

Blasting Powder

Single and double-tape fuse detonators.
Electric fuses, batteries.
Cast steel for drills.

W. H. THORNE CO., Limited
Market Square, St. John, N. B.

JUNE WEDDINGS

Woods-Thibideau.

Newcastle, June 27.—The marriage of Edward Woods, son of the late William Woods, of Douglas town, and Miss Katie Thibideau, of that place, both late of Palmer Road (P. E. L.), took place in St. Mary's church, Newcastle, yesterday afternoon, Rev. P. W. Dixon officiating. The bride party drove to Newcastle in an automobile. James Driscoll and Miss Alice Vantour were groomsmen and bridesmaid. The bride was charmingly dressed in blue silk with white picture hat, and the bridesmaid in white with white hat. In the evening a reception was held at the residence of the bride's brother-in-law, Joseph Goudin. Many gifts were received.

Turner-Maggs.

Sussex, N. B., June 27.—The residence of Mrs. William Maggs was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock, when her eldest daughter, Mary Alberta, became the wife of William Douglas Turner, B. A., Rev. A. L. Dawson performed the ceremony, in the presence of near relatives and a few intimate friends.

Miss Besse A. P. Parker played Mendelssohn's Wedding March as the bride entered the drawing room on the arm of her brother, W. Arthur Maggs, by whom she was given away.

The bride wore a gown of cream satin dechene with pearl trimmings, and a bridal veil of Brussels net. She also wore a pendant of pearls and emeralds, the gift of the groom, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses and maiden hair fern.

Little Miss Phyllis Wier, as flower girl, was crowned in white tulle and carried a basket of pink carnations. The rooms were beautifully decorated for the occasion with roses, palms and ferns. Both bride and groom are very popular and received many handsome gifts in cut glass, sterling silver and china.

Mr. Turner is a young lawyer of the town, having graduated from Mount Allison, Sackville. He studied law with J. E. M. Baxter, St. John, and passed as an attorney-at-law at Fredericton with honors. He is clerk of the Kings county court, and has charge of the Boy Scout movement here.

After a dainty supper Mr. and Mrs. Turner drove to their new home in School street.

Ryder-Barnaby.

Thursday, June 29.—A wedding event of great social interest was solemnized yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock in German street Baptist church, when Thomas Scott Ryder, manager of the Canadian Fairbanks Company, was united in marriage by Rev. P. S. Porter to Miss Annie Alexandra Barnaby, second daughter of W. H. Barnaby, of Manchester Robertson Allison Ltd. The interior of the church was beautifully decorated with white and green in flowers and potted ferns.

The groom was supported by F. C. Gastz, while the bride was attended by her sister, Miss Helen Marjorie Barnaby, and had as flower girl, little Miss Betty Thomson and Ruth Harrison, her cousins. Those who acted as ushers were Howard Robinson, S. A. Thomas, John Sayre and Hazen O. Barnaby. A large number of guests were present.

Miss Barnaby was given in marriage by her father. Her wedding dress was of white satin, with trimmings of princess lace. She wore a well and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Her bridesmaid was attired in blue tulle over satin, and wore a hat to correspond. She carried a shower bouquet of carnations. The bride's flower girls were daintily gowned in white.

A wedding reception was held after the wedding at the home of the bride's father, corner of Leinster and Princess streets, where luncheon was served. Afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Ryder left for a honeymoon trip to Upper Canadian cities, and on their return will spend a few months at their summer home before taking up their residence in the city. They were pleasantly remembered by a host of friends throughout the city and elsewhere, who presented to them many tokens of esteem, the list including cut glass, silverware, and other wedding gifts.

Maxwell-McKenzie.

St. Stephen, N. B., June 29.—(Special.)—This evening at 7 o'clock a very quiet wedding was solemnized at the manse, Milbroton, by Rev. W. W. Rainnie, the contracting parties being Bessie L. McKenzie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James McKenzie, of that place, and Miss Maxwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Maxwell, Old Bridge. They were united. The bride looked very pretty in a costume of navy blue. After the ceremony and luncheon the young couple left on a wedding trip, the destination of which is known only to themselves. Upon their return they will reside with the bride's parents until autumn, when they will move into their new home at Old Bridge. The presents were numerous, costly and useful.

