"We are dealing in candor," she cried. "Pray complete your confession, Baron von Kerber."

The Austrian did not abandon his dejected pose, but he took up the parable readily.

"There is one slip of paper you have never seen," Mr. Fenshawe said. "For a careful scribe as Demetriades gave no details of the loot? I kept them back. They were fifty canisters of precious vessels and rare stuffs brought from the East. There were one hundred and twenty canisters of gold coins, and two canisters of red leather wallets filled with pearls and rubies and diamonds."

Irene could not restrain a little gasp of wonderment at von Kerber's amazing catalogue. Her grandfather looked at her. "You were wiser than I, little girl," he murmured. "You warned me that these people were deceiving me, yet I refused to listen."

"Oh, one has to follow the path that promises success," interrupted von Kerber savagely. "Had I told you these things you would have taken the bait. You would have been the Italian government. Why do you prate of deceit? Had we found the treasure, you must have seen everything. Only money to hold you to your bond and demand my third share. Lasher Gott! if you were not a stiff-necked Englishman, you would now, even at the twelfth hour, force these Italian hirelings to disgorge."

"Meaning that you advise a surprise march on Suleiman's camp," he said, "inquired Mr. Fenshawe, acidic impatient."

"Better than turn back at the very threshold!"

Excellent! The voyage of the Aphrodite would then achieve an international fame which would secure the ages."

The blank despair in von Kerber's face won Royson's pity. He could not help sympathizing with him. And there was something to be said for his point of view. If Mrs. Haxton had given the true version of the finding of the papirus, the Austrians' methods were comprehensible. Suleiman has poverty been tempted by a vision of such enormous wealth.

"May I make a suggestion, sir?" he asked, seeing that no one was willing to resume a somewhat acrid conversation. "As to the form of attack."

Mr. Fenshawe was still amused by the idea of treating the Italians to a coup de main.

"No, we have made a long journey, and it might at least be determined whether or not it was justified. Will you allow me one other Arab less widely known than the skeikh, to try a small experiment. Let us endeavor to enter the Italian camp and find out what is going on? I can pass easily as a member of a shooting party who has lost his way. They will not slay me at sight on that account. At any rate, I am quite prepared to risk it."

"The very thing!" exclaimed Mrs. Haxton, springing out of her chair. "Abdullah is there, and you know him. You must not appear. Let Abdur Kad' send one of his men into the camp by night. He will bring Abdullah to us at a preconcerted rendezvous, and Abdullah will tell you what Alfieri is doing. Better still, let Abdullah come here. If he knows I sent you, he will accompany you without a moment's delay."

"The proper person to go and summon Abdullah is Baron von Kerber," put in Irene tremulously.

"Before I sanction any proceeding of the sort, I wish to ask why Abdullah is apparently in league with your sworn enemy," demanded Mr. Fenshawe.

"The Governor of Massowah told me he was despatching an expedition to the Five Hills," said Mrs. Haxton eagerly. "I was sure it would fail, for reasons which the Baron has explained, but I had Abdur Kad' with me."

Catarrh

Whether it is of the nose, throat, stomach, bowels, or more delicate organs, catarrh is always debilitating and should have attention.

The discharge from the mucous membrane is because this is kept in a state of inflammation by an impure condition of the blood. Therefore, to cure, take the best blood purifier, Hood's Sarsaparilla.

unwilling conveyance, but he handed the single rein to Abdur Kad', and hastened towards a rock in whose shadow stood Irene, garbed and cloaked so that she was scarcely discernible.

I cannot tell you how glad I am to see you, Miss Fenshawe," he cried, "yet, in the same breath, I must protest against your wandering so far from the camp. Are you alone?"

"You may be sure of that. Otherwise I should not be here." She laughed cheerfully, for the escape had in it a spice of adventure, and she wished to give it a lighter turn.

"Then you have news for me?"

"No. You heard that I passed today. Since then, my grandfather has refused to discuss the affair. As a result, Mrs. Haxton and the Baron were snappy at dinner. In fact, they were unendurable, and I was delighted when they left us."

"It is a hateful thing to have to lecture you," he said, coming nearer, and trying to peer into her face, "but you know you ought not to take this risk. It is too venturesome. I think that this section of the desert is fairly clear of any real danger, so far as prowling Bedouins are concerned, but there are other unpleasant neighbors—in the shape of snakes and scorpions."

"I am wearing riding boots," she interrupted. "And I shall soon relieve your anxiety by returning to my hammock. Pray don't trouble about me, Mr. Royson. I have waylaid you with purpose. It is too late now, I suppose, to dissuade you from carrying out a useless and absurd journey, but I can at least suggest that you should consider the lives of others, in the mistaken belief that you are serving Mr. Fenshawe's interests."

