

ood which these lake-
rious animals gnawed
e kind of bread they
he coarsest character,
oasted, then pounded
its have been found
e apple being quite
have also been found
so hazel and beech-
people themselves!
d whither have they
tioned remain to tell

vers and caverns, so g the trees, as if to
pts the ways of aniistence. Sometimes
contend, drive him
m the most singular
s modes of living.
mposed by a more
of the world, where find man living as man, in condition a

noted for their sin-
high up upon the
not only build iso-
strange people the
, because they are
of whom we have known missionary,
as of the African
ve years, writes as

irty feet from the
was the hay which

ARABS ATTACKING THE BAKONE TREE DWELLERS.