Hanbury-Carter.

Fredricton, June 29.—One of the prettiest weddings seen here in some time was solemnized this morning at the cathedral. The Rev. Dean Deane officiated in the presence of Miss Edith Cleveland, only daughter of Dr. W. S. Carter, chief superintendent of education, and Wilfred Hanbury, of Vancouver (B. C.). The groom had the support of Arthur N. Carter, of Robbsey, a cousin of the bride. There was no bridesmaid, but Miss Carter was attended by two of her girl friends, Miss Shand of Windsor, and Miss Berta Beron, of St. John. The bride looked very pretty in a gown of white duchesse satin with rose point lace and a beautiful old lace veil. She carried an armful of Easter lilies.

Mrs. Carter, mother of the bride, wore a very tailored suit and carried mauve orchids.

Miss Shand was prettily attired in a dainty pink voile gown, and carried pink peonies, and Miss Beron, in white lingerie, carried red carnations.

A full choir during the service rendered the two well-known wedding hymns. The groom's gift to his bride was a necklace of aquamarines and pearls in platinum.

setting. After a short motoring trip through the province, during which they will spend a few days at the country home of Dr. Carter at Kingston, they will return to Fredericton before setting out for their future home in Brandon. On their way west they will visit some of the Canadian cities on the route by way of the Great Lakes. Many very beautiful gifts were showered upon the young couple by their friends both here and in the west.

Dean-Ferguson.

Newcastle, June 29.—A fashionable event took place this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Ferguson, when their eldest daughter, Miss Bessie, was united in marriage to Harry Dean, formerly of Yorkshire (Eng.), and now director of the Halifax Conservatory of Music, Halifax (N. S.). Rev. S. J. MacArthur, pastor of St. James' Presbyterian church, officiated at the ceremony. The popularity of the contracting parties, particularly locally and in Halifax circles, lent much interest to the affair.

The bride was most charmingly attired in a gown of white satin with tulle of white tulle and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. Miss Florence Ferguson, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and she was becomingly gowned in yellow-satin and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean received a large number of beautiful presents, cut glass and silverware forming an abundant quota. The staff at the Halifax Conservatory, with which both contracting parties were connected, presented them with a handsome tea service.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean will take the Ocean Limited this afternoon and will sail from Lunenburg on the Allan liner Corsican on a honeymoon trip to the old country. Their itinerary includes visits to various points of interest in England and Scotland, and will extend during July and August. On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Dean will reside in Halifax. Miss Ferguson, aunt of the bride, was a guest at the marriage.

Lowney-McFadden.

Thursday, June 29.—A very pretty wedding took place at 6:45 yesterday morning when Miss Sarah May Lowney was united in marriage to Mr. Hugh McFadden, of 79 High street, was married to Walter Henry Lowney, of 45 Bilyard street. The marriage was solemnized in St. Peter's church with nuptial mass. Father O'Regan, C.S.S.R., officiating. The bride was given away by her father. She looked very pretty in a dress of white silk with Irish points lace trimmings, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses and maiden hair fern.

The bridesmaid, Miss Rose McFadden, sister of the bride was dressed in helix pink silk with pearl trimmings. The groom's best man was George W. Campbell, of 45 Bilyard street. The groom was supported by Walter Henry Lowney, and had as flower girl, little Miss Betty Thomson and Ruth Harrison, her cousins. Those who acted as ushers were Howard Robinson, S. A. Thomas, John Sayre and Hazen O. Barnaby. A large number of guests were present.

Miss Barnaby was given in marriage by her father. Her wedding dress was of white satin, with trimmings of princess lace. She wore a well and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Her bridesmaid was attired in blue tulle over satin, and wore a hat to correspond. She carried a shower bouquet of carnations. The bride's flower girls were daintily gowned in white.

