ROSECRANS LOST AND MORE THAN 30 DROWNED

Since the steamer "Rosecrans" was launched twenty-nine years ago, at Glasgow, Scotland, trouble seemed to be ever with her. During the last year she was wrecked three times. Last year, in the third week, her master, Captain L. P. Johnson, and more than 30 men went down with her off the California coast. She was considered a "hookey" steamer and had frequently changed hands, being at one time in the use of the government as a transport, again used as a tanker, and for some time as a passenger boat. It was on her decks that Carver, who turned state's evidence, Phoebe, who tried him, was shot by O'Donnell, who had traced him half way round the world to South Africa.

CHECKERS WANT INCREASE. The members of the Marine Warehouse Checkers' Union met in their hall in Mill street. It was unanimously decided to petition the steamship companies for a moderation of hours and an increase of thirty per cent in their pay. The checkers now get twenty-two cents per hour and the foremen twenty-five cents, but under the new schedule the checkers would receive thirty cents an hour and the foremen thirty-five cents.

There are thirty-two streets in Paris named after illustrious chemists, while thirty bear the names of famous natural philosophers.

Something New for Men Restore Your Own Strength—No Drugs

The free illustrated pocket compendium of private advice for all men, whether young or elderly, single or married; whether well or ailing (explained below), not only contains a great fund of necessary information upon certain avoided private subjects, telling you what to avoid, what to do and what not to do, but also fully describes a new, small mechanical appliance called a VITALIZER, which generates a natural force and which is now being worn by men all over the world who seek new manly vigor. You yourself, no matter where you live, may easily have one of these little VITALIZERS to try out in your own case. Therefore, please use the coupon below and get this free pocket compendium by return mail. SANDS' V. AUTHOR.

How would YOU, reader, like to be strong, vigorous, vital and manly once more, without an ache, pain or weakness? If you really seek and want this new vigor, this rugged manly strength, then please call at my office or write today and get my free book that you may know the whole wonderful story of this great, drugless, self-treatment, this marvelous little VITALIZER of my invention, which you wear comfortably on your body, which sends its steady, silent supply of FORCE into your nerves, blood and organism while you sleep.

Real manhood with a perfect manly strength is not only nature's own gift, but, according to my belief, may easily be within the reach of practically any man. Of course, we all know that it is the husky, vigorous, vital fellow who attracts both women and men to him, and it is he, also, who is ever sought out and who achieves the really big things of life. Sturdy, vital manhood is, without doubt the most great, silent universal power which fascinates us all, no matter how we may argue to the contrary. Therefore, reader, I care not what may be your age, nationality or creed; whether you are married or single; whether you are a bank president or work on the farm or in the shop; nor do I care how untiring or nervous you may feel, or what past acts may have left you debilitated and overwrought. I say to you in all seriousness, if I can show you an easy, drugless way by which you may treat yourself with the object of bringing back full vigor to your organism, then I will show you the road to new hope and new manhood. A man may be small in stature, yet as strong and attractive as a giant, or he may be big in stature yet unstrung, nervous and unmanly. It is all a question of vigor, strength, energy.

Therefore, let me suggest that you call or write at once, then, after reading my book, if you decide you want to try out my little vitalizer in your own case, and will write me saying so, I will reply to you, under seal of guarantee, to make an easy proposition which should enable you to have one of the vitalizers at once. At all events, you need the knowledge that my little book is sent at the coupon.

NOTE—With special attachments my VITALIZER is used by women as well as men for rheumatism, kidney, liver, stomach, bladder disorders, nervousness and general ill health.

Free Self-Help Book for Men. I publish a little illustrated pocket compendium in booklet form, as mentioned above, which is meant to guide both single and married men along the road of Vigorous Health and Moral Rectitude, so they may be as vigorous and strong as the best, and may live to the ripe old age. There is a lot in this little compendium which every young or elderly man should know and can refer to from time to time with great profit to his own physical health. The booklet in one part fully describes my new VITALIZER, the great
