FAIRVILLE NEWS

Thanksgiving Day Notes—Personal—The Belgian Relief

The holiday was quietly observed in Fairville and vicinity. Most of the stores were open during the morning, but all joined in holiday making after the noon hour. A surprising number visited the Bay Shore, many carrying lunches, and for such the outing will be remembered as ideal in scenic, charm and beautiful weather. Perhaps the spot of greatest activity was at the Suspension Bridge, the northerly side being crowded all afternoon by sightseers, to many of whom the bridge building going on a few yards away was a novel experience. Much interest centred in the man in charge of the blacksmith forge when he dropped red hot rivets five or six feet to his companion below, who caught them deftly in a pail, to be passed on to the rivetter. A few friendly bets were exchanged as to the probability of a drop into the falls occurring, and the workman's expertness was the cause of general admiration.

In the Fairville Methodist church on last Sunday, Thanksgiving services were held with large congregations participating. The entire front of the church was beautifully decorated by a capable committee under the leadership of Walter Fincher, gardener of the Provincial Hospital, and by special request the display of vegetables, fruit and flowers was allowed to remain untouched over the holiday, in order to be seen by friends who desired the privilege. Several pictures of the decorations were taken yesterday afternoon.

Rev. Geo. M. Young, of Tryon, P. E. I., spent yesterday afternoon in the village, renewing friendship with some of his old parishioners. He was warmly welcomed. Mr. Young comes from the heart of the black fox industry section of the island, and reports that business still is flourishing. He says the crops on the island are unusually bountiful. Lermont A. Stout and wife, of Winnipeg, arrived on the S.S. Calvin Austin on Saturday, having come here via Boston. They will visit for some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Stout, Main street.

Mrs. P. R. Hayward is visiting friends in Woodstock. Contributions for the Belgian Relief Fund are still coming in, but it is hoped that all who possibly can will send in their gifts as soon as possible, so that a first shipment may be sent to the receiving depot in St. John, N. S. Special mention was made in all the pulpits again on Sunday, and congregations were urged to do their utmost.

From South Bay, $12.95 in cash has been received, besides a well-filled box of clothing. This speaks for itself, showing the excellent results of one energetic person's effort in a small community.

MEETING OF DEANERY.

The quarterly meeting of the clergy of the Deanery of St. John is being held today at the residence of Rev. G. A. Kuhring, Coburg street. There is a good attendance of the Anglican clergy of the city. Mr. W. B. Armstrong, formerly rector of Welsford, but who is now residing in the city, was also present. Matters of importance are being discussed and details arranged for the mission to be held in St. John from November 22 to 29 inclusive.

GAME PLENTIFUL BUT SPORTSMEN ARE FEW

Fredericton, N.B., Oct. 13.—Charles Cremin, a well known guide, returned on Saturday evening from his camps on the Nepisiguit river. He has had four non-resident sportsmen in the woods since the season opened and they have secured eight moose, three caribou and seven deer. He reports game very plentiful. He does not think the number of non-resident sportsmen visiting the province will be more than half of last year's total.

Herold Kelley, fourteen-year-old son of Comelius Kelley, accidentally shot himself while out gunning on Brick Hill yesterday. A charge of bird shot entered his left arm and left shoulder inflicting an ugly wound. The doctors are hopeful of being able to save his arm.

Old residents say that the water in the St. John river has reached the lowest point in twenty-five years between city and Springhill. Much stock here is exposed and cattle are able to travel freely from one island to another.

The property of the St. John River Log Driving Company is now being cleared in the vicinity of the junction by the C.P.R. authorities. He has been called upon to the plans of a proposed road, the remainder are in the Valley Railway near Westwood street at divisional headquarters of the C.P.R. The logging laid down on Sunday night still remains and quietness prevails today. Mr. Thompson went to St. John last night.

BIDS FOR BIG ARMY SUPPLIES IN STATES

English and French Governments Want Wagons, Blankets, Saddles and Cartridges

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 13.—Negotiations for the purchase of several thousand army wagons, one million blankets, 200,000 saddles and bridles, and a large supply of rifle cartridges for the use of the English and French armies, were opened here today by representatives of those governments.

Representatives of the army purchasing department asked for immediate bids on the wagon contracts as it was said a large number are wanted for quick delivery in Canada. The remainder are to be delivered at future dates. Immediate delivery of blankets is demanded by the purchasers as they are wanted for the use of the troops in this winter's campaign.

BELGIAN RELIEF AND THE DUGAL REPORT TO ENGAGE GOVERNMENT

The local government will meet in Fredericton tomorrow evening. It is understood that steps will be taken to grant aid to the Belgians. The report of the royal commission on the Dugal charges may also be taken up.

THE $12,000 CASE IS AGAIN BEFORE COURT

There was a hearing before Judge Forbes in the county court chambers this morning in the suit of Thomas Nagle vs the St. John and Quebec Railway Company and Quebec and St. John Construction Company on application of the defendants, against whom a judgment was secured for about $12,000 several months ago, to set aside an order garnishing certain funds in the hands of Harding & Church as agents for the Prudential Trust Company in trust for the St. John and Quebec Construction Company.

GIVEN LIBERTY

A letter received today by L. A. Conlon from Ottawa told of a pardon being granted by the minister of justice to Herman G. Phillips, who in November, 1912, was sentenced by Judge Forbes in this city to five years in Dorchester penitentiary. He was convicted on a charge of forging a check on R. A. Lister & Co. For several months Mr. Conlon has been seeking his liberty for Phillips, and today received word that he had been given a ticket-of-leave by the department.
