

The Message.
 Is the spirit of gladness dead?
 Are there naught but regrets and fears?
 Hath hope from thy bosom fled,
 That thou drowest thine eyes with tears?
 Will thou never, O loved one! never
 Grief and thy heart dis sever?
 And gather the roses red,
 Of joy for the after years!

From the troubles that waste and mar,
 Joy and delight are born;
 Reward stands on afar,
 Near are defeat and scorn;
 But the steadfast in his faith
 Power that can work and win it,
 The comfort of hope's bright star,
 In the glow between morn and morn!

True love hath a charmed life;
 It walks in the morning air,
 It lives through the midnight care,
 And better in hope receive it.
 In trusting faith believe it,
 Than die of grief's bleak knife,
 Or the arrow of dread spite.
 —Dr. Joyce's "Blended."

NEWS FROM IRELAND.

DUBLIN.

On the 10th of February last, a boat in which were five young men from Ringend, was capsized in Dublin Bay, and all were lost. At intervals since the bodies of three of the men were recovered, and on April 19th the bodies of the other two, Patrick Maguire and Thomas Goghegan, were found in an advanced state of decomposition. That of Maguire, which was found on the Strand at Clontarf, was recognized by articles of clothing, and that of Goghegan was found on the foreshore near the Bailey Lighthouse. The parents of the young man recognized the body by a pair of boots which he wore on the day of the fatal accident.

On Sunday, April 18th, a notable addition was made to the list of Catholic temples in Dublin. The beautiful new church of St. Joseph, whose progress from its foundation has been watched with affectionate interest by the Catholics of Dublin, was formally dedicated to the worship of the Almighty by His Grace the Most Rev. Dr. McCabe. Architecturally it is an achievement of which the citizens, and not merely the parishioners, are particularly proud. Completed in times of singular difficulty, it bears the impress of the heroic and unflinching zeal of the Catholics of Dublin rather than of the transitory period of depression which put their generosity to so severe a test. The new church of St. Joseph is in every particular striking and completely beautiful, and will form a fitting complement of the magnificent Mater Misericordie Hospital, at the other side of the quadrangle. The ceremonies were on a scale commensurate with the importance and dignity of the event. The High Mass was celebrated by the Most Rev. Dr. McCabe, Bishop of Granthamstown, Cape of Good Hope, and the dedicatory sermon was preached by the Rev. Dr. Walsh, S. J., a distinguished ecclesiastic.

In a letter to the Freeman, Mr. F. H. O'Donnell states that the Beaconsfield Cabinet has left to its successors urgent warning that the Irish Coercion Code must be renewed, and the strongest testimonies from all sorts of Irish officials and magistrates are said to have been produced in support of the necessity of the step.

CLARE.

Most distressing accounts continue to reach us as to the destitution prevailing in portions of Clare county. At O'Brien's Bridge several families are literally starving, owing to want of employment; and similar accounts continue to arrive from other districts.

WATERFORD.

The Very Rev. Dr. Cleary, P. P., V. G., Dungarvan, has been for the second time offered a Bishopric in Canada, by Cardinal Simpson and the Holy See, and for the second time he has declined accepting the dignity. It is probable that Dr. Cleary may be compelled by the Court of Rome to accept, though he does repeat "Nolo episcopatum."

A sad accident has occurred to the wife of a respectable farmer named Power, residing near Tramore. She was returning home from Waterford on a donkey cart, when the vehicle overturned beside a hole in the road where cattle were in the habit of drinking, and falling on the poor woman, her head was forced into the water while the shaft rested on her neck. Mr. Coroner Power held an inquest, when a verdict of accidental death was returned.

ARMAGH.

On April 17th a serious affray, having its origin in a dispute about land, took place in the neighborhood of Forkhill. The disputants were named respectively, Bellows and Hagans, and the latter were on their way to plough the land. This led to the melée, in which a pistol, scythes, blades, sticks and stones brought into requisition. Hagans received a severe cut in the left shoulder from a scythe blade, and Mrs. Bellow a dangerous one in the head. Bellow, his wife, and daughter, were arrested and brought before Mr. Johnston, J. P., at Ball's Mill. The accused were bound by recognisances to appear at Forkhill Petty Sessions, to answer the charges preferred against them.