A wedding reception was held after the wedding at the home of the bride's father, corner of Leinster and Princess streets, where luncheon was served. Afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Ryder left for a honeymoon trip to Upper Canadian cities, and on their return will spend a few months at their summer home before taking up their residence in the city. They were pleasantly remembered by a host of friends throughout the city and elsewhere, who presented to them many tokens of esteem, the list including cut glass, silverware, and other wedding gifts.

Mullaly-Collins.

Thursday, June 29.—Very Rev. W. G. Chapman, V.G., officiated at a pretty wedding in St. John Baptist church at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, when Miss Mary Grace Collins, daughter of the late Mary E. Collins, became the bride of William E. Mullaly, popular traveling representative of the Bains Carriage Co. of Toronto. The ceremony was performed with a nuptial mass. On account of recent bereavement in the bride's family, only a few relatives and intimate friends were guests. A handsome dinner set was given away by her cousin, James McGowan. She wore a white embroidered marquisette suit and carried a prayer book instead of a bouquet.

The wedding party, after the marriage, sat down to a dainty breakfast at the home of the bride. The pair will reside at 43 Lombard street, where Mrs. Lowney will be at home to her friends next Wednesday week.

McCluskey-Donnelly.

A Charles Town, Mass., newspaper publishes the following:—Miss Julia F. Donnelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Donnelly, of 45 Spencer avenue, and George E. McCluskey, who is engaged in business at St. John, N. B., were married at 10 o'clock yesterday morning at St. Catherine's church by Rev. James A. Donnelly, curate at St. Mary's church, Charlottetown, brother of the bride.

The bride was gowned in white point d'esprit, over white silk, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. Her sister, Miss Agnes L. Donnelly, in pink silk and carrying a bouquet of roses, was bridesmaid, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. Relatives and intimate friends attended a reception after the wedding. The couple received many gifts. The groom's gift was a substantial cheque to the bride, and a ring to the bridesmaid, and a pearl pin to the groomsmen. The ushers were: Joseph and Leon Donnelly, brothers of the bride; Joseph Donnelly and Arthur Carron. Mr. and Mrs. Donnelly will make their home at St. John, where they are first become acquainted during a vacation visit of the bride.

Haviland-Neales.

Woodstock, N. B., June 29.—(Special.)—In St. Luke's church this morning, Miss Elizabeth Howard Neales, youngest daughter of Mr. Thomas Neales and the late Ven. Archdeacon Neales, was united in wedlock to Rev. Douglas Haviland, rector of Grand Falls and Edmondston Episcopal churches. The bride entered the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March and was preceded to the altar by the choir singing "The Voice of the Lark." A handsome dinner set was given away by her cousin, James McGowan. She wore a white embroidered marquisette suit and carried a prayer book instead of a bouquet.

of the bride and groom witnessed the ceremony. A tempting breakfast was enjoyed at the bride's home after the ceremony.

The bride was attended by the groom's sister, Miss Alice O'Brien, and Miss Kelly supported the groom. Her father, John Nichol, gave the bride away, and she looked very pleasing in a dainty suit of lawn silk, wearing a large picture hat with black plumes, and carrying a white prayer book. The bridesmaid was prettily attired in pale blue embroidered silk, wearing a black picture hat and carrying a shower of pink and white carnations.

The young people who have a large circle of friends about the city, received many testimonials to their popularity in a valuable and useful assortment of wedding gifts of silverware, cut glass, china, etc. They left yesterday for a honeymoon trip in the Annapolis Valley, and on their return will make their home at 289 Charlotte street. Seely-Evans.

Thursday, June 29.—In the Carmarthen street Methodist church yesterday morning, Miss Lena Mae Evans, daughter of Thomas W. Evans, 197 Britain street, was united in marriage to John Hugh Seely, of the St. John Railway Co. staff. They were unattended. The wedding took place in the presence of relatives and immediate friends. Rev. T. J. Deinstadt, the pastor of the church, officiated. The bride was attired in a traveling dress of Copenhagen blue with hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Seely left on the Eastern liner Governor Cobb for a bridal trip to Boston and New York, and on their return will reside at 35 Mount Pleasant street. They have been the recipients of many beautiful presents in silver and cut glass. Nice-Tait.

