

EXHIBIT D.

The following charges are laid against President Loudon :—

(1) He has entirely failed to win and keep the respect or confidence of the undergraduates during his incumbency of the office of President.

(2) He has not been frank and candid or conciliatory in his dealings with the students.

(3) He is destitute of the personal dignity which ought to characterize the President of a great University.

The following charges are laid against Professor Mavor :

(1) That he has not sufficient knowledge of the subjects which he is expected to teach.

(2) That if he is possessed of sufficient knowledge, he lacks the capacity to express what he does know, and to impart information upon those subjects.

(3) That his manner and person are repellent.

(4) He does not inspire respect or confidence in those whom he teaches.

(5) He is in the habit of nagging and worrying students without any or sufficient reason therefor.

The following charges are laid against Professor VanderSmitten :

(1) He is indolent, neglects his classes, fails to attend during the full hours of lectures, and while he may know his work, he fails through indolence and carelessness to teach properly.

AS TO PRESIDENT LOUDON.

In addition to the matters which have been and are investigated by the Commission, the following matters in connection with President Loudon should be considered :—

1. The Hose Incident. President Loudon, in October, 1892, with his own hand, turned the hose on students.

2. The Shed Incident. Two men who took no part in the pulling down of the shed were fined $15 each, a sum far in advance of the value of the shed itself.

The President to Mr. Montgomery and others, threatened to suppress the Varsity; subsequently on meeting a committee, he declared that he had never used the word "suppressed."

That he had spoken of suppressing the Varsity will be proved.

The President, as will appear by an article in the Globe on May the 17th, 1893, referred to the students in the Department of Political Science as "lame ducks."

The President denied, in an interview with an Empire reporter, Mr. Long, that he was opposed to Mr. Jury because he was "a notorious Grit and agitator," etc.

The President gave Gillies a written permit to use a room in the basement of the University for the Varsity.

Tucker used the key belonging to Gillies and gave it to Spencer to give to
