REV. MR. McCASKILL CHAPLAIN OF 73RD AT DIGGATE CAMP

Royal Highland Regiment of Montreal—Just Home After Recruiting Campaign.
 Rev. J. J. McCaskill received news this morning that he has been appointed chaplain of the 73rd Royal Highlanders of Montreal, under Lt. Col. Fern Davidson. He is delighted with the appointment and will join the regiment the latter part of this month.
 Mr. McCaskill has just returned from Grand Manan and other islands down the bay, where he and Senator Gillmore and Capt. H. H. Smith have been addressing recruiting meetings. They spoke at North Head, Seal Cove and Grand Harbour and had good meetings. A number of young men expressed their desire to join the colors. Mr. McCaskill says that part of the province has not been given the attention it should receive in the campaign for recruits. The men are very busy at present, but good results may be looked for later.

Better Food Than in Canada—Three Days Field Exercises—Wounded Soldier Said—Officers Very Popular—Drafts Going to The Front
 In a letter written Aug. 26, Signaller E. A. Belding of the 6th C. M. R., at Diggate Camp, says—
 "As I write I hear cheers for another draft leaving tonight for the front. Another goes tomorrow. This morning I saw a cruiser, two torpedo boats, three submarines, one dirigible, one aeroplane and a balloon scouting for German submarines. Soon after a couple of troopships started for Dover. The cheers outside are now very hearty, but the boys are leaving nearly every night and we are used to it. Our turn will come after a while. We certainly are worried here in Canada. We do night marches now and our time is limited. We left here Monday morning and got back Wednesday afternoon at 1.30. We slept in the field two nights and marched forty miles in three days, carrying our heavy packs on our backs. We marched sixteen miles to Ashford, were up at 8.45 next morning and took our position. A big sham fight was on, the whole Canadian Division being engaged. We were supported on our left by the 88th and 46th Battalions of Infantry, and on our right by the 4th Kent Yeomanry Regiment, mounted. We were forced to retreat several times, but each time returned. All day the sham battle raged, till at 4.30 our side made a bayonet charge which won the day. Then we marched back to our field and slept there that night. Wednesday we started at 7.45 and marched back to Diggate, stopping several times, and at one place an hour for dinner, arriving in camp at 1.45; so you can see we made the sixteen miles in very good time for the load we carried. It was our first affair of that kind. I was attached to Capt. Scovill on the firing line, and it was no joke running and sending messages. We spent this morning at the beach swimming and drilled from 1.45 till 3 this afternoon.
 "Major Marchand has received news of his brother's death and feels it keenly. He is a popular officer, and the boys would follow him or Major King to death itself.
 "I have been meeting fellows from home every day here. There are two sitting next to me who are going to the front tomorrow night. They are sending their last letters from England for awhile. I am in the same tent with the Rogers brothers of Amherst, who are making splendid progress as signallers.
 "Just across the table from me sits a chap who was wounded three times at Ypres. He is laughing and telling these other boys what they may expect. It is very interesting and maintaining belief in me. He says that the Germans will not stand for a bayonet charge, but two inches of your head will all they need for a target. The German bayonet is twice as long as ours, has a hook on the end, and edges like a saw. Our boys are getting trained in bomb-throwing now."
 Signaller Belding says the Police Battalion Baptist Church, in the Police Station, is holding services on Sundays, and also sang recently at a concert given by the singing artists, including Rev. Dr. Shields of Jarvis street church, Toronto, gave a short address.

