

PREPARATIONS FOR THE CORONATION

COLONIAL TROOPS TO LINE THE ROUTE

Only Cavalry to Take Part in the Parades - The Protests by the Contingents.

London, June 21.—A brisk business was done in the City of London in the coronation event. The odds given were 100 to 3 against the event occurring, or to use the technical expression, the rates on the risk of the King living until June 20th were at 3 per cent. premium. Many thousands pounds sterling were underwritten on this basis. This shows to what extent public nervousness has grown in certain circles. Careful investigation reveals that there is no ground for believing that the King's health is any worse than the official reports indicated. His nerves were rather upset by the unfortunate illness at Aldershot, and every precaution is being taken to prevent a recurrence of such a sudden indisposition.

In the meantime preparations for the coronation are in progress. It is already difficult for pedestrians to traverse the main thoroughfares, the Strand, Piccadilly and Whitehall, during the greater part of the day, owing to the crowds of visitors with which store clerks, costers and London's marvellous floating population generally mingle as they wander through the streets gazing at the decorations, which are now taking on a finished aspect.

The colonial executives, all of whom have arrived here except Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the Premier of Canada, are features of attraction. The sentries guarding their hotels, their gorgeous royal carriages and footmen, greatly accentuate the popular interest. Crowds of people gather outside the Hotel Cecil to gaze at these brilliant equipages, and seem to enjoy the sight just as much as if they were spectators from a theater.

From the colonial contingents, however, angry protests are now being registered. It appears that the war office arranged that all troops specially sent to the coronation should, with the exception of the cavalry, be utilized to line the route in the procession instead of actually participating in it. As the major part of the visiting contingents consists of infantry, the arrangement has created bitter disappointment.

One of the officers of the Canadian contingent said to a representative of the Associated Press: "If we had known that we were merely intended to be used as police I do not think we would have cared to come over. We have sent our best men at considerable inconvenience and expense. Our part in the imperial parade will be only a handful of men, and quite unfit for the dismounted men, who will be seen by only a handful of people, and who will have to perform duties for which they were not sent over."

The Earl of Minch, Governor-General of Canada; Lord Strathcona, the Canadian high commissioner, and Col. Pellet, in command of the Canadians, are doing their utmost to induce the war office to allow the colonial troops to take part in the procession, regardless of the arm of the service to which they may be assigned.

Alexandra Park, where the coronation are encamped, is now a perfect morass, thanks to the recent heavy rains. The accommodations for the troops are utterly inadequate and the officers are refusing to stay in the tents, have taken rooms elsewhere. The troops, who naturally brought their shovels, axes and heavy tools, and much of their equipment is ruined. Even such ordinary camp arrangements as plank walks were neglected by the staff officers in charge of the preparations. As one of the colonists said: "If we had been told to prepare for a campaign it would have done us right, but we came here for a procession, and we are now to take part, and we are dumped into a bog."

Besides the complaints of the colonists, several of the leading dailies are vehemently protesting against the special war contingents sent to the coronation by Lord Kitchener from South Africa at the government's request, being detailed to guard the route instead of marching through the streets. With all these protests, the war office has refused to relent and allow the colonials and the war contingents to participate in the coronation procession.

King Edward has completely recovered his health, and has now arranged for the court to return to London on Monday.

The Jacobites, who from time to time annoy the country by exhibitions of loyalty to the house of Stuart, placarded London in the dead of the night with a document proclaiming the Archduchess Mary Theresa of Bavaria the "Rightful Queen-Heir" to the British throne.

PRISONERS RELEASED.

Four were serving life sentences and one a term of twenty-five years.

Ottawa, June 23.—In connection with the coronation four life prisoners and one serving 25 years were released from penitentiaries to-day. They are: John Reginald Hooper, 25 years, for attempted wife murder, who has served an equivalent of about 11 years. Hooper was an employee of the post office department at the time of the trouble, but was a printer by trade.

Michael Kennedy, British Columbia, in Stoney Mountain, Manitoba, for murder, life sentence, served ten years.

