. Currie, who appeared as a Victorian lady and Bugier A. C. Cronyn who represented a Sugier A. C. Cronyn who represented a Sugier A. C. Cronyn who represented a splendid lady. Much of the success of the evening was due to the regimental orchestra, which has always given its aservices willingly for the dances held at services willingly for the dances held at the long of the will form the chair, and her slim and the chair, and her slim and the scape of the section was a haughty stare.

If you're see neabout Nell Sauncers will was a haughty stare.

If you're serve cutting.

Julie shrugged her slim French shoulders in the at the home of the wouldn't look at me!" She smiled a the humility in wouldn't look at me!" She smiled a the humility in wouldn't s

LAMONT—LANG.

A pretty wedding was solemnized on Tuesday evening, November 2, when Annia Lang, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lang of Preston, Lancashire, Eng., was united in marriage to Mr. Daniel M. Lamont, only son of Mr. David Lamont of Broughdale, the Venerable Archdeacon Richardson officiating. Miss Lily Vincent was bridesmald and Mr. Milton Harris acted as groomsman. refer was heither sincere, nor kind, nor chivalrous.

But Saunders was.
How did Julie come to know it? I wondered.
Something of my thoughts must have appeared on my face, for my companion added:
"Oh, there's nothing in the world between the 'paragon,' as you call him, and myself. But I'm of an inquisitive turn of mind, and I've made inquirles about him. Don't ask me how! I've friends in his world, and out of it—and none of them can speak too highly of him. Besides, last night I dined with him!"

I gasped. A queer little pang shot incomplete in proceeded Julie, imperturbably; "I do like a man who knows how to do things decently. Your young Saunders has tons of 'savoir faire' and bredeing. Besides, of course, the necessary cash. She gave an envious sigh. Then she went on:
"I dressed in black. I looked quite splendid. I don't mind telling you, my faire, that I made a strong bid for him, myself. But there was nothing doing!"
"A bid for him, yourself?" I repeated stupidly. "But—you've just told me that you were going to marry Fred!" of, Fred!" said Julie half contents.

BRYANT—NORRIE.

A pretty wedding took place on October 28 at St. George's Chairch, when Miss Margaret Norrie of Sectiand hecame the bride of Harry Bryant of this city, Rev. Canon G. B. Sage officiating. Miss Edith Young attended her, while Mr. George Bryant was best man. After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served, after which the couple left for a short trip and will reside in London on their return.

of him. Besides, last night I dined with him?"

Miss Edith Young attended her, while I gasped. A queer little pang shot ter the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served, after which the couple seft for a chort trip and will reside in London on their return.

STURGEON—BRYANT.

A pretty wedding took place on Octable 23 at St. George's Church, when Miss Persis Bryant of 62 Forward averance, became the bride of Wulter Sturgeon, the Rev. Canon G. B. Sage efficiating. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Miss Cliadys Young attending her, while Mr. Edwin Kipp acted for the groom as best man. After the cermony a reception was held after the cermony a reception was held after the couple of him. Besides, last night I dined with im!"

I gasped. A queer little pang shot through me. Julie—dining with Neil Saunders—while I wandered New York, forlorn, neglected!

"Yes, I dined with him. But don't be jealous, pray." The cynical smile twisted Julie's pretty, painted lips astounded me.

"I'm not jealous." The hot blood trushed to my cheeks. Julie was so sharp.

"You wouldn't be if you knew that you were going to marry Fred!" oft, Fred!" said Julie half contemptuously, making a depreciatory to the catch that Saunders is.

Any one with half the catch that Saunders is.

This cold-blooded view of things astounded me.

"As I was saying," she proceeded to be taken out to dinner. Said that i'd news of you, and a few items of that sort. Needless to say, he came."

"You wouldn't be if you knew that you were going to marry Fred!" Oh, Fred!" and proceeded themptuously, making a depreciatory that the catch that Saunders is.

