BAZAAR AT THE INFANT SCHOOL, ST. BONAVENTURE STREET ON MONDAY, 23RD INSTANT.

The charitable Ladies of St. Antoine and St. Joseph Suburbs are preparing a GRAND BAZAAR, intended to aid the St. Joseph's Hospice and Asylum. The Hospice St. Joseph supports over 200 Orphans, boys and girls, while the infant school receives nearly 300 small children.

These two Works, the most considerable of the city, owe their existence to a charitable public; and now, if this same fail them, they would cease to exist.

An appeal is now made to the generosity of the city to favour the success of the Bazaar. On certain days, interesting dialogues will be recited by the children, varied by the introduction of singing.

There shall also be a refreshment table in the evening. The Ladies of Charity intend preparing supper for the ladies and gentlemen who kindly assist them in their labors, and encourage them in their charitable undertakings.

BOARDING SCHOOL AND ACADEMY OF THE GREY SISTERS.

The Gray Sisters of the City of Ottawa beg to inform the public that they have purchased the building heretofore known as the "Revere House" on Rideau street, to which they intend transferring their Boarding School at the beginning of their school term—1st September next.

From that date the plan of instruction for young Ladies, placed under the care of the Grey Sisters of Ottawa, will be as follows:

1st. The Academy at the Convent on Bolton street will be devoted to elementary instruction as well as the higher branches in English and French—with due regard to usefulness and social accomplishments, (for Day Scholars only).

2nd. The instruction at the Academy, Wellington street, known as St. Mary's Academy, will be the same as at the Academy in the Convent, and for Day Scholars only.

3rd. Complete course for Boarders and Day Scholars at the new institution, Rideau street known as Notre Dame du Sacre Coeur. In this last establishment young ladies can have separate rooms if such be the wish of their parents. The non Catholic pupils will be allowed to attend service in their respective churches on Sundays, and will not be required to attend the religious instructions of the institution.

The purchase of this spacious building, whose fine situation is well known to the public, was made with a view of meeting the encouragement they have received on the part of the public as affording greater space, and better guarantees of health for the still increasing number of the pupils. The health, discipline, the domestic education, and general instruction of the pupils will be, in the future, as in the past, the object of the Grey Sisters, who avail themselves of this opportunity to thank the public for the confidence and interest which it has continually extended to them.

Any further information regarding the rules, the terms, the order of studies, and other matters relating to the Boarding School and Academy will be given on application at the Convent, Bolton street.

The Classes will be opened on THURSDAY, the 12th of AUGUST, at Ten o'clock. Ottawa, July, 1869. 2m49.
