

als

you've been out of an
Our WEEK-END

with a Dainty Little bel AT REMARKABLY

a trifle discolored by

...$1.50
... 1.00
... .75
... .50

D. — King Street

John, N. B.

n., same hour as other days

NTS CTIONS

MED HATS at 98c. each

Just think it's 110c ur during Winter months.

WINTER COAT at less than ason in this range of coats.

& CO.

RS

2.00 to $2.50
cts. to $3.50
$1.10 to $2.50

td.

ose at 6 p. m.

N ROOM

Brand New Showing

Yard 45c. and 48c.
Yard 45c. to 70c.
Yard 35c.
Yard 32c.
Yard 15c. and 18c.
Yard 25c.
Yard 15c., 18c. and 22c.
Yard 35c.
Yard 20c., 25c., 30c., 35c., 40c.
Yard 25c. to 45c.
Yard 70c.
small floral pattern. Twen-Yard 14c.
Yard 45c.
DRILLS.

Price 25 Cents and your own selection of guaranteed

15-cent

PATTERN FREE

Pattern Dept.—Annex.

Blouse

and semi-tailored effects.
Each $1.10 to $3.50
d with Drill in colors. Each to 42. Each $1.35 to $1.70

ment we have ever shown, abroad in colors. Each or the new high and low

Each $1.50

on, Limited

WAR

WAR

WAR

WAR

WAR

WAR

WAR

WAR

The St. John Standard,

NEW BRUNSWICK, CANADA.

SATURDAY MORNING, JANUARY 8, 1916

WAR

OPENING MONDAY

And All Next Week

OPERA HOUSE

WAR

The St. John Standard

PRESENTS

WAR

FIGHTING FOR FRANCE

Go along the line with the official cameras and you witness the grand review. There is action and atmosphere in every foot of film which was made to record all phases of the conflict. Every man, woman and child should see THE WAR AS IT IS.

Without danger or even discomfort you can spend nearly two hours with the Boys in the trenches. See how they live, fight and die, that you and the Empire may live secure in the future. See with your own eyes THE PRICE OF PEACE.

WAR

Pictures Taken on the Firing Line

They Have Caused a Great Sensation in New York, Boston, Chicago, Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto

Following are some of the scenes you can see in these wonderful Pictures presented by THE SAINT JOHN STANDARD English cavalry leaving for Douvres.

Preparations for the battle of Champagne.
The morning of the battle of the Marne.
Review of Canadian troops before the campaign that started September 25.
Sir Thomas Lipton entertains the Red Cross Staff and presents his private yacht Erin for their use.
Canadian soldiers building trenches and raising barricades in front of them.
Manufacturing Big Guns in Italy. English mechanics in charge of the machine shops. The breach of a 12-pounder.
A new engine of destruction. The Minister of War inspecting an aviation camp.
The Army of the East. Russian infantry on the line of march.
French Officers taking Observations from the top of a tree.
On the "Firing line in Serbia."
English marines and Serbian soldiers harassing the enemy.
Reinforcements coming to the aid of the Serbians.
Scenes during the typhoid epidemic in Belgrade.
The Serbian Army in a valiant attack in which they were greatly outnumbered.
French troops passing through a Belgian village that was devastated by the enemy.
The famous French 75, the most destructive of machine guns mounted on an English Biplane.
Presentation of a flag to a French Infantry Corps by General Joffre.
President Poincaré of France, inspecting the National Guard.
Departure of a French dirigible to reconnoiter the position of the enemy.

The Greatest Pictures of the World's Greatest War

The destructive element of the war, ruins of a bridge crossing the Sava river.
A German Taube dropping bombs within 80 yards of the English lines.
German prisoners collecting firewood and building wire fences under armed French guard.
Big Guns in action, loading and handling of projectiles.
Armoured Automobiles painted to represent foliage and carrying field guns are one of the most terrible instruments of modern warfare.
The Russian fleet bombarding a Turkish position.
The famous Bersaglieri cavalry crossing the Alps.
Russian Troops marching through the snow in the Caucasian mountains.
English soldiers on a furlough after spending five months in the trenches.
Bishop of London blessing troops in front of St. Paul's Cathedral, London.
King George inspecting troops on Salisbury Plains.
Observation tower installed on the old Vincennes Fort.
Movement of Canadian troops at Valcartier, Que.
The Commissary Department. How the boys in the trenches are fed.
Transports leaving for the Dardanelles.
The Black Watch, Scotland's famous guard.
The "Campbell's are Coming," charge of a Highland regiment.
"On to Victory."
The impenetrable wall of steel that the Prussians cannot pierce.
King Albert of Belgium, the King without a Country.

Official Views Taken
With Government Sanction

WAR

FOUR TIMES DAILY

Matinee	Night
1.30	7.00
3.30	9.00

OPERA HOUSE

ALL NEXT WEEK

PRICES:
Balcony - 15c.
Orchestra 25c.
Boxes - .35c.
ALL PERFORMANCES.

WAR

WAR

WAR

WAR

WAR

WAR

WAR