THE RING.

A Knockout.

Montreal, Feb. 23.—Eugene Brosseau, the crack Canadian middleweight, knocked out Young Hearn, middleweight champion of Europe, in the first round of a scheduled ten-round bout here tonight.

Ahearn opened on the offensive and Brosseau side-stepped his opponent and sent a left to his jaw which staggered him. Ahearn still continued to be aggressive and Brosseau opened up, offering the latter accepted and stepped in. Brosseau feinted with his left, Ahearn ducked and Brosseau started an upper cut to an abrupt conclusion. Ahearn was picked up dazed and carried to his corner.

The semi-windup was between Frechette and Bud Murphy of Syracuse and was won by the former who rallied in the third round.

Langford Wins.

Memphis, Tenn., Feb. 23.—Sam Langford, Boston negro heavyweight, knocked out "Battling" Gabe, Memphis, negro, in the second bout of a scheduled eight-round bout here tonight.

No Match for Murray.

Philadelphia, Feb. 23.—Tommy Holt of England made his debut in a ring here tonight by losing to Battling Murray of Philadelphia. Murray knocked the Englishman down five times in the first round and after he had floored Holt twice in the second the referee stopped the bout.

Souderton, Pa., Feb. 23.—Clarence Stauffer of Bethlehem, who last season pitched the Souderton team of the Montgomery County League to a pennant, has become the property of the New York Giants and will go south with the McGraw for spring training.

Players Not Signing.

New York, Feb. 23.—Some major league clubs face an unusual situation this year, for with the clubs starting next week, it will undoubtedly be necessary for the managers to take to the training camps a number of players who have not signed contracts. The major leagues have been against this practice, but it now appears as if it will be necessary this season.

Baseball Players Have Been Slower About Signing Contracts This Season Than Ever Before.

The demand for more salary is higher than the club owners ever dreamed of, and with the players so backward about coming to terms, even in cases where raises have been made voluntarily, the club owners have some reason to be alarmed. Heretofore ball players have been in the habit of obtaining advance money from the clubs, but this year this practice has not been followed to any great extent.

Baseball Players Have Been Slower About Signing Contracts This Season Than Ever Before.

If a player drew advance money, it was an easier matter to bring him to terms, because he was under obligation to the club at the start. With the players who have obtained no cash thus far, the managers find that they are slow about coming to terms.

West, from his home in Poin, Md., sent word to President Ebbers that his contract was his to sign. He said that he was all ready to report to Jacksonville.

Halifax Prepares.

Halifax, Feb. 23.—Nova Scotia's hockey season is near the end, and the baseball season is getting anxious, and during the last week of the season, the local clubs have been plentiful. While it is rather early to get any advance dope on the outlook for Halifax and other Nova Scotia towns, judging by the great interest taken in the games last year, the coming season will be a better one in so far as baseball in Nova Scotia is concerned. Record crowds attended last summer's games, and the brand of ball handed out was for the most part good.

Mac's Men at Work.

Lake Charles, La., Feb. 24.—Connie Mack and twelve pitchers and catchers of the Philadelphia American League Club began spring training here yesterday. The weather was fair and warm. The pitchers reporting were Lyle Bigbee, Charles Eckert, Robert Haddi, David Keene, Walter Kinney, Patrick Martin, Wm. Pierson, Edward Rommel and Wm. Grey.

Billiards.

Tournament in Boston. Boston, Feb. 14.—The seventeenth annual Class A 18-2 ball billiard tournament opened here last night at the Boston Athletic Association with David McKelvey of Chicago, the present Class A champion, paired with Julian Rice, who recently won the Class B championship in Brooklyn. McKelvey won his match by a score of 300 to 197, his highest run being 50, 49 and 33.