Any one with half the catch that Saunders is.

This cold-blooded view of things astounded me.

"You wouldn't be if you knew that you were going to marry Fred!" Oh, Fred!" Any one with half the catch that Saunders is.

Any one with all the catch that Saunders is.

"I'm not jealous." The hot blood to be taken out to dinner. Said that ''d news of you, and a few items of that you were going to marry Fred!" Oh, Fred!"

Ruth Wardrope entertained a which the couple left for a short trip her friends at the tea hour yes-and will reside in London on their re-afternoon.

REED-MCKONE The home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McKone, Beaconsfield avenue, was the scene of a quiet wedding on Wednesday afternoon, when their daughter, Mary Edna, became the bride of Mr. Charles R. Reed of Walkerville, formerly of this city.

city.

Rev. T. A. Symington of Knox Church officiated at the ceremony.

The bride wore a pretty gown of brown duvetyn and a corsage bouquet of Ophelia roses.

After the ceremony a reception and buffet luncheon were held. Mr. and Mrs. Reed left for Buffalo and Edinboro, U.S.A., and on their return will reside in Walkerville.

HASTIE—MILLER.

An interesting Listowel wedding was that of Beth Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Miller, Listowel, who became the bride of Mr. F. G. Hastie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Hastie of Hustin County. son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Hastie of Huron County. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. M. Nicol of Knox Church, the bride being given away by her father. Little Florence Wilson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Wilson, Guelph, was a charming flower girl, while Miss Margaret Wilson of Goderich played the wedding music, During the signing of the register Miss Walker of Wingham sang "Oh, Promise Me," after which the wedding dinner was served at beautifully arranged tables. Upon their return from a trip to eastern points Mr. and Mrs. Hastie will reside in their new home near Bluevale.

THE MARRIAGE OF ANNE

(Copyright, 1920, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

XLIX.—A Decent Sort.

Princess Mary May Visit Canada Next Year MRS. RONALD HARRIS NOT TO RUN AGAIN

garding you."

I sat up and regarded the speaker instently. Had she second sight, or what? For indeed last night I had been in trouble.

"We dined together at the Ritz," proceeded Julie, imperturbably; "I do like a man who knows how to do things decently. Your young Saunders has tons of 'savoir faire' and bredeing. Besides, of course, the necessary cash. She gave an envious sigh. Then she went on:

"I dressed in black. I looked quite splendid. I don't mind telling you, my dear, that I made a strong bid for him, myself. But there was nothing doing!"

"A hid for him wentself!"

in by the Mothers' Clubs was that a representative committee be appointed from the Local Council of Women to interview the board of health, on the question of better housing conditions and sanitary conditions in some districts, on which question they felt the board of health to be too lax. The result of this request was the appointment of Mrs. John Ross as convener of this committee, which was to include representatives from the Mothers' Club, I.O.D.E., Red Cross Society, Y.W.C.A., Teachers' Guild and the Sanatorium Aid. This committee will wait on the board of health in the near future. The Mothers' Clubs felt that the board of health, appointed as it was by the civic officials in power after the election, was not Advertiser Patterns Owing to the pattern manufac-turers increasing the price of pat-terns to us, all patterns adver-tised from this date will be 15 CENTS EACH.

Pattern 3193 was employed for this design. It is cut in four sizes, 3, 4, 5 and 6 years. A 4-year size will require and 6 years. A 4-year size will require 2½ yards of 44-inch material. Linen, galatea, seersucker, serge, corduroy, flannel and khaki are appropriate for the development of this model. A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 15 cents in silver or stamps.

CAUTION: Be careful to inclose the above illustration, and send size of pattern wanted. When the pattern is bust measure, you need only mark 38, 44, or whatever it may be. When in waist measure, 22, 24, 26, or whatever it may be. If a skirt, give waist and length measure. When misses' or child's pattern write only the figure length measure. When misses' or child's pattern, write only the figure representing the age. It is not necessary to write "inches" or "years." Patterns cannot reach you in less than one week from the date of application.