FALSEHOODS CIRCULATED

Wounded Soldier Yarn Told To Enlist—The Facts of the Case
 A commercial traveler, who ought to be in khaki, has been putting a damper on recruiting in Chipman and other places. Recently an advertisement appeared in the papers asking for an easy job for a returned wounded soldier. This commercial traveler has been circulating the story that the soldier in question had been vainly begging around the wholesale houses in St. John for work. The inference of course was that the people of St. John were showing a shameful indifference to the welfare of a man who has bled for his country.
 Now for the facts. The man in question, a couple of weeks ago, went to Supt. Groulx of the C. P. R., said he had been in the Northwest Mounted Police, also for a time with the C. P. R.; that he had enlisted and gone over with the first contingent, had been wounded, had been sent back, and had lately been discharged from a hospital in Montreal. He had then gone to Ottawa and fixed up his affairs with the militia department, but there was some little delay and he had not transportation and come to St. John, without any money.
 Mr. Groulx gave him some money and sent him to Judge Forbes of the Patriotic Fund, who put the advertisement in the papers for him. Major Frink promptly gave him a temporary job at city hall, with more than a living wage, and he went to work.
 This morning two young men came to stay at the Grand Union Hotel called on the mayor, one of them to say that the wounded soldier had been sent out to be fagged but had not returned it, and it could not be located, and the other to say that the soldier had received three dollars from him and one dollar from another man, and had failed to pay it back. They thought he was on guard at city hall, and went to see about it.
 And that is the story about the wounded soldier whose words were patriotic soul of the commercial traveler in Chipman.
 Lieut. Clements had the traveler's story put up to him last night and today, and telephoned down for the facts. He got them, and will use them before he left Chipman, and will have them at the Minto meeting tonight. He says one of the heads of committees were appointed and several names added to the executive. It was decided to continue tonight meetings, and to have on some one evening a series of four or five simultaneous meetings in different parts of the city. The finance committee was authorized to take up with the civic and other authorities the question of additional funds as may be necessary. An effort will be made to continue the meetings in factories, and if possible to secure the services of such another as Sergt. Knight for a short time. With this in view, the military authorities at Halifax will be communicated with. With regard to the work of the executive the plan of appointing a chairman for each of the several committees and leaving him free to select his helpers to secure the best results was adopted.

Joe Page Sends Another Youngster to Big League
 Fred Butner, Pitcher, Takes His Eye in Maine Games and He Gets Chance
 Joe Page has given another young man his first step towards fame and fortune in the big league route. On a recent trip through Maine he saw Fred Butner, pitcher of the Boston Red Sox, in the Lakeview team in the Central Maine League. Joe was so much impressed with the pitcher that he opened negotiations with the result that Butner reported to the White Sox in Boston last Saturday for a try-out.
 The discovery is a young man of only twenty years, but he is more than an inch over the six foot mark and weighs about 160 pounds and has other qualifications as well as his size and weight, to commend him to the fans.
 Fred Butner, pitcher, takes his eye in Maine games and he gets a chance to show his stuff in the big league.

St. Andrew's Rink at 8 O'Clock—Important Recruiting Matters
 This evening's great recruiting meeting in St. Andrew's Rink at eight o'clock will be addressed by Rev. F. S. Porter and others. An effort is also being made to get some music.
 The executive of the recruiting committee met this morning at the Board of Trade with T. H. Estabrooks in the chair. He was elected permanent chairman, and also chairman of the speakers committee for the next two weeks. Other heads of committees were appointed and several names added to the executive. It was decided to continue tonight meetings, and to have on some one evening a series of four or five simultaneous meetings in different parts of the city. The finance committee was authorized to take up with the civic and other authorities the question of additional funds as may be necessary. An effort will be made to continue the meetings in factories, and if possible to secure the services of such another as Sergt. Knight for a short time.  The push of the local dealer is mighty helpful to the manufacturer with a good brand to sell. It is the key link in the chain of distribution.
 That "push" can often be secured as a co-operative factor to newspaper advertising.
 The dealer is a newspaper reader and he knows conditions in his city.
 He knows that the manufacturer's newspaper advertising will create a demand which he can feel.
 He knows it profits him to get behind newspaper advertised goods and he does.
 Manufacturers needing the "dealer push" are invited to address the Bureau of Advertising, American Newspaper Publishers Association, World Building, New York.

THE DOG SHOW

Last evening the committee in charge of the dog show, which will open in the Queen's rink on next Tuesday, decided to offer classes for sporting spaniels. This was done to accommodate owners of spaniels weighing eight to forty-five pounds. The first prize in this class will be a silver cup.
 The breeding for the show is now about completed. Entries are coming in very satisfactorily, and there is no doubt that this year's dog show will far surpass anything in this part of the Dominion.
 Entries will be received this evening and tomorrow evening at the Dufferin sample rooms, south side of King square. Intending exhibitors are reminded that no entry can be accepted later than tomorrow, 18th inst.
