Watch . . .

UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA VOL. LV, No. 14

The Gateway FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1964 WAR DECLARED

Tuck Shop Blockades Magazine

You can't buy a copy of Edge in Tuck any more.

Though the periodical's first two editions were sold there, the third so far has not appeared

"I don't feel we should carry it." store manager Mrs. Anne Prytula told The Gateway.

"Besides, I only carry out the wishes of the management."

SOCRED OPERATOR

Tuck Shop is operated by Alberta MLA Edgar Gerhart on behalf of his father.

When asked who made the decision to remove Edge from Tuck Shop's magazine rack, Mr. Gerhart denied any knowledge of the magazine.

"We generally handle any student publication," he said.

"Mr. Gerhart should know about Edge," said Mrs. Prytula. "It was discussed in the Legislature last spring.'

PERSONAL OBJECTION

Mrs. Prytula said she personally objects to the content of Edge after reading the magazine's first issue last year.

"It's not the best thing to be put on the newsstands," she said

Mr. Gerhart explained Tuck Shop policy on periodical literature

The only magazines not sold football game. in Tuck are those of a "questake up "too much space on the their staying on the racks, he winners. said.

-MacLaren Photo

TUCK SHOP MAGAZINE RACK ... Jack and Jill is there, but where's Edge?

Golden Bowl Game Called Queen's Gaels Won't Play Ball

By Alex Hardy

Developments came thicker and faster than flies to a family picnic this week at the camp of the University of Alberta Golden Bear footballers.

If there was anything certain about the whole affair, it was the uncertanity of just what was happening. When the smoke finally cleared Wednesday, one thing became cer-tain: there will be no 1964 East-West intercollegiate Golden Bowl

The game would have pitted tionable nature", those which Golden Bears, champions of the racks" and those which don't athletic association, against Queen's sell well enough to warrant University Golden Gaels, the On-tario-Quebec Athletic Association

Alberta this Saturday had the East-ern school not already committed it-self to playing McMaster University mously to permit Bears to partici- earlier this season.

Word quickly got back to Queen's athletic director Al Lenard, who claimed the challenge was news to him.

pate.

Lenard said Queen's policy does not permit its athletic teams to compete after mid-November and the first weeks in March.

"Three schools in our conference maintain this policy," he said. "None of the three are able to play in the national intercollegiate hockey and basketball championships, which are held after the first week in March. Similarly, none of the three can participate in football after mid-November."

He added "it just wouldn't be right o set a precedent for this game.

been seriously interested in meeting Alberta this Saturday had the East-

There's no question we're again No. 1 in the country.

Zemrau said he doubted Queen's actually wanted to play McMaster this Saturday.

"An Eastern rule forced Queen's Master," he said. "I'm positive Queen's would much rather have played us Saturday. Their game against McMaster will likely be a force University of British Colfarce. University of British Col-umbia beat McMaster 42-0 in an exhibition game earlier this year."

Alberta head coach Gino Fracas said his team's victory chances would have been as good this year as last. "This Golden Bear team was the best in Canada. It was the best I've will continue to edit the publication ever seen.

Edge Full Of 'Filth And Trash'

For The Wall

TWELVE PAGES

Edge has been branded as "sacreligious filth and trash' by a veteran Edmonton city alderman and provincial cabinet minister.

The independent periodical edited by Dr. Henry Beissel, formerly of the U of A English department, came under attack this week from Mrs. Ethel Wilson, recently re-elected city alderman and minister without portfolio in the Manning government.

Edge was not all that Mrs. Wilson attacked.

FILTH PRODUCED

"I don't know how we can do anything about cleaning up the literature available to teen-agers when the university produecs filth worse than anything on the newsstands, she charged

Mrs. Wilson, who said she has read one edition of Edge, claims the periodical "makes light of Christ and his teachings." There are "a lot of fine people" at the university, Mrs. Wilson conceded. But she said she wishes the uni-versity "would set its sights up a bit."

"HORRID" MAGAZINE A

"Edge is a horrid magazine. Be-yond that I have nothing to say." The third issue of Edge has been available in limited supply at the university bookstore for about two weeks.

It contains an assortment of poetry, fiction, book reviews and art work.

Last spring, Hon, A. J. Hooke, minister of municipal affairs, attacked the work in the Legislature.

At that time, Mr. Hooke said the "so-called literary efforts in Edge pollute the minds of your youth."

He also recommended the publication's editors "should go back to the countries from whence they came." Edge's German-born editor, Dr. Beissel, has since left U of A to take up a teaching post in Trinidad. He from there.

Tauzer Bans Poppy Sale

are available one block away,	undefeated in their respective	in a challenge bowl game.
in the university book store and	leagues.	The Queen's team members met	In Lister Hall Complex downtown at three other loca-	The two schools were also champ-	earlier this week to decide if they	In Lister Hun Complex
	TIONS OF the East and west last year,	would be interested in higving tions.	but Alberta staked a claim to the	Alberta, Lenard continued. He add-	A poppy-seller was ordered from Lister Hall last week national intercollegiate title by	ed more than half the team decided	1 1 Government director of housing spanking Queen's 25-7 at Edmonton	a Nov. 21 game would hurt them	"N <sub>e</sub> soliciting is allowed in the building" sold Mr. Touzin the first Golden Bowl last Novem-	scholastically. The game would cut
	ber.	into the university's November ex-	er. "It is against university regulations."
l The	Between last Saturday and	aminations, according to Lenard.	According to witnesses, the unidentified poppy-seller
	Wednesday developments came fast	Alberta players also met this week	was not approaching anyone, but standing in the lower hall
	enough to confuse an IBM machine.	and decided in favor of the game.	of the building with his poppies.
Pill:	It will suffice here to say that at no	U of A athletic director Ed Zem-	"It's still soliciting," said Mr. Tauzer.
P110	time was the game officially "on."	you said Goldon Boars were pre-
	Chances of the game appeared	named to most Queen's	stitutes soliciting, he said it does.
	bright after a Queen's student official		Stitutes soliciting, he said it does.
	sent a wire to Alberta's athletic de-	"We're naturally disappointed they
See Page 9	partment Sunday, challenging Gol-	were unable to receive permission	mitted to bomer bighter in mitter in the
Dee I uge J	den Bears to a rematch.	from their principal.	He would not elaborate.
	The U of A men's athletic board	"Still, we proved our point by met Monday and agreed unani-	beating the University of Toronto	