

TERMINAL ELEVATORS.

14. All elevators located at any point declared by the commissioner to be a terminal, in which grain is stored in bulk, and in which the grain of different owners is mixed together, or in which grain is stored in such a manner that the identity of the different lots or parcels cannot be accurately preserved, and doing business for a compensation, are hereby declared to be public terminal elevators. Terminal elevators defined.

15. The proprietor, lessee, or manager of any public terminal elevator shall be required before transacting any business, to procure from the commissioner a license, permitting such proprietor, lessee or manager to transact business as a public warehouseman under the law, which license shall be issued by the commissioner upon written application, which shall set forth the location and name of such elevator and the individual name of each person interested as owner or manager thereof,—or, if the elevator is owned or managed by a corporation, the name of the president, secretary and treasurer of such corporation shall be stated; and the said license shall give authority to carry on and conduct the business of public terminal elevator in accordance with the law and shall be revocable by the commissioner upon a summary proceeding before the commissioner upon complaint of any person, in writing, under oath, setting forth the particular violation of law, and upon satisfactory proof, to be taken in such manner as is directed by the commissioner, subject to an appeal to the Minister of Inland Revenue. Licenses for terminal elevators.

2. The annual fee for such license shall be two dollars. Fee.

16. The person receiving a license as herein provided shall file with the commissioner granting it a bond to Her Majesty, with good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the commissioner, in the penal sum of not less than ten thousand nor more than fifty thousand dollars, in the discretion of the commissioner for each terminal elevator licensed by him, conditional for the faithful performance of his duties as a public terminal warehouseman and his full and unreserved compliance with all laws in relation thereto: Provided, that when any person or corporation procures a license for more than one elevator no more than one bond need be given. Security by licensee.

17. Any person who transacts the business of a public terminal warehouseman without first procuring a license as herein provided, or who continues to transact such business after such license has been revoked (save only that he may be permitted to deliver grain previously stored in such elevator), shall on conviction upon indictment be liable to a penalty not less than fifty dollars nor more than two hundred and fifty dollars for each and every day such business is carried on; and the commissioner may refuse to renew any license or grant a new one to any person whose license has been revoked within one year from the time when it was revoked. Penalty for doing business without license.

18. Every terminal public warehouseman shall receive for storage any grain, dry and in a suitable condition for ware- Duties of warehouseman.