FREEDOM THROUGH TRADE UNIONS.

By Stuart Bell. Trade crushed to earth shall rise again. The eternal years of that are less than the years of the open shop.

That is the motto of the open shop. It is a motto that is being carried out in the Dominion Metal Trades Association.

Owing to the increase in business of the Dominion Metal Trades Association, it is one of the greatest advocates of the open shop.

With hardly an exception employers have fought for the right to hire their own men who are not members of any union.

The situation is undeniably ridiculous, and looks somewhat like an episode of school boys, which it was hoped would be.

Let us consider the open shop, the institution created from the clutches of the tyrannical union.

He is running a free shop, but his freedom does not extend to the hiring of the men he employs.

It is really too bad for the employer, who thought he gained freedom to run his business by joining the Metal Trades Association.