LITTLE MR. IMPORTANCE

Then:
"Good gracious me! I've forgotten to make the coffee." She sprang up, and crossed the room to a sideboard, which she opened, and produced a percolator. "I can go on talking while I do this, Anne." She fumbled in a drawer for matches.

drawer for matches.
"I don't want coffee," I said, quickly.
I didn't wish to be indebted for one sip, to Julie.

"But I do, silly." She measured out

How strange Rastus was acting, the kind lady who had bought him thought. Although she had brought all the good things that a little dog likes he had refused to eat.

"I don't believe he likes it here," she said. Rastus did not like it there. He would very much have liked to tell her that, too, for he wanted to go somewhere else, he knew not where. Just being a pet dog was the very last thing in the world he wanted to be for in his eyes a pet dog was very small and unimportant in the world.

When three days had passed and Rastus had eaten hardly one bite of food, and had lived mainly by drinking water, the kind lady became alarmed and telephoned the lady she had bought from. When Rastus' mistress came to see what was the matter, who should she have with her but Baldy, Rastus' grandfather.

"I am sure he must be lonely. I have brought this old dog to keep him company until he becomes accustomed to his new home," his old mistress said. As soon as she had departed and left the two dogs together, old Baldy started right in to scold his young grandson.

"What do you mean by not eating your meals?" he said.

"Why I don't want to live here," Rastus willined.

"You don't want to live at all, by the way your are acting," Baldy reproached him. "You just eat up that dish of food over there, before I give you a good shaking."

Rastus was really hungry and he ate up the dish of bread and meat that had been prepared for him. How foolish he had been not to have eaten it before, he thought after he had finished, for it felt good inside of him and now that old Baldy was there he felt much more cheerful.

When the kind lady came in again he was ready to make friends with her; and so attached to her did he become that at the end of the week old Baldy was sent home and Rastus did not mind being left there at all.

If only something important was going to happen very soon—and perhaps going to happen very soon—and perhaps going to happen very soon—and perhaps going to happen to make friends.

(To be continued.)

Right red was really

You've probably heard of this well-known plan of making cough syrup at home. But have you ever used it? When you do, you will understand why thousands of families, the world over, feel that they could hardly keep house without it. It's simple and cheap, but the way it takes hold of a cough will quickly earn it a permanent place in your home.

Into a 16-oz. bottle, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to fill up the bottle. Or, if desired, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, never spoils, and gives you 16 ounces of better cough remedy than you could buy ready-made for $2.50.

It is really wonderful how quickly this home-made remedy conquers a cough—usually in 24 hours or less. It seems to penetrate through every air passage, loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough, lifts the phlegm, heals the membranes, and gives almost immediate relief. Splendid for throat tickle, hoarseness, croup, bronchitis and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accent anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. "What do you mean by not eating your meals?" he said.
"Why I don't want to live here,"

Cynthia Grey's

the local council bear in mind the fact that three of the women school trustees will drop out of the board of education this year, and that if women are still to be members of the board, action should be taken to see that either these women or others are nominated. It was announced that Mrs. Ronald Harris had refused to stand again and that Mrs. David Williams was doubtful, Mrs. A.

T. Edwards was the only candidate who expressed her willingness to run again. The Mothers' Club felt that if it was a good thing for the city to have women on the school board, some action should be taken by the women as a whole to see that women again stood for election. The Mothers' Clubs did not wish to take any definite action in nominating a candidate, but merely wished not to allow the time of nomination to pass with no women's names forthcoming.

No Action Taken

The meeting, however, felt itself too small to take any definite action in this direction and the matter was left, so Mall-Box, Walnut Stain, and it rests

WALNUT STAIN.

