GOSSIP.

Mr. John Chambers, the senior partner of the firm of John Chambers & Son, Holdenby, knows a Shire horse as well as most men, and his great experience of them, and his extensive farms in Northamptonshire, England, as well as in North Wales, has enabled him to become possessed of animals of sterling merit, and of the best and most wearing Shire blood. The consignment of Shires to be sold at Toronto this fall, portraits of two of which are given in this issue, particulars of which follow, will be found a most desirable one for breeding purposes, and will be found in the finest, healthy breeding condition: Holdenby Daisy (48222) is a low-set, short-legged, deep, useful brood mare, by Duke of Clarence 2nd (13001), a sire of first-class quality and action. Her dam, Darby, was by the thousand-guinea stallion, Burgundy (12862), and her granddam by Carbon, the weightiest son of the famous Lincolnshire Lad 2nd, so that her breeding is of the greatest value, and she has a foal at foot, by Northgate Prince 15762. Holdenby Mary, Vol. 28, is a two-year-old, with great style and quality, quite a show filly, and likely to hold her own in the arena amongst the best company. She is a daughter of Hitchin Beau (19690), a stallion of great calibre, winner of first prize and champion at the Norfolk Show, in 1900, also Lincolnshire and Hitchin he won prizes the same year. The following year he also stood fourth in London and second in Oxfordshire, and first at Suffolk, Norfolk and Northampton. His sire was Ciceter Beau Harold, a great show stallion, belonging to Lord Bathurst, and his dam Dempall Blossom, by What is Wanted. Backed by such breeding, this filly cannot go astray. Palterton Old Style (19002) is a very valuable dappled grey stallion of great size and substance, scaling, when commencing his season, as much as 2,600 lbs., and is well built and active. He was bred on the borders of the best Derbyshire district, and foaled in 1899, so is now just reaching his prime. His sire was Sandycroft Tom, a famous getter in Derbyshire, and his dam, Daisy 23413, by Jesberton Sampson 7285. These horses were in the hands of Mr. Joseph Grimes, one of the keenest judges and breeders in the Derbyshire district; again back breeding demands every attention. Ranging Duke 21784, foaled in 1899, bred by Mr. Waltho, in the Derbyshire district, and the very type of a Derbyshire weight, short-legged stallion. His sire was Ridware Ranger 12155, a son of the famous old sire, Royal Albert, and a getter of more high-priced geldings in Staffordshire than, perhaps, any other stallion, and his dam, Smiler, by Duke of Cambridge 2nd (3607), also a famous getter in the best breeding districts of Staffordshire, and one of the best known stallions of his day. The Royal Albert blood is amongst the best wearing families of Shires in England today. The world-renowned stallion of to-day, Lockinge Forest King, was from a Royal Albert mare. Roxwell Saxon Harold (22732), foaled in 1901, bred by late Solomon Young, in Essex, is a grand class of five-year-old stallion, smart, full of quality and dash, and with a correct set of limbs under him; he moves, too, with freedom and force—altogether a young horse to do good. His sire was Roxwell Saxon Oak 19084, and his dam, Nateby Smart, by Blythwood Harold, by Sir James Blythe, and full of character. St. Caffo (23656), foaled in 1903, bred by Mr. Hugh Roberts, in North Wales, a black colt, by Winchelsea (14439); his dam Lady Caffo 48437, by Duke of Clarence 2nd (13001); as his breeding implies, he is a colt, full of quality and style, a fine mover, and correct in his limbs, a most desirable colt to purchase, with a great future before him, undoubtedly. This horse won first and special at the Anglesea & Carnarvonshire Agricultural Show, 1905. Holdenby Black Jumbo, Vol. 28, foaled 1904, a black by Ashby Lad 2nd (17111), a tremendously big colt, with wearing limbs, and massive in his build, quite a typical Shire, and backed by the best of breeding. His sire has been very successful and impressive in the Rugby district and the Northamptonshire border. Holdenby Druid, Vol. 28, the last of the list, is a fine yearling colt, by Northgate Druid, out of Myrtis 39716, bred by Messrs. Chambers, and in every way calculated to make a big, valuable colt.

I was run down to such an extent that I could scarcely move about the house. I was subject to severe headaches, backaches and dizziness; my appetite was gone and I was unable to do my housework.
