Mr. K., in soliciting patronage for the above Establishment, would say, that parties at a distance desirous to have a Piao or Melodeon, WILL be as well served by applying to him by letter, stating what maker they would prefer and to what expense they would wish to go. Mr. K. has had to do with Pianos for 25 years, in Germany as well as in America, and is generally supposed to understand his business thoroughly. With regard to parties placing implicit confidence in him, he does not wish for it, but he is at all times willing, in cases where the selecting of the instrument has been left to HIM, to let the Piano go on trial for 6 months, and if not giving PERFECT satisfaction, it will be exchanged at once, at Mr. K's expense. All his instruments

ARE GUARANTEED.

The prices of such Guaranteed Pianos are from £67 10s. to £150 or £200, according to Compass, to Tone, and to Exterior Finish. Prince's Melodeons, from £12 10s. to £42 10s. C'y. The latter kind being most certainly the finest instrument which can be used in small Churches.
