

Social Notes of the Week

FREDERICTON

Fredericton, Mar. 8.—In these somber days of Lent, and altogether trying times, it is a treat having such an affair as the opening of the Legislature. Many persons attended from outside cities.

The usual outside Military display was abandoned this year but quite a representative gathering of the militia attended the opening of the Legislature building. Among his aides were Major McAvity of St. John, and Major Osborne and the staff was composed of General Macdonnell, D. S. O. Colonel Powell, Major Bull, Captain Heron, St. John, Major Gray, Major Watkinson, Captain W. H. Steeves, Captain Donalds, and Lieutenants Bennett Woodbridge and Captain McNally all of this city and Lt. O. C. Cruikshank.

The Chamber was prettily decorated with ferns and palms at the side of the Throne, and pretty cut flowers adorned the speakers table.

All of the ladies looked very well indeed among whom was Mrs. Pugsley (wife of the Governor), who was becomingly gowned in a rich black velvet gown trimmed with fur and white georgette crepe. She wore a most becoming hat of black edged with a band of silver, and finished with a black pompadour. With this costume she wore black fox fur and a large bunch of violets.

Lady Ashburnham was handsomely gowned in a deep blue crepe de chene and a pretty spring hat of yellow straw. With this she wore a yellow coat and ermine furs.

Mrs. Walter Foster, wife of the Premier was gowned in soft grey crepe de chene gown, and wore a large black satin hat.

Mrs. J. P. Byrne looked very handsome in a grey satin gown and large black and white edelweiss hat.

Mrs. B. P. Chisholm of St. John who was one of Mrs. Pugsley's guests was stunningly gowned in taupe satin, and wore a small smart toque, to complete this pretty costume.

Mrs. Edmonia Brown of St. John, who was also Mrs. Pugsley's guest, looking very smart in a grey gown and black cape with a large shawl collar of persian lamb.

Mrs. Scott of Ottawa (who is to remain for some time guest of His Honor and Mrs. Pugsley), was gowned in purple silk, and wore a small hat to match.

Mrs. Leonard Tilley wore a becoming dress of grey with large hat.

Among other ladies noticed on the floor of the house were, Mrs. Fred Magee, Miss McLeod, Port Eglis, Mrs. J. H. Barry, Mrs. W. C. Crockett, Miss Edith Sterling (Nelson), Miss Helen Sterling, Miss Gerald, Mrs. Walker Belyea, Mrs. James McAvity, Mrs. Stanley Elkin, Mrs. Roy Campbell, St. John, Mrs. John Black, the Misses Beverly, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. N. B. Smith, Mrs. Lee, Babbitt, Mrs. George Babbitt (St. Andrews), Mrs. McLaughlin, Mrs. Walworth, Mrs. Theodore McNally, Mrs. James McNally and Mrs. Berchill, Mrs. E. B. Miller, Mrs. Steeves, Miss Nora Thompson, Miss Constance Randolph, Misses Lynch, Miss Helen Richardson, and several others.

After the adjournment of the House, for the day, His Honor and Mrs. Pugsley accompanied by the aides, held a reception at their suite in the Queen Hotel. Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Chisholm received with Mrs. Pugsley.

In the reception room, pink roses adorned the table and the tablecloth. The tea room was effectively decorated with several candles, brass, and tiny vases containing yellow daffodils. The table was presided over by Mrs. Walter Foster and Mrs. T. G. Allen, assisted by the Misses Catherine Taylor, Minnie Crockett, Molly Barry, Louise Sterling, and Hilda Gregory, all of whom looked particularly pretty. Several officers also assisted the ladies, and looked after the guests generally.

Mrs. Grant Montgomery was a hostess on last Tuesday evening at a pleasant little serving party. Among the guests were Mrs. George Hodges, Miss Edwards, Mrs. McCreedy, Miss Cooper, Miss Hodges and Miss Harold McMurray.

On Saturday afternoon, a merry party of young people were guests of Mrs. R. B. Miller, at a snow-shoe tramp to the Forestry Camp, where a "beast supper" was served. In the evening bridge was played and the party wound their way home about midnight. Among those who went were Mrs. Burchill, Mrs. Miller, Miss Kathleen Taylor, Miss Thompson, O'Connell, Mrs. Miss Lucille Hawkins, Mary Hipwell, Gladys Fitzgerald, and Zillah Edgewood.

Mrs. Harry McNally entertained a few friends at a knitting party last Friday evening.

Mrs. W. B. Gunter returned from Bermuda, where they had been for the past month. They arrived Saturday last.

Fredericton is in store for two more musical treats given by the Redpath Lyceum Bureau of Boston. The Philharmonic Players (who were so popular at the Biltmore Hotel) all last winter, are on tour and we are to be favored by them.

The women's Institute are responsible for these successful entertainments.

Miss Frederica Edgewood spent last weekend in St. John, visiting some school friends.

Dr. Harry Kilburn, one of Fredericton boys, who has been very successful in Rumbold, Nova Scotia, has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kilburn.

The many friends of Miss Kathleen Coster daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coster, St. John, will extend congratulations to her upon the announcement of her engagement to Captain Hay of Woodstock. The Captain has been overseas, and won distinctions while there.

Mrs. Theodore Rand McNally will receive for the first time since her marriage on Friday afternoon, at the residence of Mrs. James McNally. Mrs. Ralph Gunter entertained a few friends at the tea hour on Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Babin of Edmonville, who has been the guest of Mrs. John Morrison at Salamanca.

Lieutenant Wallace Turnbull of St. John who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fitz Randolph has returned home.

The Sir Howard Douglas Chapter are holding social evenings each week and meet at the different homes of the members, paying an entrance fee, and spend the evening working on a piece of "war work." In this way much can be accomplished. Mrs. Ross Thompson, and the meeting last Thursday evening, and Mrs. Charles Hall is entertaining the members this week.

Lord and Lady Ashburnham returned on Monday from Ottawa, where Lady Ashburnham was attending the National Conference of women. While there the Duchess of Devonshire, entertained them at tea at Rideau Hall.

Lady Borden held a reception in the Chateau Laurier in honor of the delegates and Mrs. Adam Short, president of the meeting, entertained them at luncheon in Ray's Restaurant. Lady Ashburnham says the days of social life of Ottawa are extinct as there is little or no entertaining, and at any functions the war-time refreshments are strictly adhered to.

Among the members wives here for the season are: Mrs. Walter Foster, Mrs. Roy Campbell, Mrs. Fred Magee and Mrs. J. P. Byrne.

Mrs. George Babbitt of St. Andrews is visiting her sister Mrs. Lee Babbitt.

Mrs. George McKnight is visiting friends in St. John.

The many friends of General Macdonnell extended him a very warm welcome on his return to Fredericton, after an absence of some eighteen years.

Mrs. F. Carleton Allen and Mr. R. B. Hanson were in St. John this week attending a patriotic conference.

His worship Mayor and Mrs. Hayes of St. John were guests at the Queen Hotel this week, attending the opening of the house.
