

necessary to the full exercise of the powers expressly vested in them by this Act or the full attainment of the purposes thereof: Provided always, that any lands and real property which shall be acquired by the said Corporation under the authority of this Act, shall be holden by the said Corporation to and for the same limitations, trusts, provisoes and uses, to and for which the lands and real property now vested in them are holden; except in so far only as it is otherwise expressly provided by this Act, and excepting always any hypothecs, rights or privileges reserved in favor of the Vendors thereof or other parties, by the deeds or instruments conveying such property to the said Corporation, or by law belonging to such Vendors or other parties at the time of the execution of of such deeds or instrument or by reason thereof.

Proviso: new property to be held for the same purposes as the old.

Exceptions.

III. And be it enacted, That this Act shall be a Public Act. Public Act.