A GOOD STOMACH
Means Good Health, Cheerfulness, Ambition, Persistency and Success.

Mi-na will cure your dyspepsia or any other stomach trouble by building up the flabby walls and making the stomach so strong that it will digest food without distress or any other artificial aid.

In other words, Mi-na cures dyspepsia by removing the cause.

Mr. George Linder, of corner Mill and Park streets, Elmira, Ont., says: "For about ten years I have been severely troubled with stomach trouble, and indigestion, and constipation. I secured a package of Mi-na with the result that after having taken two boxes I am entirely cured and feel as well as ever. I perfectly understand and feel fine. Mi-na also overcame my constipation. I am only too glad to publicly endorse and recommend Mi-na."

C. M. B. A. SMOKER
Enjoyable Time Last Evening in C.M.B.A. Hall, Union Street.

Branch 134, C. M. B. A. held an enjoyable smoker in their rooms last evening. The society's hall was in its usual good form. Frederick Cummins as Tweed Bix was very amusing. Open Dumb and David Mason did good work in their respective parts. Robert Siddell as Clem MacChesney gave a natural rendering of the character.

"The Three of Us" is a very prettily worked up play. The sentiment is very well blended to make a most satisfactory portrayal of the good and bad diffused through the life of the modern mining town.

Tonight the company will present the beautiful four act comedy drama, "Wife in Name Only." The scenes are laid in France and the acts are divided as follows:

Act One—A salon in the Chateau au Beaulieu, "The Introduction." Act Two—

Act Three—A room in the Chateau au Beaulieu, "The Introduction." Act Four—

Act Five—A room in the Chateau au Beaulieu, "The Introduction." Act Six—

Act Seven—A room in the Chateau au Beaulieu, "The Introduction." Act Eight—

Fashion Hint for Times Readers

THE EVENING WRAP MUST BE LUXURIOUS. Gorgeous affairs to be sure, are some of the wraps that are flitting across opera chair backs and sweeps in restaurants over fragile gowns. The severity of tailored trimmings has no place in the evening coat, and this rich model is typically modish. Fringe, velvet and heavy silk embroidery are combined as trimming. For extra warmth at the throat, there is one of the little fur "tuck-in" cravats of chinchilla.

PLAYS AND PLAYERS

THE THREE OF US IS A GOOD SHOW

Harkins Company Gave Another Excellent Production in the Opera House.

The W. S. Harkins Company added another successful production to their list at the Opera House last evening. An appreciative audience witnessed a clever presentation of another play, new to this city, "The Three of Us." The scenes are laid in a Nevada mining camp, the people are from the east and the events of modern import.

As indicated by the name, the action centres round three persons, a girl, her two younger brothers, and their interest in a mining claim. The girl, Rhy MacChesney, is the moving spirit of the piece and in that role Miss Morton had an opportunity of demonstrating her ability to uphold an unusually trying part most acceptably.

Miss Avril as Mrs. Tweed Bix was convincing. Miss Paige as Maggie and Miss Wright as Bonnie MacChesney, furnished the comedy.

Wilmer Walter gave a strong personation of Stephen Tomlinson, Louis Brennan as Louis Brennan was in his usual good form. Frederick Cummins as Tweed Bix was very amusing. Open Dumb and David Mason did good work in their respective parts. Robert Siddell as Clem MacChesney gave a natural rendering of the character.

At THE NICKEL

To sit back in a comfortable chair and be whirled at a high rate of railway speed through the most gorgeous natural scenery in the world—among the Swiss Alps—will be the privilege today of people who attend the Nickel. It is a railway trip from the village of Chamonix to Fayet and the snow-capped peaks, the icy valleys, the picturesque hamlets with their quaint chalets will be a certain delight—educational too. Then there is going to be a charming life-like reproduction of the picture which the onlooker cannot escape. Coming down to comics, "Ideal Policeman," and "Mabel's Beau in Trouble," will provoke a whirlwind of merriment. Pat Harrington will sing "I'm Afraid to Come Home in the Dark," and Miss Poley and Mr. Cairns will also sing. Taken together, this is one of the best shows the Nickel has ever presented. The "Song of the Shillit" reel is dated at New York, Nov. 17.

A BIG MUSICAL EVENT

The interest being manifested in the grand concert to be given in the Opera House on the 24th inst. is increasing every day. Such talented artists as Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Seville, Miss Murray and Harry McCleskey are sure to draw a full house on the occasion.

