

Viewpoint

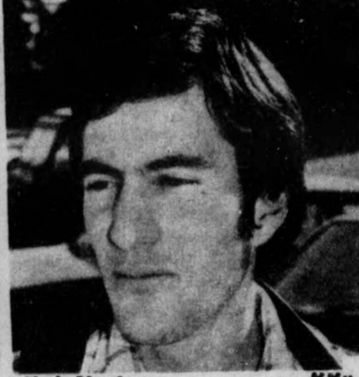

Would you be willing to accept an increase in your $35 SRC fees to compensate for inflation?

Mike Dixon BBa 2
Yes, I think an increase in the SRC fees is justifiable.

Tommy Budd Sc. 1
Yes I would. I'd pay if it was increased by the same amount as the cost of living and the money was still used for student activities.

Chris Nagle BBa 2
Within a five to eight dollar range I'd be agreeable because most of the SRC fee is earmarked for mortgage payments of the SUB.

Beverly Morgan Ed. 2
If it's really necessary. I think it's quite expensive as it is.

David Henderson For. E. 1
I don't mind raising it a little bit I suppose.

Elizabeth Mills Sc. 4
So long as the average student's going to benefit from it.

Damian Bone Arts 3
It depends on what they use it for.

Mike Gange BBa 1
I'd like to know more about the management of the $35 and what per cent is actually being used now. Then possibly an increase would be justified.

Joan Henderson Arts 3
Yes, it is only reasonable if expect to receive wage increases ourselves.

Mary Ferrari BBa 1
No because if they were going to they should have taken inflation into consideration before this.

SOMA

SOMA

and

NASONWORTH

at the PLAYHOUSE

Dave Bist, Montreal Gazette

"...takes big chunks of music, shakes 'em around and fires them off the stage like a freight train."

Eric Nicol, Ottawa Journal

"...Canada's best!"

Lee Edwards, Ottawa Citizen

"...a rare combination of imagination and guts."

Ritchie Yorke, Toronto Telegram

"...predictably outstanding...very skilled"
"...people rate SOMA highly and it's not hard to see why."

McCracken, Globe & Mail

"...majestic, exciting and driving."
"...solid and extremely tight."

Canadian High News

"...they communicate through power."
"...SOMA does not fit into existing slots."

7 p.m. & 9 p.m. Saturday 12th October 74

Adm.

$2 each, advance

$2.50 each at-the-door

Advance tickets available at:

S.U.B. Information Booth & Playhouse