VALLEY NOTES

Miss Kate Likely, Rockland Road, is recovering from a serious illness, though still in bed where she has been for some weeks. Her many friends are very glad to hear of her recovery.

Rev. C. S. Reddick is supplying Moncton Central Methodist pulpit during the month of July while the new pastor, Rev. Mr. Gaudin, is enjoying a holiday before he takes charge.

The friends of Wm. Steeves, a former resident, are sincerely sorry for his great loss in the death of his young son, who was a popular figure in the community. They extend him their sympathy.

Many friends—a large circle about here—were greatly shocked at the sudden and unexpected death of the late C. A. Stockton and feel deeply for his sorrowing wife and family in their great bereavement.
The following resolution which speaks for itself has been received by the officials of Zion Church from the our thanks for their able assistance in making the service a success by the music they furnished.

FATHER OF SLAIN GIRL.

Following the custom of the past few years a most enjoyable picnic was held at the Municipal Home yes-enjoy the day quite as much as the BANK CLERK SHOT IN MISTAKE FOR BURGLAR

Arthur B. Mertens Tried to Enter Seaforth Branch Bank Late at Night—Chums Shot Him by Mistake.

London, Ont., July 17.—Arthur B.
Mertens, of O'Connell and Levee Dr. Dominion Bank at Seaforth, was mistaken for a burglar by his friends late evening, and shot through the lungs.
A motor outside the bank had gone wrong and the staff occupying rooms in the bank building mistook the noise for someone trying to get into the bank and, taking the revolver, one of them shot Mertens as he was coming into the building without turning on the lights.
James Gillies, aged 18, the bank clerk who apparently did the shooting, is in a highly nervous condition and hardly able to tell a connected story.
It appears that Mertens saw the cellar door open and went into the basement to investigate. When coming out the noise he made aroused Gillies, sleeping above the bank, and he went down with his revolver. Mertens is resting easily today but is as yet not out of danger.
