Concerning the Big Drive.

The latest news from the European war field still shows the Teutonic and central powers being driven slowly back and the ring around them tightening. On the Western front the British have captured Guille-mont and strongly entrenched themselves in captured territory. The French are doing wonders in their forward march Italy still repulses the Austrians with great loss and claims since they entered the war they have captured, killed and permanently put out of the war 450,000 of the enemy.

The Russian and Rumanian army are still gathering in the enemy's cities and countries, except in one part where the Bulgarians are ten miles over the Rumanian line.

In Temperance Circles

The case against Walter Moore for liquor being found on his premises during the recent raid, was heard before Stipendiary Webster on Tuesday. There was no defence and the defendant was convicted and sentenced to three months imprisonment.

Yesterday there was considerable movement among the Inspectors and constables. A case against Nathan Stevens of Kentville for selling liquor in the County was heard before Stipendiary Strong a conviction made and a fine of $50.30 paid. The evidence was of his purchasing liquor and getting a boy to sell it for him.

Miss Evelyn Starr, the Famous Violinist Plays at Kentville and Aldershot.

The international reputation of Miss Evelyn Starr, as one of the leading virtuosa violinist, was fully sustained Wednesday evening in Pastime Hall where she played, with unusual technical finesse, varied program by the chief romantic writers for the violin. The program was divided into three parts. The first was presented chiefly by Handel's Largo, Kreisler's Liebestraum and Couperin's "Little Windmill." In the Largo Miss Starr disclosed a broad, moving style. In the Kreisler composition she brought out brilliantly the piquant qualities and the harmonic power of the violin. The Couperin composition in her hands was a very pretty piece of descriptive music.

It was, however, in the second part of her program that Miss Starr shone as an interpretive artist accomplishing with beauty of expression and phrasing the difficult andante of Mendelssohn's Concerto and with brilliant technique the allegro from the same composition, which is the test piece among all virtuosos of the violin. She was the poet of the violin in a dainty gavotte by Gossec and a most insinuating bit of descriptive music, "The Zephyr" by Hubay. The music she made was as light and ethereal as a midsummer inland breeze.

The third part of Miss Starr's playing was humanized by Zimballist's beautiful transcription of the old, familiar melody, "The Swanee River," and by a delightful rendering of Dvorak's Humoresque. It was a notable program throughout, disclosed the very fine artistry of the violinist and entranced a large audience of Kentville's music lovers.

The accompanist for the evening was Mrs. Margaret White-Skill, who supported the soloist very artistically.

On Tuesday evening Miss Starr gave an entrancingly delightful program of music at the Y.M.C.A., Aldershot to over twelve hundred soldiers including officers and men. This generous act on the part of the

Y. M. C. A. ROOMS

The number of soldiers using the Y.M.C.A. rooms during the last few weeks is very encouraging and shows that rooms of this kind are needed in Kentville. During the last week there has been an average of one hundred and fifty soldiers using the rooms each day either for reading or writing, etc. On an average of forty soldiers are asking for writing material each day. While these figures may not seem large they are increasing each week.

Magazines or other reading are needed and anyone wishing to help the Y.M.C.A. work will find an opportunity here.