Thursday, June 29.—At Exmouth street Methodist church yesterday morning, Rev. W. W. Brewer united in marriage John B. Nice of Lancaster and Miss Eliza Tait, of Brookville, both recently of Halifax. The bride was given away by her brother, William Tait. The bride and groom were unattended, and only immediate friends were present. The happy pair left for the north train on their honeymoon.

Friday, June 30.—Skin grafting to a considerable extent may have to be resorted to in order to save the life of little Norma Chase, aged five years, who was brought to the city yesterday on the steamer May Queen and now lies at the General Public Hospital in a precarious condition as a result of burns received some weeks ago. While playing the violin in the castle bridge, Queens county, the child's clothes ignited from a bonfire set by boys and she was severely burned about the face, limbs and body. Although under the care of the best medical skill, she does not improve and the deep wounds do not heal.

Attended by her mother the little girl was brought down on the steamer May Queen and at once taken to the hospital, where a careful examination of the burns was made. The doctors found that her condition was very serious and only operated by the rector, Rev. R. K. McKim, and only near relatives were present of some relative to provide the patches of skin for her wounds will save her life.

Thursday, June 29.—In St. Luke's church yesterday morning, Miss Louise Murray, daughter of E. S. R. Murray, was married to Samuel B. Hatheway, of Fredericton. The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. R. K. McKim, and only near relatives were present of some relative to provide the patches of skin for her wounds will save her life.

Thursday, June 29.—A very pretty wedding took place at 6:45 yesterday morning when Miss Sarah May Lowney was united in marriage to Mr. Hugh McFadden, of 79 High street, was married to Walter Henry Lowney, of 45 Bilyard street. The marriage was solemnized in St. Peter's church with nuptial mass. Father O'Regan, C.S.S.R., officiating. The bride was given away by her father. She looked very pretty in a dress of white silk with Irish points lace trimmings, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses and maiden hair fern.

The bridesmaid, Miss Rose McFadden, sister of the bride was dressed in helix pink silk with pearl trimmings. The groom's best man was George W. Campbell, of 45 Bilyard street. The groom was supported by Walter Henry Lowney, and had as flower girl, little Miss Betty Thomson and Ruth Harrison, her cousins. Those who acted as ushers were Howard Robinson, S. A. Thomas, John Sayre and Hazen O. Barnaby. A large number of guests were present.

Miss Barnaby was given in marriage by her father. Her wedding dress was of white satin, with trimmings of princess lace. She wore a well and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Her bridesmaid was attired in blue tulle over satin, and wore a hat to correspond. She carried a shower bouquet of carnations. The bride's flower girls were daintily gowned in white.

A wedding reception was held after the wedding at the home of the bride's father, corner of Leinster and Princess streets, where luncheon was served. Afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Ryder left for a honeymoon trip to Upper Canadian cities, and on their return will spend a few months at their summer home before taking up their residence in the city. They were pleasantly remembered by a host of friends throughout the city and elsewhere, who presented to them many tokens of esteem, the list including cut glass, silverware, and other wedding gifts.

Miss Barnaby was given in marriage by her father. Her wedding dress was of white satin, with trimmings of princess lace. She wore a well and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Her bridesmaid was attired in blue tulle over satin, and wore a hat to correspond. She carried a shower bouquet of carnations. The bride's flower girls were daintily gowned in white.

A wedding reception was held after the wedding at the home of the bride's father, corner of Leinster and Princess streets, where luncheon was served. Afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Ryder left for a honeymoon trip to Upper Canadian cities, and on their return will spend a few months at their summer home before taking up their residence in the city. They were pleasantly remembered by a host of friends throughout the city and elsewhere, who presented to them many tokens of esteem, the list including cut glass, silverware, and other wedding gifts.

