ROAD EXPENDITURES.
We repeat what we said yesterday that the public services could have been maintained in a perfectly satisfactory way, without creating a huge deficit had there been no needless extravagance.

THE OPPOSITION LEADER.
The question as to who is to be recognised as the official leader of the Opposition in Parliament appears to be troubling some of the newspapers of the country.

STUMPAGE RECEIPTS.
The Times yesterday said: "The Frederick correspondent of the Standard says: 'The depression in the lumber business during the past year has caused a falling off of more than half a million dollars in the annual provincial revenue from stumpage on lumber cut upon the Crown Lands.'"

WHAT OTHERS SAY.
The French Crisis.
The voice of France today is not unlike the voice of the France of 1793. Once more France believes that one of the sides of right is a majority over a multitude on the side of wrong.

THE LAUGH LINE.
Success is largely a matter of buying experience and selling it at a profit.
Work hard and save your money and then your heirs can be cultured and talking about the sordidness of money making.

WHAT HAS BRITAIN DONE?
What has Britain done?
Kept the faith and fought the fight for the overlying right; Chivalrously couched her lance in defence of Belgium, France.

ST. JOHN, N. B., TUESDAY, JANUARY 31, 1922.
The unexpected death of Sir Ernest Shackleton not only robs the scientific world of one of its most prominent men, but leaves the world at large the poorer by the loss of a brave and gallant gentleman.

Benny's Note Book
BY LEE PAPE
Yesterday in school Miss Kitty told the class all about ventilation and what a fearful thing it is to go to sleep without having your window up far enough and the different things that lead to happen to you in case you do not have it.

HAD BAD COUGH AND SORE THROAT.
Never neglect a cough or cold however slight. If you do it can have but one result; it leaves the throat or lungs, or both, affected. A single dose of DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP will help to stop the cough, soothe the throat, and if the cough or cold has become settled on the lungs the healing virtues of the Norway pine tree...

Shake Clear of Rent Days
Other fellows, wage earners, have arranged for and built nice little homes, and found it really quite as easy as paying rent; and much better, for the payment will stop some day, and they'll own their own homes. So can you!

DO YOUR BOWELS
Move Regularly, Or Do They BECOME CONSTIPATED?
There is no medium through which disease so often attacks the system as by allowing the bowels to become constipated, and there is no other trouble which does more to injure the system than to be neglected, because material convenience may not be felt, at once from irregular action of the bowels.

UNIVERSAL Electric Heating Pad
WINTER ills and doctor's bills are things all people wish to avoid. The "Universal" Electric Pad performs invaluable service in warding off sickness and relieving suffering. Use it as a preventive of winter ills—as a pain reliever—as a cozy, snugly bed-warmer.

Obituary
Hillsboro, Jan. 25.—Following a long illness of about two years duration, Daniel Barker Lockhart passed away at his home, Hopewell Cape, Friday, Jan. 27 at 1 o'clock, p. m. in the 75th year of his age. Deceased came from his native town, Parrabrook, N. S., where he had spent all his life and where by his cheery and genial disposition enjoyed a wide circle of friends and acquaintances. He retired from public life in Hopewell Cape in 1880. He had followed the ship-building trade since early manhood. His survivors, also a family of eight, a fourteen grand children, mourn the loss of a beloved father, grandfather and daughters are Clinton of St. John, Mass., Harley of Rostland, Mass., Cecil of Amherst, N. S., a Miss, of Portland, Me., Mrs. B. Duffy and Mrs. Arthur Duffy of Hillsboro, Mrs. Alphonse Matthews, Parrabrook, N. S., and Mrs. Jennie Lockhart of home. On Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. Horwood of the Wesleyan Baptist church, conducted a very impressive funeral service and the hymns, Beulah Land and Sweet Bye and Bye were sung by the Hopewell Cape Baptist choir, and by members of the church. The interment was in the cemetery. Mrs. Arthur Duffy feebly sang "The Peary White City" and interment was made in the Gray's Island Cemetery.
