LATEST SOCIETY STEPS AND NEW BALL ROOM DANCES AT THE OPERA HOUSE

The young people who enjoy dancing and who go to all the parties will find much of interest in the exemplification of the latest society steps and new ball room dances by the musical comedy team, Norton and Nobles, at the Opera House this week. For many months previous to their present vaudeville tour they were the principal dancers at one of New York's famous restaurants and saloons and have all the latest fads right at the tip of their toes. Other good features on the bill include Jack Dempsey, the dancing tramp and comedian, who keeps the audience in roars of laughter at every performance; Conroy and Chick in songs and stories; The Rianos in a comedy pantomime, with a funny lion, monkey and the most peculiar looking birds; The Edwards Trio in a class musical feature, and for a picture, The Woman in the Web serial drama. Evenings at 7.30 and 9; afternoons at 2.30.

PLAY WITH A BIG HEART PUNCH!

Have you forgotten the ambitions that your mother had for you? This is a question that ought to make every man pause and reflect, for his mother is one person in the world who has his interest at heart. His success means her happiness. All mothers are unselfish toward their children and would gladly die to make them happy. "Turn to the Right!" the reigning comedy success by Winchell Smith and John E. Hazzard, which comes to the Imperial next week—Wednesday and Thursday—is a story of the unselfish love of a mother for her boy. His friends are her friends and his happiness is her joy. This is the greatest inspiration to make of himself the man that he knows his mother would wish him to be. "Turn to the Right" is his setting in the home and its inspiration in mother. It has a beautiful love story with big dramatic moments and is full of fun. Seat sale starts this—Friday.

"Cheating the Public" is one of the Gem's new series of really big productions. Come tonight at 7.15 or 8.45.

You Can Do Better Work

Many a man has found that he makes fewer mistakes, does better work and more of it, and feels more fit at the end of the day since he began wearing glasses. The reason is simple. Properly fitted glasses give him clearer vision without the eye strain that causes headaches, nervousness, tired, aching eyes—of course he can do better work. You can, too, if you let Sharpe's optometrist take care of your eyes.

Do You Need Glasses?

Often glasses are necessary where the vision seems perfect. Delicate muscles are put to too much strain to hold the eyes in focus. Squinting and frowning are characteristic of this condition. Headaches, eyestrain and inflamed conditions result. You will do well to consult us if you are in doubt about what is troubling your eyes.

'LONGSHOREMEN DEMAND INCREASE OF THIRTY CENTS

Would Make Rate Seventy-Five Cents an Hour—Offer of Five Cents More Rejected—Work Suspended but Not a "Strike"

The local branch of the International Longshoremen's Association is asking for seventy-five cents an hour or thirty cents more than they were paid last winter. Two delegates from the local branch are in Montreal conferring with the Shipping Federation relative to the increase in the wages.

All work was suspended this morning at eight o'clock, pending the decision of the Shipping Federation. In all about 1,200 men quit work. The president of the association, Thomas J. Sharkey, said that the longshoremen are not out on strike. They are only suspending work pending the reply.

This morning at eight o'clock a meeting was called to decide whether they would accept anything less than the seventy-five cents, should it be offered. As their own rooms proved too small to accommodate the gathering, the management of the Lyric allowed them to have the use of their building. It was decided at the meeting to accept nothing less than seventy-five cents, an increase of thirty cents. In the event of their being refused their demand, it is obvious that a strike will follow.

The longshoremen in Montreal during the summer were receiving fifty cents an hour, the extra five cents being given them without asking. Mr. Sharkey, the president of the local branch, said this morning that the longshoremen in Vancouver are receiving eighty cents an hour for the same class of work that they have to handle here for forty-five cents. He said during the war the longshoremen here were handling high explosives at the rate of forty-five cents an hour when in other parts of the Atlantic coast the men were being paid $1 an hour. The cause of the local branch, he said, not asking for an increase was due only to their patriotism, believing by working for the forty-five cents they were helping "do their bit."

The two representatives in Montreal who are there for the purpose of conferring with the Shipping Federation relative to wages will also get further data with regard to certain provisions which govern the longshoremen. These will be made known to the members of the local branch on the return of the representatives.

Offered Five Cents

The local branch was advised this afternoon by their representative in Montreal that they had been offered an increase of five cents per hour, making the rate fifty cents an hour. This offer has been rejected at the local branch and, in their reply to their representatives, they told them that in the event of their not being able to get a hearing before the Shipping Federation, they intend to return to St. John tonight.

OAK HALL WAREHOUSE A VERY BUSY CENTRE
101-107 Germain Street Surely is Drawing Crowds—O'Donnell Sale the Reason

The O'Donnell sale of men's and boys' clothing and furnishings being conducted by Oak Hall at their wholesale warehouse, 101-107 Germain street, has proven to be of exceptional interest to the people of St. John.

Oak Hall has accumulated here a stock that is really unusual in the values offered. They purchased a large portion of the M. J. O'Donnell stock of St. Stephen, and, following their usual motto of large volume at minimum profit, are offering this stock for sale at prices which represent large savings when compared with present day values.