T. Newton, life sentence for murder, served 14; also in Manitoba penitentiary.

J. B. Narbonne, life, for murder, served 21 years in Kingston.

David Prevost, life, for murder, served 21 years in St. Vincent De Paul. They have got full liberty. Hooper's case is known all over Canada.

BIG BLAZE AT PORTLAND.

Number of Works and Warehouses Destroyed—Damage $500,000.

Portland, Ore., June 21.—Shortly before 1 o'clock to-night a fire broke out in the Wolf & Zwicker Iron Works, situated on East Madison and East Water streets. At 1 a. m. it had burned over about six acres of territory and had destroyed property roughly estimated at $500,000 in value. Although still burning fiercely, it is believed to be under control.

The fire had gained great headway before it was discovered, and by the time the first engines reached the scene the flames were towering 200 feet into the air. The iron works plant was a frail wooden structure and was soon entirely enveloped. The fire next spread to the plant of the East Side Lumber Company on the north. The mill with several thousand feet of dry lumber were destroyed. The flames then leaped across Madison street, destroying the machine shops and the approaches to the Madison street bridge across the Willamette river together with one span of the bridge. The Standard Oil Company's warehouses between Water and First streets, and numerous wooden buildings in the vicinity were destroyed.

The Standard Oil Company's tanks, containing many thousand gallons of oil, are still safe, and it is believed they can be saved. The free public swimming baths, just completed and moored above the Madison street bridge were towed away and saved. The brick warehouse of Parlin & O'Connell, implement dealers, was entirely destroyed, together with a number of frame lodging houses near by. During the progress of the fire several explosions of boilers occurred, throwing sheets of flame hundreds of feet into the air.

THE STRIKE OF STREET CAR MEN

RUMORS OF HITCH IN THE NEGOTIATIONS

Conferences Between Company's Officers and Representatives of Strikers—Lacrosse Team at Montreal.

Toronto, June 23.—Business Agent Macdonald for the street car men states this morning, after a conference of twelve hours with officers of the company, that the questions of wages and the recognition of the union have been practically settled. It is expected cars will be running this afternoon.

Manager Keating announces this afternoon that an agreement has not been reached as yet, which is based on a reliable source that a hitch has occurred and the outlook for a peaceful settlement is not so bright as it was a few days ago. There is no disorder on the streets, and the executive of the street car men's union, who is in charge of the negotiations, has again appealed to the public to refrain from treating the returning soldiers, so that the "well-deserved welcome may be given to the comrades, of whose stainless reputation I am as jealous as I am proud."

Quebec, June 23.—Local life insurance agents waited on Mayor Parent on Saturday for the purpose of securing a tax of $200 on outside agents. His Worship promised to refer the question to the city attorney.

Celebrations. The monster celebration of the sixtieth anniversary of the founding of the St. John Baptist Society here and the fiftieth anniversary of the inauguration of Lord Valour opened yesterday. It will continue all week.

Closed Mail. Winnipeg, June 23.—It has been decided to carry closed mail between Winnipeg and Vancouver on the Imperial limited.

Westminster Team. Montreal, June 23.—The New Westminster "Inquirer" team, which is held after the Minto Cup and championship of the world, are comfortably established at the Windsor Mayor Kerry, who is in charge of the team, which is this morning, said the majority in splendid shape and confident of winning. Practices will be indulged in daily on M. A. A. grounds the first to take place this afternoon, when the team will be photographed.

THE PEACE AGREEMENT.

Col. Hamilton Presented the Document to King Edward at Windsor Castle.

London, June 21.—Col. Hubert Hamilton, to whom was entrusted the bringing home of the original South African peace agreement, delivered the historic document signed by the Boers to King Edward at Windsor Castle, to-day. Col. Hamilton remained at the castle for dinner at which Queen's march "Imperial Queen-Heir" was played for the first time by the band of Scots Guards. A handsome illuminated vellum copy of the march has been presented to the King.

GRAVE IRREGULARITIES.

Serious Charge Against Collector of Customs of Dawson, Who Has Resigned.

Dawson, June 23.—D. W. Davis, collector of customs, Dawson, was suspended for irregularities in the customs department. After his suspension he resigned. A. A. Cook, formerly of Vancouver, is in charge of the department, and is charged that Davis received a large sum of money from the Alaska Exploration Company. It is possible criminal proceedings may be instituted against officers of the company.