At Mrs. Miller's last appearance in St. John, she captivated her hearers by the irresistible charm of her singing. Among Mrs. Miller's numbers will be that beautiful song, "Good-bye."

Mr. McCleskey's singing, which appeals so to the intellect as well as to the emotions, will undoubtedly be received with hearty appreciation by his many friends.

All holders of exchange tickets should have their tickets exchanged for seat checks at once if they wish to obtain a good seat for this concert.

ON FRIDAY EVENING

A public meeting will be held by the New Brunswick Fish, Forest and Game Protection Association, in the Board of Trade rooms on Friday evening next, in the interest of the good work being done by the association.

On behalf of the association, Douglas W. Clinch a few days ago made application to Hon. Mr. Grimmer, surveyor general, asking him to request the provincial government to make a grant of $1,000 to the association for carrying on the work until after a convention which is to be held in Fredericton some time the coming winter.

At the convention itself is expected to be held in Fredericton, Nova Scotia and the New England States, and that there will be experts of fish, forest and game protection and representatives of railways and lumber interests. It is hoped that after the convention the financial end will adjust itself.

Mr. Clinch in his letter tells of many times on which the association have been working for fish, forest and game protection and supplied Mr. Grimmer with a large amount of information in detail on these matters.

One of the most recent matters brought to the attention of the association is the alleged slaughter of partridges by farmers in the vicinity of Gasperow Station. Reports were that the birds were being killed for sale and that 800 had been killed by farmers in a territory of six miles square. Accompanying this information was the suggestion that the sale of game birds killed in New Brunswick be prohibited for five years.

It is expected that much information will be obtained at the convention and it is hoped there will be a large attendance.

G. Bogue Smart, Ottawa, chief inspector of child immigration for Canada, is at the Royal. He is on his annual inspection trip and after a few days here he will go to Halifax. While in this province Mr. Smart will visit the Elnor Close farm at New Brunswick.

U. N. B. SENATE WILL ENLARGE THE UNIVERSITY EQUIPMENT

Report That A. ex. Gibson Co's Timber Limits and Mills are to be Bought by American Interests.

Fredericton, Nov. 17.—The annual meeting of the University Senate is taking place today. This morning the Senate met at the board of education room and considered the financial statement. This afternoon they are meeting at the university building and incidentally inspecting the improvements and additions which have lately been made. Dr. Inch presided this morning and those present were Mr. J. V. Ellis, Dr. Thomas Walker, Dr. W. W. White, Dr. H. S. Bridges, Mr. W. M. McLean and Judge McLeod, St. John; Hon. C. P. Hill, St. Stephen; C. Foster, J. D. Phinney, J. H. Barry, Chancellor Jones and Registrar Coy, of this city.

There was some discussion over the methods of bookkeeping by which the surplus could be shown to be different amounts, but the actual surplus was placed at about $1,000. Ordinary receipts were placed at $24,729.22 and the ordinary expenditures at $20,485, added to which was $1,000 on gymnasium, while the current account had been increased by $447.77, and there had also been an increase of about $2,400 in capital account. The institution now receives aid from the provincial government to the extent of about $12,000.

This afternoon a very satisfactory conference was held with members of faculty during the course of which demands were made for increased equipment for several departments which the senate considered favorably. The reports from the different classes were highly satisfactory.

At the conclusion of the meeting, the members of the senate inspected the arts and science buildings and new gymnasium and expressed themselves as being much pleased with what they saw. It was decided to increase the insurance on the arts building from $20,000 to $30,000, and to add $1,000 insurance to the gymnasium.

Supporting stories of the sale the fact that the Gibson Company have not yet been contracted with their operators for the winter cut, although in past seasons they have already had men in the woods before this time.

The Gibson Company's property is, perhaps, the most valuable lumbering property in this province. It consists in all of about 225,000 acres of timber lands which the company owns absolutely, 100,000 acres of this being on the Nackawic, Tobique and elsewhere in the province. They also hold under lease from the province 219 1/2 square miles of crown lands.

The signatures on the prohibition petitions already in the hands of E. N. Stockford, secretary of the N. B. Temperance Federation, number about 7,000. These are from some of the parishes and do not include any from the larger centers of population, such as St. John, Fredericton, Moncton, Woodstock and St. Stephen.

There were in all some 700 petitions sent out and they were placed in churches and temperance society rooms for signatures. Every county is included, though the work is very unevenly done. New Brunswick is included, though it was at first planned on having all the petitions in the hands of the secretary by Nov. 18, the time, as announced yesterday, has been extended indefinitely. It is now hoped to have all the petitions in a meeting of the federation called and an interview with the provincial government arranged about the same time.
