UPPER CANADA COLLEGE HAS ANNUAL PRIZE DAY

Steady and Satisfactory Progress Noted by Principal in His Upper Canada College was en fete yesterday afternoon. It was the aninual "prize day." The "prayer hall" was packed to the limit of its capacity with the friends and parents of U.C.C. boys, the platform was crowded with distinguished guests, and the raised portion at the rear of the half fairly overflowed with the "shining morning force" of the half fairly faces" of the boys themselves.

Principal H. W. Auden, M.A., in his ennual report, referred to the steady and satisfactory progress of the school. There were now 360 on the roll, as against 350 last year. This year's proceedings were saddened, he said, by deaths of so many old boys of distinction during the year, of Archbishop Sweatman, who was Mathematical Master in 1871; of H. C. Hammond, r, Provincial Treasurer of Manito-of Allan Cassels, head boy in 1864; of H. D. Warren, and of General Buchan, C.M.G. A feeling reference was ersary dinners were declared to be nique in the history of Canadian edu-gymnasium by the kindness of Nor-man Gooderham, was noted. Thirteen university scholarships had been won by U.C.C. in the last 5 years, compared to 3 in the preceding half

A suggestion was thrown out to the University authorities to change the date f matriculation to June 20 instead of July 1, as it was almost cruel to make young boys write on exams at the hottest time of the year.
In outdoor sports the college had been doing well. The rifle company was particularly commended.

Portrait Unveiled. The feature of the afternoon to many was the unveiling by Lt.-Col. G. T. Denison of a fine portrait of W. Wedd, M.A., LL.D., for over 45 years a master in the old school. It was presented by J. Ross Robertson. Mr. Wedd, who is over 85 years of age, was present, and occupied a seat immediately under