Ans.—You are now a member of the Mail-Box, Walnut Stain, and it rests with you whether you become an active one or not. Thank you for the nospital mite. A. V. M.—Would like the words of Roaming in the Gloaming.' A License Dear Miss Grey,—May we enter your Mail-Box? I have been a constant reader for some time and have received many helpful hints.

Could you inform us if it would be necessary for one to get a license to open an open air ice skating rink? If so, what is the fee?
Wishing the Mail-Box luck, I am,
MARJORIE.

Ans.—It is not necessary to have a city license, Marjorie.

envelope inclosed?

Ans.—The meaning of the insignia on the envelope is: "Whither right and glory lead." Thank you for the phlox, also the hospital mite. I have forwarded the seeds you asked for.

Around the Grate Fire.

Dear Miss Grey.—We have taken The Advertiser for a number of years and like it fine.

This time I would like to ask a few questions:

1. At a Halloween party if you win a box of chocolates, about ten being in the box, are you supposed to keep them or pass them around when there were about fifteen present?

2. Are dresses to be worn quite far below the knee or just to the knee, this winter?

3. Have you any Christmas recitations and dialogues for young girls from 10.

The companions. Hills, mank you for the phhamatical mank you go would make the seeds you asked for.

Enjoys the Mail-Box.

Dear Miss Grey—I have enjoyed your page for many months, and think it the best page in The Advertiser.

I would like to ask your readers if they would ske to know what day would like to ask your readers if they would like to peam you will like to to ake your mach and I would like to ask your readers if they would send me the poem 'Jean de Pris."

I like that poem very much, and I would like to get a copy of it.

I also would like to ask a few if like to know what day march 24, 1905, fell on.

Am leaving my address with Cynthia Grey.

Ans.—March 24, 1905, fell on.

Am leaving my address with Cynthia Grey.

Ans.—March 24, 1905, fell on.

Am leaving my address with Cynthia Grey.

Ans.—March 24, 1905, fell on and the pris."

I also would like to ask a few would ske to know what day would ske to ask your readers if they would ske to ask your page for many months, and think it the best page for many months, and think i

Be Made.

RESOLUTIONS READ

RESOLUTIONS READ

And dialogues for young girls from 10 to 15?

4. Could I have the stocking-foot pattern?

I must close, or I fill not leave any room for the other Boxites.

CHRISTINA.

P. S.—Inclosed find ten cents for the S. C. H.—C.

Ans.—1. No.

2. Are you referring to women's or children's dresses?

3. There are no Christmas recitations or dialogues in the Mail-Box, but in case any are sent in for you, kindly give me your name and address, so that I may forward them to you, also the stocking-foot pattern. Thank you for the hospital mite.

Cutey—Thanks for the hospital gift. I have forwarded the address you asked for.

Dear Miss Grey and Boxites,—I wrote a letter to the Mail-Box and sent a stamped envelope, also two dimes. Hope to see this in print. Will you please send the S. F. P. Will send some money next time for the S. C. H. (I I am sure you get this. Someone was asking for a way to wash ribbons so as to restore crispness. Try dipping in sweet milk just before ironing. Could anyone tell me how to clean brass-colored electric fixtures when tarnished? I read Mother of Five's letter with interest and truly sympathize, as I find two quite a task. Will you please send the child's apron pattern sent in by E. T. C. R. A HAPPY MOTHER.

Ans.—Your former letter did not reach the Mail-Box, but thank you anyway for sending the dimes. I have put your name on the list for the apron, and will send it along with the S. F. P., as soon and sent a stamped envelope, also two dimes. Hope to see this in print. Will you please send the S. F. P. Will send dimes. Hope to see this in print. Will you please send the S. F. P. Will send dimes. Hope to see this in print. Will you please send the S. F. P. Will send dimes. Hope to see this in print. Will you please send the S. F. P. Will send dimes. Hope to see this in print. Will you please send the S. F. P. Will send dimes. Hope to see this in print. Will you please send the S. F. P. A HAPPY MOTHER.