Inspector McMichael discovered the frauds shortly after his arrival. E. S. Busby, formerly at Skegway, has been temporarily appointed to fill the vacancy. The claim against the company, with penalties, reach $60,000 or more. The evidence secured by Inspector McMichael is said to be very clear. Other charges may be made.

KING AND QUEEN ARRIVE IN LONDON

THEIR MAJESTIES WERE WARMLY WELCOMED

The King Showed Few Symptoms of His Recent Illness—Royal Personages From Continent.

London, June 23.—King Edward and Queen Alexandra arrived in London from Windsor at 12.30 to-day. His Majesty appeared to be in his usual health. With the return of the King to London, the festival of the coronation of King Edward may be said to have commenced, and each day until midnight on Saturday, when the last gun of the royal salute will be fired by the fleet at Spithead, will furnish his quota of the attractions which promise to make the week memorable.

From to-day the special ambassadors, envoys and princes invited to join in the festivities, become the guests of the King. Throughout the day numbers of royal personages have been arriving from the continent. They were met at the railroad stations by royal carriages and guards of honor, and were escorted to the official residences assigned to them. Consequently, plenty of entertainment was provided for the crowds of sight-seers.

A big throng took the opportunity of greeting the King and Queen on their entry into the Capital, and semi-state progress to Buckingham palace. Accompanied by the Prince and Princess of Denmark, the royal couple reached Paddington at 12.30 p. m., and proceeded in semi-state in landaus drawn by four horses with postillions, preceded by outriders and attended by an escort of the Royal Dragon Guards, along the route usually followed by the Queen Victoria. The thoroughfares were thickly lined with people, and the enthusiasm of the spectators evidenced their delight at the sight of the King and Queen from their recent illness.

Rigorous police precaution was taken at the railroad stations, but the public managed to invade the bridges crossing the track and the arrival of the train was greeted with warm cheering. The King lost no time in alighting and after chatting with the railroad officials entered a carriage. His Majesty appeared to be in his usual health, perhaps, somewhat heavily, but he showed few symptoms of his recent illness.

Their Majesties reached Buckingham Palace shortly before 1 o'clock. They received the same hearty welcome from the thousands of people who congregated in the avenues leading to the royal residence as greeted them throughout the entire route from the station.

Lord Roberts, the commander-in-chief of the forces, has again appealed to the public to refrain from treating the returning soldiers, so that the "well-deserved welcome may be given to the comrades, of whose stainless reputation I am as jealous as I am proud."

Subsequently at a luncheon, in accepting the presentation of a sword of honor, Lord Kitchener took the responsibility of having enforced martial law in Cape Colony. He declared it had prevented a general rebellion by stopping the dissemination of lies. Now he asked for the suppression of all racial feelings and all leagues and bands. Briton and Boer had a good fight and were now shaking hands. Lord Kitchener also said his soldiers could be sure that the first and best welcome would be given to them.

APPROX TO RETURN.

The Hague, June 23.—C. H. Wessels and P. G. W. Hobler, who have been on the continent of Europe for some time, are expected to return to the Netherlands on Saturday.

A WEEK'S EXCURSION.

Steamer Strathcona Will Inaugurate Her Service on Nanaimo-Sidney Route "To-morrow."

Steamer Strathcona left for Nanaimo to-day, from where she will inaugurate her daily service between that point and Sidney, the interest of the Boers, have started for England, with the view, it is said, of taking steps necessary to permit of their return to South Africa.

NEW LABOR PAPER.

Nanaimo, June 23.—Arrangements have been made for starting a new weekly paper in this city. The paper will be devoted to labor, and will be called the Clarion. It is the intention to have it made the official organ of the labor unions on Vancouver Island. It will be under the control of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited the city and province officials to attend that service. It seems to me that in the capital of a province of this Canada of ours in which there is no state church, and where all churches in the eye of the law are equal, if His Majesty's representative should appoint an official service in Christ Church Cathedral on Coronation Day, and invited