Power Club Smoker.

The anniversary club smoker of the St. John Power Boat Club was held in the club house at Marble Cove last evening. It was one of the most successful affairs of its kind ever held by the club and was attended by more than 200 members and their friends. The executive, club members and officers were all in uniform, and at the head of the tables sat Commodore Stephen P. Gerow, and next to him were Vice-Commodore A. P. Macintyre, Rear-Commodore Frank Jordan, Fleet Captain F. Roberts, Secretary Pearl Jordan, the members of the executive and others.

Commodore Gerow opened the programme with a few remarks concerning the history and progress of the club, and he was followed by several other speakers. Splendid music was furnished by the club orchestra, which on this occasion was better than ever, and the different numbers drew forth rounds of applause. An excellent luncheon was served, after which the following programme was rendered:

AMUSEMENTS FOR OURSELVES AND OTHERS

THE OPERA HOUSE.

The Chicago Stock Company will close their engagement at the Opera House tonight. They will offer Nell Gwynn of Old Drury this afternoon. The evening attraction will be The Spoilers, a play taken from Rex Beach's novel of the same name. The plot tells of the mad rush to Alaska and the gold fields during the year of 1890 and deals mostly with experiences of two partners who own the Midas mine, which a scheming lawyer of Washington (D. C.), is trying to jump through litigation. The first act of the play takes place on board the steamship Santa Marie during its first night at sea en route to Una Alaska. In the second act the real plot develops with the exposing of the illegal attempts at law to rob the miners.

NICKEL.

The programme that made thousands of sedate people laugh long and loudly at the Nickel yesterday afternoon and evening is to be continued this afternoon and tonight. It includes the delicious Vitagraph comedy, Betty Becomes a Maid, in which story this favorite winsome miss has a most aumsing escapade with a manly young millionaire. The pastry battle in the last scene is a triumph of stage comedy and evoked roars of merriment. The other laughing film is Vanity, Its Cure, by the Lubin Company, with Miss Florence Lawrence in the leading role. Then there is a fine western story On the Desert's Edge, a tale of the west in all its strenuous life. Holmes and Buchanan will sing two numbers and Mr. Morrissey will be heard in his farewell song.

On Monday the Nickel will introduce still another new face and voice in Miss Elsye Wallace, a dainty Boston soprano. Her song will be Love, Love, Love, from the musical comedy, The Dollar Princess. H. & B. will enter upon their final week with three numbers and there will be four new pictures. Wednesday and Thursday of next week the great scenic picture, A Honeymoon Tour of Ireland, will be a great attraction and on Friday and Saturday the timely educational feature from England, The Fly Pest, shown under the commendation of the health officials and public officials generally.

THE LYRIC.

Albertus, Jessie Miller and Company presenting their unique fifteen minutes of polite vaudeville, "Fun on the Mid Way at Coney Island," will be the attraction at the Lyric Theatre for three days, commencing on Monday afternoon. It is a hard act to describe. A feature of it will be the cornet playing of Miss Miller, late of Sousa's band. Good comedy and club juggling are conspicuous items in the programme, making three acts in one. Chevalier, the trick violinist, will bid adieu this evening and an excellent picture entertainment is announced.

Is There Discrimination?

Editor Times:

Sir.—Is it true that we have by-laws in St. John governing the cleaning of yards and removal of ashes? Also have we a board of health inspector whose duty it is to see that these by-laws are enforced? If so, how is it that one person is forced to build an ash-bin and cover it, also to put in patent closets, while another person can have his yard piled up with ashes and all kinds of germ-breeding matter, and still use the old fashioned closet that our grandfathers had on the farm? If Mr. Inspector will visit the south end I am sure he will see something to open his eyes.

Yours for health,
TANGLEFOOT.

INDUSTRIES FOR NEW CITY, TERMINAL OF CANADIAN NORTHERN

Port Mann to be Given a Start in Life Better Than Prince Rupert Had

Vancouver, B. C., April 29—According to reports the new city of Port Mann, the western mainland terminal of the Canadian Northern railway, the site of which is now being cleared, will start on a much more auspicious footing than did the Grand Trunk Pacific terminal city, Prince Rupert.

The industries scheduled for the new city, if established as announced, will give it an initial importance rivaling that of the older cities on the coast.

Charles P. Taft, brother of President Taft, it is stated, is one of the associates in the great steel enterprise which is to erect its plant at Port Mann, and which purposes to employ 5000 or 6000 workmen.

The company is endeavoring to secure the co-operation of the provincial govern[ment in e]stablishing its industry in Brit[ish Colum]bia. It is expected to co-oper[ate with a] sister company in Washington [which] will be practically under the [same manag]ement, and thus to be in a [position to c]ompete successfully for the [trade of the] west of the Missouri river. [It is also a]nnounced that the Ameri[can Fou]ndry Company will estab[lish a] plant at Port Mann for [the building] of pressed steel freight [cars and s]leeping cars, and which [will employ at] least 2,000 men, the ma[terial for the w]ork to be supplied by ...

... Glass Company, it stated, will also establish a branch to employ 500 men.

The steel company is negotiating with the railway for an interest in the townsite, agreeing to erect on its own lots not less than 1,000 workingmen's houses at a cost of $2,000 each.

The case against Constable Blair, charged with assaulting Mrs. McBurnie in Fairville on Wednesday last, was continued yesterday afternoon. Justice McFarland heard the case in the afternoon, and evidence was given by Justice Allingham, Mrs. McBurnie and Dr. Kenney. Decision is expected on Friday afternoon next.

George C. Kierstead, of this city, has been engaged as assistant to Rev. G. A. Lawson, pastor of the Moncton First Baptist church.