DOWN.

On April 20th, a number of men were engaged felling a tree in the stackyard of Mr. Leslie, Frankfort, near Newry, the tree suddenly fell on one of the men, named Jas. Colville, a carpenter, and killed him.

The Irish Times of April 23 says:—"The incessant rain of the past few days has caused a great overflowing of the River Ban. The result is that thousands of acres are at present under water. Much of the land thus submerged was already prepared for crop. The whole country for miles in all directions is inundated. Since Sunday the rain has been falling in torrents without intermission."

GORK.

Impositing religious economies in connection with the unveiling of the statue of St. Joseph, recently erected in the north gable of the cathedral at Queenstown, were celebrated on April 18 in that church. The Right Rev. Dr. Fitzgerald, Bishop of Ross, preached on the occasion. On April 13th, a farmer named John Condon, residing at Carrigrohane, near Mitchelstown, was accidentally drowned in a pond adjacent to his own house. He was in delicate health for some time previous. He was 75 years of age, and in comfortable circumstances.

Coleman, was drowned in the river opposite Passage. The deceased was employed as a watchman on board the ship Eliza Kote, and the circumstances of his death appeared to be that while sitting on board late at night the small boat in which he was capsized. The boat was discovered in the morning floating about the river bottom upwards, and a search made, when the body of the unfortunate man was discovered. The deceased leaves a widow and five children without any means of support.

KILDARE.

On April 23rd Henry A. Lee, Sub-Sheriff for the county of Kildare, and twenty-one police, proceeded to take possession of a house and about an acre of ground from an old man named Pendegast, at Milsoo, about two miles from Athy. Possession having been formally demanded, and refused, six workmen of the Duke of Leinster's broke in the windows and door with pickaxes, and then proceeded to level the house to the ground. A goodly crowd had assembled to witness the distressing episode.

LIMERICK.

It is stated that a petition is about to be lodged against the return of Messrs. O'Shaughnessy and Gohmert as Parliamentary representatives for the city of Limerick by Mr. James Spaight on the grounds of personal and undue influence. The fact that in Limerick county there are important mines which are yet undeveloped is just now coming more prominently into light. A number of English gentlemen, accompanied by skilled engineers, have been recently travelling through the county, and the result of their inquiries would appear to have been of a most satisfactory and reassuring character. Already the starting of a coal mining company has been spoken of, and a prospect of that nature will soon be brought to a head.

FERMANAGH.

A boatman named Robert McLaughlin, residing at Brook street, Enniskillen, on April 17th, went down Lough Erne to fish, in company with some gentlemen. On the return journey, about a mile from the town, they left McLaughlin's boat and went home in another. Nothing more was heard of him till his hat, the boat, and oars were found floating about 500 yards from where he lived. It is thought that when he went to fasten his boat to the quay wall he overbalanced himself and fell into the water, and that, being a cripple, and tired with long sitting in the boat, he was not able to save himself. He leaves a wife and family.

GALWAY.

His Grace the Archbishop of Tuam is dispensing, with bounteous and paternal hand, relief to the needy and destitute of the largest diocese in Ireland, over which he has presided for some many decades of years, and which twice during his episcopacy has been beset by famine. On April 19th his Grace remitted a grant of £50 to the Dunmore Relief Committee through its Chairman, the Rev. James Stephens, C. A., and the timely aid preserved hundreds from hunger, for the assistance of which there was no adequate fund remaining in the hands of the committee.

MAYO.

Early on the morning of April 26th four shots were fired through the window of the house of Pat Tuohy, a bailiff on Lord Chammorri's estate, at Newbrook, co. Mayo. No one was injured, the bullets lodging in the shutter. The cause of the outrage is supposed to be agrarian. We learn that the young girl who was sentenced to Castlebar a few weeks ago to a term of imprisonment for alleged obstruction to process-serving has had to be removed from the County Prison to the lunatic asylum. A little over a month's experience of prison has been sufficient to drive the poor girl mad. The Castlebar Telegraph of April 24th, says:—"We regret to see that destitution is fast on the increase in the Union. On this day the applications of several hundred comfortable and respectable tenant farmers, came before the Castlebar Board of Guardians seeking out-door relief to keep themselves and their little families from dying with hunger."

