SONS OF ENGLAND MEN OF THE 52ND GUESTS OF LOCAL LODGES

Officers and members of New Brunswick Lodge, Sons of England, in their lodge room, Clayton Hall, associated with the sister lodges of St. John last evening, entertained the visiting brothers of Winchester Lodge No. 99 of Port Arthur, Guilford Lodge No. 111, and Lord Roberts Lodge No. 322, of Fort Williams, and Tucker Lodge No. 895, of Schreiber, all belonging to the 52nd.

The chair was taken by President H. H. Barker and speeches, songs and games were enjoyed by all, and a bountiful supply of refreshments was supplied by Mr. Clayton of New Brunswick Lodge.

T. H. Carter, district deputy, addressed words of welcome to the visitors and wished them God speed and a safe return. E. Lawrence, president of Marlborough, C. Landon, president of Portland, J. E. Daley, P. P. of Guilford Lodge, and Commissioner Potts of New Brunswick Lodge, also addressed the meeting. Songs were sung by E. Panter, G. Lewis, J. Faulkner, E. Britton, Mr. Fitts, Mr. Tong, Joseph Primann and Mr. Spencer also gave some excellent recitations.

A plentiful supply of cigars and cigarettes were supplied to the soldier brothers and after refreshments were served and games indulged in, and in all a most enjoyable evening, the meeting closed by all singing O Canada and God Save the King.

TWO MORE ST. JOHN BROTHERS MEET NEAR THE LINE OF BATTLE

Letters telling of the meeting of two of their three soldiers sons near the firing line have been received by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Penny, 42 Cannon street.

Stanley, who went over in the first contingent with the artillery, told of the arrival of the 26th, of which his brother Gordon is a member, but said that they had moved again before he also reached there. He tells of coming safely through the big battle in spite of the fact that he had the dangerous job of carrying orders from headquarters to the batteries.

A fortnight later Gordon Penny writes telling of meeting his brother and finding him in good health with a comfortable shelter and plenty to eat. He himself was well and enjoying life.

The third son, Earle, is with the artillery in Halifax.

COLONEL GASKIN OF SALVATION ARMY TO BE HERE NEXT WEEK

Colonel Albert Gaskin of the Salvation Army is expected to visit St. John next week to inspect Major Barr, St. John divisional commander for the St. John division. This interesting ceremony will be held in the Clarendon street, and the members of all the corps in the city together with the staff and field officers will make for the event. The public is also invited.

Colonel Gaskin is the chief secretary of the Salvation Army in Canada, and is responsible for the maintenance of the highest possible degree of efficiency of every branch of the work. There are ten departments at the territorial headquarters in Toronto, including those for finance, property, field, social, trade, printing, young people's affairs, etc., and all these operate under his direction.

The territory under his jurisdiction of the Toronto headquarters is divided into eight divisions, with a divisional commander in charge, who is also responsible to the chief secretary.

Colonel Gaskin has been associated with the Salvation Army in Canada for nearly twenty years, has traveled extensively, and is well and favorably known as a public speaker of distinct ability. Mrs. Gaskin will accompany on this occasion.

LIGHTS IN MILFORD ROAD AND BEACONSFIELD BECOMES STATION MASTER

An improvement which will be greatly appreciated.

Last night four large electric lights, 100 watts, tungsten, were turned on for the first time along Milford road and proved very satisfactory. Arc light has been installed near the C. P. R. crossing at the foot of McClure's Hill, always a dangerous spot; another at the junction of Randolph and Milford roads; a third in the hollow near Wilson house, below Randolph Hill; hitherto one of the darkest and most dangerous sections for pedestrian travel, and the fourth has been placed near St. Rose's Hall.

Councillor O'Brien says this illumination is all the present lighting system of the St. John Railway Co. will allow for, but so soon as changes and improvements can be made, the light service will be extended until ten or twelve will be allotted to Milford. Pleasant Point is also to be served later on.

At present lights are also being installed in Beaconsfield under supervision of the highway board, as follows—Corner of Duke street and Lancaster avenue, junction of Dufferin row and Lancaster avenue, corner of Winslow street and Lancaster avenue, and corner of Charlotte and Tower streets. These new lights will make a big difference to the district served.

Mr. Smith, who was forty-eight years of age, was a native of West St. John, but lived for many years in Welsford before removing to Bathurst. His wife died before him and he is survived by one brother, Charles, in the west. The funeral took place on Tuesday at Bathurst, interment being made there.

WILL NEED ALL MEN THEY CAN GET FROM CANADA

Harold E. Baker of the 26th Sends An Interesting Letter Home From Front

Mrs. Rufus Henderson of Marsh Bridge, has received from her son, Harold E. Baker, of the 26th Battalion, the following letter—

Oct. 29, 1915.
 Dear Mother—
 Just a few lines to let you know I am well. Mother, I received your parcel yesterday and I can tell you those socks will come in nice. We just came out of the trenches last night after a very quiet week, as far as the Germans were concerned. But we were in mud and water to our knees and it was very cold, in fact we had a hail storm one night. Things do not look good for us now, since Bulgaria has entered the war, and it looks very much as if Greece was going to go with them.

I tell you we have not got it all our own way—very far from it. You would think that the St. John papers you sent over to me that there was nothing to it.

But the Allies have had some important wins. They will need all the men they can get from Canada before this thing is over. And I think it is up to some I know to get busy or they will be fighting Germans from behind the flagpole in the old Haymarket Square the day that they know.

We were issued rubber caps and sheepskin coats today, but I would sooner have a good pair of those lumberman's boots that lace up to your knees than anything I know of. You might send a nice big fruit cake the first chance you get. I know I am a trouble, but when you are a poor orphan and so far away from home there is some excuse for me. I guess that is about all for now at least. It is all I can think of now. If you want to see a man die game this is the place to see it right in the old 26th. In our little engagement on the 18th some of the poor fellows that were mortally wounded knew that it was all up with them, would lay in the trench and tell the first aid men to never mind them, but go and help some one else. Tell you it makes you feel like getting up and doing something. But never mind, the Germans will not get so very much longer. As I have not any more news for now I will have to close for this time.

STEPHEN HOWES WAS KILLED BY A BOMB

Particulars of Death of Sussex Hero, Who Gave His Life in Defence of Empire and Home

Word has been received by relatives of the late Stephen Howes of the 96th Battalion, who was recently killed in the trenches in Belgium, giving particulars of his death.

A letter from Benjamin Gaskin, brother of Rev. P. B. Gaskin, Warford, states that "Stephen was killed instantly by a bomb, and his chum, who was beside him, was wounded so badly that he died in the way of the dressing station."

The boys were standing together laughing when the German bomb came down. Stephen tried to escape it but it exploded almost instantly. Stephen and his chum are buried in one of the covered with green sod. I was to their general and helped to get Stephen ready for burial. Serge. John J. Ross in a letter to Miss Howes, sister of the deceased, says that Stephen and he were the only Sussex boys in B. Company of the 96th.

"I myself saw that the grave was properly arranged and a cross erected. I will see while remaining here that it is kept in proper shape. Should I be fortunate enough to return home will explain full particulars to you. I was with Stephen at the time of his death."

The burial took place about one mile in rear of firing line.
