L. B. YOUNG

Faith in Womanhood.

Henry Ward Beecher once said, "I think I am more grateful to God for the sense that came to me through my mother and sisters of the substantial integrity, purity and nobility of womanhood, than for almost anything else in this world. After a long life I can say that I have not lost faith in women. The longer I live the more chivalric is my regard for them. I should look upon it as a fatal canker in my soul if I fell from my confidence in the general trustworthiness, honesty, honor and charity of womanhood. Therefore, when I hear young men, or old men, cast gross aspersions on the character of women, I feel as if I were in a den of hissing serpents. My soul, come not into communion with such men; abhor them, pass by them, for they are themselves far down in corruption. If I hear a man speak contemptuous words of a woman, my heart sighs at the thought that he had another whose memory he insults."

A Case of Poisoning

Not unfrequently caused by cheap acid cornsalve. Be safe and use Putnam's Corn Extractor. Purely vegetable, harmless and always cures. Insist on "Putnam's".

Three Important Things

Three things to love: courage, gentleness, affection. Three things to admire: intellectual power, dignity and gracefulness. Three things to hate: cruelty, vengeance, ingratitude. Three things to pray for: faith, peace, purity of heart. Three things to avoid: idleness, loquacity, flippant jesting. Three things to contend for: honor, country, friends. Three things to govern: temper, tongue, conduct. Three things to think about: life, death, eternity.

Sometimes

Sometimes the hasty word has been spoken, the sharp, snappish word been carelessly uttered in the home circle. The true wife's heart so often bleeds at the bitter, thoughtless, but cutting word of a husband. When she is gone to heaven and he "seeps o'er her bier" he will remember it.

Sometimes the husband finds no warm kiss of affection and sweet, cheery word of welcome at the door and fireside, when at nightfall he comes home weary and heart-heavy from toil which may have yielded small return. O, my friends, how bright our homes ought to be! Kind words, loving deeds and pure affection should rule in them. Are the little ones made to feel that home is the sweetest, cheeriest, best and brightest spot this side of glory?

From ailments abroad which just flutter the eyes, Will the heart unceasingly turn with a sigh While far distant it in sadness may roam, And sing in sweet melody "there was no place like home."

Have You Bronchial Catarrh?

It is easily recognized by the dry cough and hoarseness. Not difficult to cure with Catarhzone as Mr. Xavier Babin, of River Capelin, Que., proved. "No one could suffer from Bronchitis more than I did. I had a hard hacking cough that caused me great pain. My throat was hoarse, and I had great distress in my chest. Catarhzone reached the sore spots and gave immediate relief. Since using it I have not had a single attack." Every physician who is asked about Catarhzone says it is a sure cure, --so will you if you try it. Sold everywhere, 25c. and 50c.

A Happy Home

I have peeped into quiet parlors where the carpet is clean and not old, and the furniture is polished and bright, into rooms where the chairs are neat and the floor carpeted, into kitchens where the family live, and the meals are cooked and eaten, and the boys and girls are as blithe and joyous as the sparrows overhead, and I see that it is not so much wealth, or learning, or clothes, or servants, or toil or idleness, or town, or country, or station, as tone and temper that renders homes happy or wrecked. And I see, too, that in the town or country, good sense and kind feelings, and God's grace make life what no teachers or accomplishments, or means, or society can make it--the opening stage of an everlasting psalm--the fair beginning of an endless and blessed existence--the goodly, modest, well proportioned vestibule to a temple of God's building that shall never decay, or wax old, or vanish away.

Household Piety

Your household piety will be the crowning attribute of your peaceful home--the "crown of living stars" that shall adorn the night of its tribulation and the pillar of cloud and of fire in its pilgrimage to a "better country." It shall strew the family with the flowers of promise and enshrine the memory of loved ones gone before, in all the fragrance of that "blessed hope" of reunion in heaven which looms up from a dying hour, it shall give to the infant soul its "perfect flowering" and expand it in all the fullness of a generous love and a conscious blessedness, making it, lustrous in the lively of divine knowledge. And then in the dark hour of home separation and bereavement, when the question is put to thee, mourning parents. "It is well with thee?" you can answer with joy, "It is well!"
