

the appellant or appellants, or one or more of them, and by two sufficient sureties (except in special cases, such as absence from the province, lunacy of the appellant, or other cases of similar difficulty, to be established by affidavit to the satisfaction of the court appealed from, or a Judge thereof; when an additional surety, in place of the appellant, may be received, by Rule or Order of such Court or Judge); and the condition of the bond shall be to the effect, that the appellant or appellants shall and will effectually prosecute his or their appeal, and pay such costs and damages as shall be awarded in case the judgment or decree appealed from shall be affirmed or in part affirmed.

IV. That when the judgment to be appealed from directs the payment of money, and the appellant desires to stay the execution thereof, then the bond shall be in double the amount of such judgment; unless the same shall be in debt on bond for a penal sum, or upon a warrant of attorney, or cognovit actionem, or otherwise, exceeding the sum really due, in which case the bond shall be only in double the true debt, and costs; and the amount so recovered and of such true debt and costs shall be stated in the condition, or recital to the condition, of the bond, immediately after the statement of the nature of the action; and the condition shall be to the effect that the appellant shall effectually prosecute such appeal, and if the judgment appealed from, or any part thereof, shall be affirmed, shall pay the amount
