The World's Hotels

in New York will be the Hotel Arlington and Hotel Bristol, where special rates have been secured for World excursionists.

HOTEL BRISTOL In a letter received from Mr. T. E. Tolson, proprietor of Hotel Arlington and Hotel Bristol, he says:

"If I can be of any service to you here in New York in arranging or assisting in arranging any side trips, I beg that you call on me at any time. I am going to do my utmost to help you to make this a particularly attractive excursion, and show you that things of this kind can be worked up for the benefit of both the people who take advantage. of the excursion and the newspaper which undertakes the job." With everybody at both the Toronto and New York ends working hard to make it pleasant for you, you are sure to have the one best time of your life. Make up your mind to-day and come.

The Advance Sale

of tickets has been a phenomenal one-away ahead of anything previously undertaken. Do not delay buying your ticket until the last minute, when there is always a heart-breaking, nerve - destroying rush. Get your tickets from the Excursion Manager at The World Office, and secure all the extra benefits. If you cannot call, phone your orders. The number is Main 5308.

BE SURE TO BUY YOUR TICKETS AT THE WORLD. There's a reason, and a good onebetter hotel rates—better service generally and the most courteous treatment from everybody while in New York, for you will be going with the finest lot of people that ever left Toronto by train or boat. Every World reader who purchases a ROUND TRIP TICKI YORK CITY at The Toronto World Office will be provided with proper credentials so as to secure special rates at the Hotel Arlington or Hotel Bristol. Both of these hotels are delightfully located for just sucn parties as will go to New York with The World in June. The Arlington is at 25th-street, the lower end of the shopping and theatre district. The Bristol is at 49th-street. The Arlington is very conveniently located for shops, the Bristol for theatres. Both have every line of transportation close at hand-elevated, subway and surface lines. REMEMBER, THIS IS THE LAST CHANCE to visit New York at the lower rate until some time the latter part of August. This is your one grand opportunity to have the nicest trip of the year and the finest time of your life.

This will be the greatest excursion of the year. Already a large number of World readers, both in and outside the city, have signified their intention of being present. There is more real solid enjoyment to be had in and around New York in June than anywhere else on earth.

BUY YOUR TICKET AT THE WORLD OFFICE and secure all the benefits to be had on the trip. You can make your Pullman reservations any time now, but take a little friendly advice: "Decide quickly, and don't wait too long."
