

Day Alliance, Vice-President of the Evangelical Alliance, and a Vice-President of the Upper Canada Bible Society. He was also one of the Board of Examiners for Divinity degrees in the Ecclesiastical Province of Canada. As a prominent member of the Senate of the University of Toronto he did much in the way of moulding its present educational system.

In June, 1896, there was conferred upon him by the University of Toronto the degree of LL.D.; Professor Hutton taking the occasion thus to speak of him :—

"This is not the place, nor am I the person, to eulogize Dr. Sheraton's work in his theological college. So far as that is concerned everyone who knows Dr. Sheraton knows that he is zealous in the cause of what he deems to be true religion, with a zeal not unworthy of that early master of Baliol, that uncompromising and fiery spirit concealed in a frail and emaciated frame, who is the hero eponymous and patron saint of Wycliffe College. But the University of Toronto knows another Dr. Sheraton, and it is the other Dr. Sheraton that it honors here to-day; the friend of university education in all its branches, the resolute member of Senate who has faced heavy responsibilities in the service of the university and has discharged those responsibilities at costs : in a word, the Churchman who has been not less zealous for useful learning than for sound religion."

Dr. Sheraton was not merely a great teacher and successful administrator, but was also the author of various reviews and pamphlets, in all of which appear marks of his learning, industry and research. Some of these pamphlets were the following :—"The Ideal of the Church"; "The Christian Ministry"; "The Inspiration of the Scriptures"; "The Lambeth declaration about Church union"; an exposure of so-called Christian Science, and a masterly review of the fallacies, errors and hurtful tendencies of destructive Biblical Criticism. He was also for many years editor of the Evangelical Churchman and an able expositor of Sunday School lessons. At the time of his death he was engaged in enlarging and revising his booklet on "Our Lord's teaching concerning Himself", and in writing several articles for Hasting's forthcoming "Dictionary of Christology".

It is almost impossible to express in fitting terms the greatness of the debt owed by Wycliffe College and by evan-