Miss Barnaby was given in marriage by her father. Her wedding dress was of white satin, with trimmings of princess lace. She wore a well and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Her bridesmaid was attired in blue tulle over satin, and wore a hat to correspond. She carried a shower bouquet of carnations. The bride's flower girls were daintily gowned in white.

A wedding reception was held after the wedding at the home of the bride's father, corner of Leinster and Princess streets, where luncheon was served. Afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Ryder left for a honeymoon trip to Upper Canadian cities, and on their return will spend a few months at their summer home before taking up their residence in the city. They were pleasantly remembered by a host of friends throughout the city and elsewhere, who presented to them many tokens of esteem, the list including cut glass, silverware, and other wedding gifts.

of the bride and groom witnessed the ceremony. A tempting breakfast was enjoyed at the bride's home after the ceremony.

The bride was attended by the groom's sister, Miss Alice O'Brien, and Miss Kelly supported the groom. Her father, John Nichol, gave the bride away, and she looked very pleasing in a dainty suit of lawn silk, wearing a large picture hat with black plumes, and carrying a white prayer book. The bridesmaid was prettily attired in pale blue embroidered silk, wearing a black picture hat and carrying a shower of pink and white carnations.

The young people who have a large circle of friends about the city, received many testimonials to their popularity in a valuable and useful assortment of wedding gifts of silverware, cut glass, china, etc. They left yesterday for a honeymoon trip in the Annapolis Valley, and on their return will make their home at 289 Charlotte street. Seely-Evans.

Thursday, June 29.—In the Carmarthen street Methodist church yesterday morning, Miss Lena Mae Evans, daughter of Thomas W. Evans, 197 Britain street, was united in marriage to John Hugh Seely, of the St. John Railway Co. staff. They were unattended. The wedding took place in the presence of relatives and immediate friends. Rev. T. J. Deinstadt, the pastor of the church, officiated. The bride was attired in a traveling dress of Copenhagen blue with hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Seely left on the Eastern liner Governor Cobb for a bridal trip to Boston and New York, and on their return will reside at 35 Mount Pleasant street. They have been the recipients of many beautiful presents in silver and cut glass. Nice-Tait.

Thursday, June 29.—At Exmouth street Methodist church yesterday morning, Rev. W. W. Brewer united in marriage John B. Nice of Lancaster and Miss Eliza Tait, of Brookville, both recently of Halifax. The bride was given away by her brother, William Tait. The bride and groom were unattended, and only immediate friends were present. The happy pair left for the north train on their honeymoon.

Friday, June 30.—Skin grafting to a considerable extent may have to be resorted to in order to save the life of little Norma Chase, aged five years, who was brought to the city yesterday on the steamer May Queen and now lies at the General Public Hospital in a precarious condition as a result of burns received some weeks ago. While playing the violin in the castle bridge, Queens county, the child's clothes ignited from a bonfire set by boys and she was severely burned about the face, limbs and body. Although under the care of the best medical skill, she does not improve and the deep wounds do not heal.

Attended by her mother the little girl was brought down on the steamer May Queen and at once taken to the hospital, where a careful examination of the burns was made. The doctors found that her condition was very serious and only operated by the rector, Rev. R. K. McKim, and only near relatives were present of some relative to provide the patches of skin for her wounds will save her life.

Thursday, June 29.—In St. Luke's church yesterday morning, Miss Louise Murray, daughter of E. S. R. Murray, was married to Samuel B. Hatheway, of Fredericton. The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. R. K. McKim, and only near relatives were present of some relative to provide the patches of skin for her wounds will save her life.

Thursday, June 29.—A very pretty wedding took place at 6:45 yesterday morning when Miss Sarah May Lowney was united in marriage to Mr. Hugh McFadden, of 79 High street, was married to Walter Henry Lowney, of 45 Bilyard street. The marriage was solemnized in St. Peter's church with nuptial mass. Father O'Regan, C.S.S.R., officiating. The bride was given away by her father. She looked very pretty in a dress of white silk with Irish points lace trimmings, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses and maiden hair fern.

