This as-sociation is especially interested in the "Pals" Battalion, owing to the fact that it is affiliated with the two cavalry units, G.G.B.G. and 9th M.H. The battalion crossed over from Niagars in the morn-ring by boat specially for this occasion. The men, under the command of Col. Chadwick, presented a magnificent ap-pearance and showed the results of care-ful drill. The weather was ideal and the sight was wonderful, the open green sward surrounded by a line of khaki clad figures with the parliament buildings in the foreground.
