

she is utilizing in this way has been all burnt and is therefore unfit for any other purpose, and that she is not cutting trees of less diameter than nine inches at the stump, I telegraphed you on the 27th Ultimo as follows:-

"Referring to your telegram of nineteenth and mine in reply
 "Madam Farjana states she is only
 "cutting timber nine inches at "stumps, that about two-thirds
 "limit burnt and that only way
 "the timber can be utilized is in "cordwood. Such being the case you "may allow her to proceed. Explain
 "the matter fully to the Indians in"forming them that she has paid
 "in full for all trees of nine inches
 "and over at the but and is
 "therefore