Ans.—Your former letter did not reach the Mail-Box, b

Club News

HUMANE SOCIETY.

The local Humane Society has now secured comfortable quarters at 3 Victoria street, having been able to purchase this property through the generosity of many citizens and the proceeds of their most successful rummage sale. There is still, however, a debt of $1,200 hanging over the property, which the society believes the citizens of London, interested in the welfare of dumb animals, will reduce. George Tustin, the humane inspector, is now established at the new home.

HOME HOUR AT Y.W.C.A. The first Sunday home hour to be held at the Y.W.C.A., King street, this season will be that of tomorrow afternoon, when the girls from St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church will be in charge.

RECITALS IN AID OF HOSPITAS. Two recitals under the direction of Parnell Morris will be held in the S. S. Parnell Morris will be held in the S. S. rooms at the Dundas Centre Methodist Church under the auspices of class 271, on November 9 and 15. The proceeds from these recitals will be given to the Children's Hospital Fund.

GIRLS' CANADIAN CLUB. The next meeting of the Girls' Canadian Club, has for its subject of study, Anison North's historical novel, "The Forging of the Pikes." It is reported that the presence of the auther herself, Miss May Wilson, will add greatly to the enjoyment of the meeting.

city license, Marjorie.

More Gift Seds.

Dear Miss Grey,—I notice you haven't any spring phlox among your gift seeds, so am sending some. Am sorry I could not make small envelopes to put them in. Will you please exchange a few cornflowers, columbines, snapdragon, Canterbury bells, marigoid? Thank you for your trouble, and find inclosed 20 cents for the S. C. H. Can you tell me

Our new "Yes Book" will ready for mailing ver shortly.

This will be This will be b logue we have eve issued. It will tak the worry out Christmas shopping.

Although the cost us, postage included, 68 cen each, they are abse lutely free for you.

Naturally, we not want to was any of them, but you wish a copy shall be pleased send it when ready.

Applications have been coming at the rate of a thou sand a day, and the is only a limited quar tity for distributio To avoid disappoin ment it will be nece sary to send us you request at once.

Ryrie Bro

134-136-138 Yonge TORONTO

London Township girls

"Youngsters hungry all the time? Never worry, mother! Better that than always sick, Cut a NEAL slice good and thick, if they eat it up right quick, Why just you cut another."

Is there a growing, healthy child who does not raise that after four every afternoon?

GOOD WHITE BREAD

is so tasty that it is always a treat for the kiddies. Mot knows that the nourishing powers stored in that loaf will be up strong and healthy bodies.

Phone 1313-2173 to please the kiddies.

Neal Baking Company, Lt

Bread Factories at Windsor, London, St. Thomas, Sarnia

Oriental Cream

ne more."
She nodded, with half-closed eyes Big, Ripe Jumbo Peanuts, Finely Ground and Salted That's what you get when you buy chair, and proceeded to light a cigarette.

"I? How? What do you mean?"
I tried to assume an offhand manner. But, alas! I am no actress. My feelings always show.

"It was like this," proceeded my companion, blowing blue rings of smoke into the air. 'I saw a notice in the papers to the effect that Mr.
Saunders was staying at the Bachelors' Club. Something about his racing a car at Brooklands race grounds.
He's a daredevil, as no doubt you know."

I didn't know. But I wasn't going o let the French woman realize my so I retrained from comment.

"I had the blues," continued she,
"and I was in the mood to be petted and made much of. No, don't look like that, Anne. Your type of woman never would understand me, so don't wasn't condemning or criticizing "I cut in quickly. "Please tell ignorance.

So I refrained from comment.
"I had the blues," continue

Sweetheart Brand Peanut Butter

"Made from the Sweetheart of the Nuts." reads easily on bread or biscuits. Makes licious sandwiches for picnics or parties. TRY SOME TODAY.

I. X. LSpice and Coffee Mills LONDON.

