A FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH!

Even unto old age you may feel the vigor of youth, with its light heart, elastic step, courage and tireless energy. You may be free from pains and aches and defy your years.

There is a fountain of perpetual youth, and you have only to reach out your hand and take it. You can drink of it until your heart shouts with gladness, and with all your might you will proclaim, as other men have,

"I AM A MAN!"

Like the giants of old, you can be in your prime at sixty—strong, vigorous and full of youthful enthusiasm.

You can feel as vigorous as you were before you wasted your strength. You can enjoy life again. You can get up in the morning refreshed by sleep, and not more tired than when you go to bed. You can have no weakness in the back, or "come-and-go" pains, no indigestion or constipation. You can know that your manly strength is not slipping away. You can once more have bright eyes, healthy color in your cheeks, and be confident that what other men can do is not impossible to you. In short, do you want to be a man among men? I can make you all this, because I have done it to others.

Every weak person wants to feel strong again! To realize the joyous sparkle of nerve life as it infuses the body with its glowing vitality! To feel the magnetic enthusiasm of youthful energy! To be happy, light-hearted and full of joyous impulses! To be free from spells of despondency, from brain wandering, from that dull, stupid feeling? To have confidence, self-esteem and the admiration of men and women! Such is the wish of the broken-down person, and it may be gratified.

What chance has the weak and puny man to combat the struggles of life compared with the man of muscle and nerve? It is hard for a weak man to have noble sentiments; such things are born of warm blood, healthy nerves and a strong heart. Everything that strength implies is given to the man who will wear

Cured of Bladder and Urinary Troubles.

Dr. McLaughlin,

Dear Sir: Yours of yesterday to hand, and contents noted, and after reading carefully I came to the conclusion that I would not be doing you justice if I did not reply in reference to your Belt, that I used about five years ago. I must say, and say it truthfully, that my health has never been better than at the present time of writing, and I must say for so far I have enjoyed a permanent cure, and am a much better man physically. If this is any use to other like sufferers, you are at liberty to use it. Thanking you for being so thoughtful about my case as to address me. Yours very respectfully, T. J. GALLAUGHER, Shelburne, Ont.
