

mightiest power for work if we live and labor not in this higher Christian life. John Wesley regarded it as the most important mission of his people to bear testimony to it, and our Church will fail of her mission to-day if her voice is no longer heard proclaiming this free, full and present salvation.

N. BURWASH.

VICTORIA COLLEGE.

Feb. 8th, 1902.