As Oak Hall intends to clear up the O'Donnell stock this week, there are only a few days left during which these low prices will prevail, so that all prospective shoppers should visit Germain street west large savings when compared with present day values.

WATCHMAN, WHAT OF THE NIGHT?
(Rev. George Scott.)
Ho! watchman with the troubled eyes,
Peering into the murky rain,
This primal night of woe and pain
Sweep thou upon the eastern skies

The dawning of the happier time?
The coming of the age of gold
That prophets have so long foretold
In words that burned in deathless rhyme

Ho! Watchman with the tearful gaze,
And breaking heart and bruised soul,
Canst tell us of the utmost goal?
To which shall tend these mortal ways?

The watchman threw abroad his hands
"Rejoice, your woe shall turn to mirth,
The time is travelling to birth
When love and truth shall rule the lands."

"Lift up your heads ye gates of brass,
For Christ the Lord shall be reborn,
Lift up your heads ye ye that mourn,
And see the clouds of darkness pass.

"Lift up your heads ye ancient hills,
I hear the chariots of the King,
I hear the ransomed myriads sing,
A harmony that sobs and thrills."

"And lo, a little child shall lead
The hearts of men to purer faith,
And love shall triumph over death,
And death shall die in very deed."

"Captains and kings and warriors all
Shall cast their empty laurels down
To Him who wore the thorny crown,
Who drank the vinegar and gall.

"Rejoice O earth, for now at last
Hs dawned the deathless sage of gold,
The time your seers have long foretold,
When tears and pain shall all be past."

Wide Awake.
"Is this a hustling town?"
"Sure," answered the old resident.
"We never sleep."
"Right up to snuff, eh?"
"That's the ticket, stranger. The feller down at the depot ain't the only person who stays awake all night this town. We've got an all night restaurant."

ARE CONSIDERING EXTRADICATION OF FORMER KAISER

"The Kaiser is in Holland as a private person," said the premier as quoted by the correspondent. "The hospitality of the country is extended him in accordance with a centuries-old tradition. But it goes without saying that the moment his sojourn becomes a danger to the state he will have to leave. We believe the Kaiser and those with him understand the position and will act according to their interests."

Herr Hohenzollern's Reaction.
Amenon, Holland, Nov. 26.—(By the Associated Press)—William Hohenzollern's entourage has been asked by the Associated Press if the former emperor has any message to send to the American people. The following reply was received today:

"His majesty's suite regrets that it is unable to submit this demand to his 'majesty.' This forenoon the former emperor, accompanied by his host, Count Von Benning, and preceded and followed by a guard of rural police, walked to the Rhine, which is a half hour's walk from the castle. He spent some time viewing the country property there.

Herr Hohenzollern is in constant communication with the German legation at The Hague.

Amsterdam, Nov. 22.—The tug bearing the former German Crown Prince to the Island of Wieringen was unable to make the harbor there last night owing to the fog. It turned back and spent the night at Madamblik. When the fog lifted during the morning it started once more and arrived at Wieringen Island this afternoon. The Crown Prince was given an icy reception by the stolid islanders.

Frederick William is not supposed to leave the island except by special permission by the home office at The Hague. He gets food cards the same as an ordinary citizen. In a Bible class room adjoining the Oosterland parsonage, a place of refuge, hangs the picture of the Prudential Son.

Chief Interest in Food.
London, Nov. 27.—The former German Crown Prince had not seen or heard from his father for weeks up to the time he was taken to the Island of Wieringen, according to an interview he gave to newspapermen who on his way from Holland to his present home on the Zuyder Zee Islands. He said that his wife would remain in Germany.

"A change is coming in Germany," but one has to be careful about prophesying," he replied to a question as to what he thought of the revolution in Germany.

"Will you return to Germany?" was the next question.
"Yes, when the situation changes, but when—here Frederick William broke off to testify to the excellence of the food in Holland.

"Many people here do not think so," some one interjected.
"Oh, I think it is fine," said the former crown prince. "Anyhow I am a small eater and do not want to get fat."

Frederick William was quite accessible to the newspapermen, and said he did not know how long he would remain on the Island of Wieringen. When he reached the main depot at Amsterdam he partook of coffee and biscuits.

REVICTUALLING PLANS.
Paris, Nov. 26.—(Havas Agency)—Captain Andre Tardieu, head of the general commission for Franco-American war matters, has just returned from London, where he was in conference with Herbert C. Hoover, American food administrator. It was decided, Captain Tardieu announced, that the inter-Allied organization created for revictualing purposes be maintained.

HOUSECLEANING IN FEDERAL BASEBALL
New York, Nov. 27.—The way to start baseball house-cleaning is for the National and American leagues to hold a joint session of two days or more and consider the various proposed reforms, John Heydler, acting president of the National League, said here today.
"There is altogether too much sloppiness, suspicion and lack of care between the club-owners of the two leagues," Mr. Heydler said, in explaining his proposal. "It is all right to fight each other on the ball field during the playing season, but at other times there should be at least the ordinary business co-operation that exists in other competitive lines."
"To attempt to carry on a so-called reconstruction programme in baseball without the sincere aid of the sixteen club-owners, as well as of authorized representatives of the minor leagues would result in absolute failure."
