GERMANS LEAVING ALSACE-LORRAINE

Thousands of Them Hooded by Crowds, Fleeing Across the Border—Receptions Planned for Allies.

Geneva, Switzerland, Nov. 14.—(By the Associated Press.)—The grandest enthusiasm prevails in Alsace-Lorraine. Thousands of Germans are leaving those provinces. The German authorities are being hooded by the crowds. French and American troops are expected. Receptions on a huge scale are being prepared for the Allied troops under the noses of the German officials.
There is also joy in the Rhine towns because of the cessation of Allied air raids.

PRISONERS REACH AMERICAN LINES

Russian, Polish and Italian Soldiers Set Free in Lorraine Are Supplied With Clothing and Food.

With the American Army in France, Nov. 14.—(By the Associated Press.) The advance of several hundred Russian, Polish and Italian soldiers freed by the Germans in Lorraine reached the American lines in the region of St. Hilaire today. The first group numbered 45.
They said they were released several days ago, the Germans telling them to start for the Allied lines immediately. The released prisoners were attired principally in German uniforms. They expressed the opinion that the Germans had set them free to start for the Allied lines during preparations for moving northward. The arrivals were taken in charge by American officers and furnished with additional clothing and plenty of food.
