

the Court of King's Bench, in each of the Districts of this Province, to transmit to the Court of General Quarter-Sessions, in each of the said Districts, to be there heard, tried and determined, all cases which by Law it is or shall be lawful for such Courts of General Quarter-Sessions to hear and determine, as well those in which Indictments shall have been found as those in which Indictments have not been preferred, and in which the person or persons accused is, or are not entitled to be discharged from custody.