The bridesmaid, Miss Rose McFadden, sister of the bride was dressed in helix pink silk with pearl trimmings. The groom's best man was George W. Campbell, of 45 Bilyard street. The groom was supported by Walter Henry Lowney, and had as flower girl, little Miss Betty Thomson and Ruth Harrison, her cousins. Those who acted as ushers were Howard Robinson, S. A. Thomas, John Sayre and Hazen O. Barnaby. A large number of guests were present.

Miss Barnaby was given in marriage by her father. Her wedding dress was of white satin, with trimmings of princess lace. She wore a well and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Her bridesmaid was attired in blue tulle over satin, and wore a hat to correspond. She carried a shower bouquet of carnations. The bride's flower girls were daintily gowned in white.

A wedding reception was held after the wedding at the home of the bride's father, corner of Leinster and Princess streets, where luncheon was served. Afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Ryder left for a honeymoon trip to Upper Canadian cities, and on their return will spend a few months at their summer home before taking up their residence in the city. They were pleasantly remembered by a host of friends throughout the city and elsewhere, who presented to them many tokens of esteem, the list including cut glass, silverware, and other wedding gifts.

Miss Barnaby was given in marriage by her father. Her wedding dress was of white satin, with trimmings of princess lace. She wore a well and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Her bridesmaid was attired in blue tulle over satin, and wore a hat to correspond. She carried a shower bouquet of carnations. The bride's flower girls were daintily gowned in white.

A wedding reception was held after the wedding at the home of the bride's father, corner of Leinster and Princess streets, where luncheon was served. Afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Ryder left for a honeymoon trip to Upper Canadian cities, and on their return will spend a few months at their summer home before taking up their residence in the city. They were pleasantly remembered by a host of friends throughout the city and elsewhere, who presented to them many tokens of esteem, the list including cut glass, silverware, and other wedding gifts.

Miss Barnaby was given in marriage by her father. Her wedding dress was of white satin, with trimmings of princess lace. She wore a well and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Her bridesmaid was attired in blue tulle over satin, and wore a hat to correspond. She carried a shower bouquet of carnations. The bride's flower girls were daintily gowned in white.

A wedding reception was held after the wedding at the home of the bride's father, corner of Leinster and Princess streets, where luncheon was served. Afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Ryder left for a honeymoon trip to Upper Canadian cities, and on their return will spend a few months at their summer home before taking up their residence in the city. They were pleasantly remembered by a host of friends throughout the city and elsewhere, who presented to them many tokens of esteem, the list including cut glass, silverware, and other wedding gifts.

of the bride and groom witnessed the ceremony. A tempting breakfast was enjoyed at the bride's home after the ceremony.

The bride was attended by the groom's sister, Miss Alice O'Brien, and Miss Kelly supported the groom. Her father, John Nichol, gave the bride away, and she looked very pleasing in a dainty suit of lawn silk, wearing a large picture hat with black plumes, and carrying a white prayer book. The bridesmaid was prettily attired in pale blue embroidered silk, wearing a black picture hat and carrying a shower of pink and white carnations.

The young people who have a large circle of friends about the city, received many testimonials to their popularity in a valuable and useful assortment of wedding gifts of silverware, cut glass, china, etc. They left yesterday for a honeymoon trip in the Annapolis Valley, and on their return will make their home at 289 Charlotte street. Seely-Evans.

Thursday, June 29.—In the Carmarthen street Methodist church yesterday morning, Miss Lena Mae Evans, daughter of Thomas W. Evans, 197 Britain street, was united in marriage to John Hugh Seely, of the St. John Railway Co. staff. They were unattended. The wedding took place in the presence of relatives and immediate friends. Rev. T. J. Deinstadt, the pastor of the church, officiated. The bride was attired in a traveling dress of Copenhagen blue with hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Seely left on the Eastern liner Governor Cobb for a bridal trip to Boston and New York, and on their return will reside at 35 Mount Pleasant street. They have been the recipients of many beautiful presents in silver and cut glass. Nice-Tait.

