IMPERIAL'S KIDDIES CAPTURE THE TOWN

Theatre Crowded Since Opening Last Thursday to See Wonderful Youngsters in Their Best Attraction Yet, "Jack and the Beanstalk."

This is the first time an Imperial Theatre programme has been given critical notice since the children have been putting on their third periodical offering, "Jack and the Beanstalk." However, lack of newspaper commendation has not in the least slackened the traffic imperial-wards for the crowds that have been jamming into the big house since last Thursday indicate again the wonderful appreciation people cherish for the clever performances of the youngsters and the art of Mrs. Jack Rossley in training them.

Jack and the Beanstalk, as the fairy tale runs, is a pretty flimsy plot upon which to hang even an opera but the old tale passes muster and veritably a wonderment of singing, dancing, marches, ensembles, stage pictures and comedy situations build up an enterprising performance that runs more than an hour and a quarter, never lagging a moment, never falling to elicit exclamations of pleasure and loud applause of recognition. The personnel of the company embraces no less than thirty-five cast members, so it would be perhaps unfair to particularize, but let it be said right here and now that no child-actor has ever put on in St. John (possibly not excepting the famous Pollard Lilliputian troupe) has pleased more thoroughly, or acted and sung with more grace and finish.

The fairy extravaganza is laid in three scenes, the cottage and garden of Dame Thrift, mother of Jack; the kitchen of the Giant with his prodigious utensils, clothing, fireplace, table, chair, etc.—no mention the eight-foot giant himself—and the seashore. These original scenic bits were painted by the Imperial's own artist, F. W. Stringer, and the mass of charming costumes were the result of the needlework and design of Mrs. Rossley and her aides. In this particular the show simply scintillates with dash and color. It is a revelation as a home-made article.

Of course, as usual, the popular honours go to the baby performance which is little Miss McAllister, as sword-bearer, the others Louise McAlins, daughters of the ex-inspector whose home is now in the Montreal and who left the kiddies with dash and color. It is a revelation as a home-made article. SPEAKER RHODES TO QUIT POLITICS

(Canadian Press Dispatch)
Halifax, N. S., July 4.—Although he will continue to discharge his duties as speaker of the house of commons, during the life of present parliament, Hon. E. N. Rhodes, M. P., for Cumberland, Nova Scotia, is retiring from political life to become general manager of the British American Nickel Corporation with headquarters at Ottawa, according to an Amherst (N. S.), dispatch to the Halifax Chronicle tonight. Mr. Rhodes will leave Amherst for Ottawa within a few days the despatch added.

"No one apart from those directly concerned knows the demands that are made on a man in the service of the public. I will be delighted to have the mantle of office fall to another," said Mr. Rhodes, announcing his retirement.

Hon. E. N. Rhodes first entered the arena of active politics in 1898, when he was appointed secretary of the Conservative party in Cumberland County. A year later he entered partnership in the practice of law with the late Hon. W. T. Pipes, one-time premier of Nova Scotia, and from that time on was intimately connected with provincial and federal politics. For the last thirteen years he has represented Cumberland County in the Dominion parliament. He is forty-four years of age. He was born in Amherst and educated at Acadia and Dalhousie universities. In 1902 he was admitted to the bar of Nova Scotia. He married Grace M. Pipes, daughter of the late Hon. W. T. Pipes and has one son and one daughter.

CITY PLAYGROUNDS SCHOOL OF MANNERS

Dr. Gadbois Asserted Montreal Does More for Children Than Other Cities.

(Montreal Gazette)
This season, as was the case last year, special instructors will be engaged by the city of Montreal for the benefit of children frequenting the playgrounds.

The claim was made yesterday by Dr. J. P. Gadbois, superintendent of playgrounds, that despite certain drawbacks Montreal was doing more for the children than was done by any other city of similar size. For example, the playgrounds were open longer each day and on every day of the year, while in the United States such grounds were closed on Sundays and on holidays.

"There seems to be a reawakening in playgrounds," said Dr. Gadbois. "The movement is studied everywhere and people are beginning to give more thought to the children. We do more here than any other city of the same size. In U. S. cities the playgrounds are open about 300 days a year, as they close on Sundays and holidays, but we keep our playgrounds open all the time, and on Sundays and holidays we have more children at the playgrounds, at least double the number attend on those days. We also keep our playgrounds open twelve hours, instead of eight hours, as in the U. S., and in spite of the fact we have a smaller number of employees spend less money, we have more picnics and more ways to entertain the children than they have. On Wednesday (today) a large picnic has been organized at Dominion Park, for which 15,000 invitations have been given to children from thirty-six schools situated in the northern and eastern districts of the city. They will leave Lafontaine Park at 2 p.m. This outing is due to the generosity of Mr. L. R. Cooper, who is supplying the tickets to the children, and tickets for such shows which are not dangerous. Mr. Cooper is also supplying an orchestra for the children's dances and for the gymnastics by the boys at the park. This will be an interesting sight.

"The next celebration will be held on Fletcher's Field, where we will construct a Zionist flag, composed of Jewish children. Afterwards we will distribute ice cream to the living members of the flag."
