Maritime Religious Educational Council

These are busy times for the Maritime Girls' and Boys' Work Secretaries making preparations for the Boys' and Girls' Camps which start next month.

They have been travelling from place to place organizing the different communities to more fully take advantage of these camps and to perfect their arrangements.

The unfortunates cannot realize the vast amount of work that each of these camps entails, if the maximum results are to be obtained, and the secretaries are determined that this year the boys and girls will be given the best opportunities for wholesome, educational fun, physical development and spiritual character building activities.

Weddings

Burke-Moore. Gagetown, N. B., June 22-The home of Mr. and Mrs. David Moore, was the scene of an interesting event on Wednesday afternoon, when at five o'clock their youngest daughter, Miss Annie Laura Moore, became the bride of Gordon Burke, of the Range Queens County, N. B.

Rev. Henry Penna, pastor of the Gagetown Methodist Church performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate family and a few intimate friends of the contracting parties.

The parlor in which the ceremony took place, was prettily decorated with pale pink Scotch roses and quantities of white carnations, arranged, the archway into the room being hung with white ribbons and pale pink roses.

At the appointed hour, the youthful bride entered the parlor from the arm of her father, looking very charming in a handsome suit of navy blue embroidered with French tulle, with dark brown mohair hat trimmed with white flowers in various shades, and touches of radium lace. She carried a sheaf of white roses and carnations. The young couple were unattended, Miss Nellie Marshall, of Fredericton, cousin of the bride, layed wedding music during the ceremony.

At the conclusion of the marriage service, refreshments were served by Mrs. J. Arthur Moore, Mrs. Frank McAllister and Miss Jean Myles, after which the happy young couple left on the evening express for Fredericton after a hearty send-off from the large crowd assembled at the station. After a short honeymoon trip through the province they will reside at The Range, where the groom is engaged in farming.

The unusually large array of pretty and useful gifts in silver, china, cut glass and linens attested to the wide popularity of the bride and both young people have the good wishes of many friends.

Men Of Rumania Very Slow To Don Masculine Attire

Fredesl, Transylvania June 22-Since Rumania wrested Transylvania from the Austrians efforts have been made to get the men to discard their skirts and wear modern masculine attire. But they have resisted all attempts to deprive them of their hand-embroidered shirtwaists and lace-trimmed petticoats. They declare that trousers and coats are unbecomingly as well as unsanitary and becoming and they have given notice to the Rumanian authorities that they will brook no invasion of their traditional habits of dress.

In this part of the Balkans the raiment of the women is no less novel than that of the men. The well-to-do natives wear garments made of solid gold coils over rich lace embroidery. The coils are handed down to them as heirlooms from generation to generation, the number and weight of the gold pieces being a sure token to the outside world of the degree of opulence of the wearer and an ever-present incentive to the neighboring swains to marry them.