Thursday, June 29.—At Exmouth street Methodist church yesterday morning, Rev. W. W. Brewer united in marriage John B. Nice of Lancaster and Miss Eliza Tait, of Brookville, both recently of Halifax. The bride was given away by her brother, William Tait. The bride and groom were unattended, and only immediate friends were present. The happy pair left for the north train on their honeymoon.

Friday, June 30.—Skin grafting to a considerable extent may have to be resorted to in order to save the life of little Norma Chase, aged five years, who was brought to the city yesterday on the steamer May Queen and now lies at the General Public Hospital in a precarious condition as a result of burns received some weeks ago. While playing the violin in the castle bridge, Queens county, the child's clothes ignited from a bonfire set by boys and she was severely burned about the face, limbs and body. Although under the care of the best medical skill, she does not improve and the deep wounds do not heal.

Attended by her mother the little girl was brought down on the steamer May Queen and at once taken to the hospital, where a careful examination of the burns was made. The doctors found that her condition was very serious and only operated by the rector, Rev. R. K. McKim, and only near relatives were present of some relative to provide the patches of skin for her wounds will save her life.

Thursday, June 29.—In St. Luke's church yesterday morning, Miss Louise Murray, daughter of E. S. R. Murray, was married to Samuel B. Hatheway, of Fredericton. The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. R. K. McKim, and only near relatives were present of some relative to provide the patches of skin for her wounds will save her life.

Thursday, June 29.—A very pretty wedding took place at 6:45 yesterday morning when Miss Sarah May Lowney was united in marriage to Mr. Hugh McFadden, of 79 High street, was married to Walter Henry Lowney, of 45 Bilyard street. The marriage was solemnized in St. Peter's church with nuptial mass. Father O'Regan, C.S.S.R., officiating. The bride was given away by her father. She looked very pretty in a dress of white silk with Irish points lace trimmings, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses and maiden hair fern.

The bridesmaid, Miss Rose McFadden, sister of the bride was dressed in helix pink silk with pearl trimmings. The groom's best man was George W. Campbell, of 45 Bilyard street. The groom was supported by Walter Henry Lowney, and had as flower girl, little Miss Betty Thomson and Ruth Harrison, her cousins. Those who acted as ushers were Howard Robinson, S. A. Thomas, John Sayre and Hazen O. Barnaby. A large number of guests were present.

Miss Barnaby was given in marriage by her father. Her wedding dress was of white satin, with trimmings of princess lace. She wore a well and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Her bridesmaid was attired in blue tulle over satin, and wore a hat to correspond. She carried a shower bouquet of carnations. The bride's flower girls were daintily gowned in white.

A wedding reception was held after the wedding at the home of the bride's father, corner of Leinster and Princess streets, where luncheon was served. Afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Ryder left for a honeymoon trip to Upper Canadian cities, and on their return will spend a few months at their summer home before taking up their residence in the city. They were pleasantly remembered by a host of friends throughout the city and elsewhere, who presented to them many tokens of esteem, the list including cut glass, silverware, and other wedding gifts.

Miss Barnaby was given in marriage by her father. Her wedding dress was of white satin, with trimmings of princess lace. She wore a well and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Her bridesmaid was attired in blue tulle over satin, and wore a hat to correspond. She carried a shower bouquet of carnations. The bride's flower girls were daintily gowned in white.

A wedding reception was held after the wedding at the home of the bride's father, corner of Leinster and Princess streets, where luncheon was served. Afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Ryder left for a honeymoon trip to Upper Canadian cities, and on their return will spend a few months at their summer home before taking up their residence in the city. They were pleasantly remembered by a host of friends throughout the city and elsewhere, who presented to them many tokens of esteem, the list including cut glass, silverware, and other wedding gifts.

Miss Barnaby was given in marriage by her father. Her wedding dress was of white satin, with trimmings of princess lace. She wore a well and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Her bridesmaid was attired in blue tulle over satin, and wore a hat to correspond. She carried a shower bouquet of carnations. The bride's flower girls were daintily gowned in white.

