

A last, lingering look...

The Grade 4 and 5 students of Silvercreek public school under the direction of teacher, Dianne Burrow, decided on a Victorian Christmas this year. Principal, Howard Shantz got to wear the top hat. Preparations for the play took over a month and a lot of enthusiastic effort.

Santa came... and Santa went... Santa descended on Applewood Co-operative nursery school just before Christmas to distribute some pre-Christmas surprises. Santa waves farewell to his rapt audience of toddlers (left) while Jeffrey Dyrkawec, four, responds enthusiastically. "I'll see you next Christmas Eve..."

A parade of primary tots stole the show at Meadowvale public school's Christmas Concert last week. The older children put on a Christmas past and Christmas present presentation with superbly designed sets, but it was the parade of pixies who got the most applause.