A wedding reception was held after the wedding at the home of the bride's father, corner of Leinster and Princess streets, where luncheon was served. Afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Ryder left for a honeymoon trip to Upper Canadian cities, and on their return will spend a few months at their summer home before taking up their residence in the city. They were pleasantly remembered by a host of friends throughout the city and elsewhere, who presented to them many tokens of esteem, the list including cut glass, silverware, and other wedding gifts.

of the bride and groom witnessed the ceremony. A tempting breakfast was enjoyed at the bride's home after the ceremony.

The bride was attended by the groom's sister, Miss Alice O'Brien, and Miss Kelly supported the groom. Her father, John Nichol, gave the bride away, and she looked very pleasing in a dainty suit of lawn silk, wearing a large picture hat with black plumes, and carrying a white prayer book. The bridesmaid was prettily attired in pale blue embroidered silk, wearing a black picture hat and carrying a shower of pink and white carnations.

The young people who have a large circle of friends about the city, received many testimonials to their popularity in a valuable and useful assortment of wedding gifts of silverware, cut glass, china, etc. They left yesterday for a honeymoon trip in the Annapolis Valley, and on their return will make their home at 289 Charlotte street. Seely-Evans.

Thursday, June 29.—In the Carmarthen street Methodist church yesterday morning, Miss Lena Mae Evans, daughter of Thomas W. Evans, 197 Britain street, was united in marriage to John Hugh Seely, of the St. John Railway Co. staff. They were unattended. The wedding took place in the presence of relatives and immediate friends. Rev. T. J. Deinstadt, the pastor of the church, officiated. The bride was attired in a traveling dress of Copenhagen blue with hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Seely left on the Eastern liner Governor Cobb for a bridal trip to Boston and New York, and on their return will reside at 35 Mount Pleasant street. They have been the recipients of many beautiful presents in silver and cut glass. Nice-Tait.

Thursday, June 29.—At Exmouth street Methodist church yesterday morning, Rev. W. W. Brewer united in marriage John B. Nice of Lancaster and Miss Eliza Tait, of Brookville, both recently of Halifax. The bride was given away by her brother, William Tait. The bride and groom were unattended, and only immediate friends were present. The happy pair left for the north train on their honeymoon.

Friday, June 30.—Skin grafting to a considerable extent may have to be resorted to in order to save the life of little Norma Chase, aged five years, who was brought to the city yesterday on the steamer May Queen and now lies at the General Public Hospital in a precarious condition as a result of burns received some weeks ago. While playing the violin in the castle bridge, Queens county, the child's clothes ignited from a bonfire set by boys and she was severely burned about the face, limbs and body. Although under the care of the best medical skill, she does not improve and the deep wounds do not heal.

Attended by her mother the little girl was brought down on the steamer May Queen and at once taken to the hospital, where a careful examination of the burns was made. The doctors found that her condition was very serious and only operated by the rector, Rev. R. K. McKim, and only near relatives were present of some relative to provide the patches of skin for her wounds will save her life.

Thursday, June 29.—In St. Luke's church yesterday morning, Miss Louise Murray, daughter of E. S. R. Murray, was married to Samuel B. Hatheway, of Fredericton. The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. R. K. McKim, and only near relatives were present of some relative to provide the patches of skin for her wounds will save her life.

Thursday, June 29.—A very pretty wedding took place at 6:45 yesterday morning when Miss Sarah May Lowney was united in marriage to Mr. Hugh McFadden, of 79 High street, was married to Walter Henry Lowney, of 45 Bilyard street. The marriage was solemnized in St. Peter's church with nuptial mass. Father O'Regan, C.S.S.R., officiating. The bride was given away by her father. She looked very pretty in a dress of white silk with Irish points lace trimmings, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses and maiden hair fern.

The bridesmaid, Miss Rose McFadden, sister of the bride was dressed in helix pink silk with pearl trimmings. The groom's best man was George W. Campbell, of 45