On April 22nd a man named Pat. Fearon committed suicide by hanging himself in his father's barn at Ballybeg, near Ballina. The jury found that the deceased committed suicide while suffering from temporary insanity.

ROSCOMMON.

The Rev. T. P. Xary, C. C., assisted by the Rev. Messrs. Monaghan and McDermott, attended on different days during the week ending April 17th, at Elphin, to distribute seed potatoes to the different applicants from town and country. It is the desire of the Rev. Father Xary did the work in a manner which reflects every credit on him. He sat patiently in a cold outhouse from morning until evening of each day, sparing no trouble to please all parties, which was indeed no easy or pleasing task.

SLIGO.

The Sligo Champion, of April 24th, says:—"A Droimore West correspondent informs us that a rumor obtains credence in that locality that a quilland and liberal Colonel, and some other landlords in that part of the county have this year come to the determination not to let the bogs on their estates to their tenants. If this intention be carried out the effects must prove of a very startling character. Surely the poor cannot do without one of the most indispensable necessities of life. We have reason to think that there is some combined landlord action in the matter. We desire to ask what a bog-ranger named Jackson said to Wm. Flanagan and Wm. Snee, tenants on the lands of Rathedone, respecting the patches of bog which they and their fathers have sold from time immemorial as tenants from year to year, and on which there are no arrears of rent due? This Jackson was, we have been informed, entirely on the evening of the declaration of the poll, to take down the names of those householders in Rathedone who dared to illuminate their dwellings on an occasion when the landlords were plunged in deep affliction."

Two process-servers in the easterly district of the county Sligo have been recently arrested while attempting to serve processes for rent. Although a large force of police accompanied them they were unable to serve a single process, as the mob gathered round the houses. The parish priest tried to dissuade the people from resisting, but it was of no use. The police were treated with indignity, and it was owing to their forbearance that no lives were lost.

JEWISH CONVERTS.

Among the distinguished Jews who have within the past number of years embraced the Catholic faith are included names renowned for ability and learning, and of all grades and professions, such as physicians, barristers, and even rabbis, which name easily be concluded from the names Cohen, Levy, Lefmann, etc. We give here a list of the most prominent Jews who have become sincere Catholics:—A. Drack, called a deep well of science, whom Gregory XVI. made librarian of the Vatican, and whose son, now a priest, is at present engaged in editing an immense work of commentaries on Holy Writ; Rev. Father Liebermann, founder of the Congregation of the Holy Ghost and of the Sacred Heart of Mary, who was declared venerable by Pius IX.; Father Hermann Cohen, the great Carmelite, who, during the last Franco-Prussian war, fell victim to his charity towards the French soldiers made prisoners in Germany; the Dominican, Rev. Father Levy, who afterwards gave his life for the faith in Mesopotamia; the Abbe Omer, at Paris, whose entire family followed his example, two of his sisters entering the religious state; the pious and eloquent Belgian brothers, both priests; the two Abbés Louis, one of whom was Superior of "Saint Louis of the French," at Rome; the famous Father Voit, one of the most eloquent preachers in Austria. To these may be added such names as Rothschild, Mincio, Periere and others, who have yielded to the divine attraction, and become devoted Catholics.

NIAGARA FALLS, ONTARIO.

At this season many inducements are held forth to visit the grand cataract of Niagara, which numbers amongst its attractions a boarding school, under the charge of the Ladies of Loyette, whose reputation as educators of youth is not necessary to remark. The increased accommodation afforded by the large addition now in progress, together with its well-known advantages of position, should decide those desirous of choosing a peculiarly charming school for their daughters. Terms: $15.00 monthly.

The Great Shoshones Remedy

Is an Indian vegetable compound, composed of the juices of a variety of remarkable medicinal plants and herbs; the various properties of these different ingredients, when combined, is so constituted as to act simultaneously upon the Blood, Lungs, Liver, Kidneys, Digestive, Ocular, Nervous System, &c., restoring their functions to healthy action, and being purely vegetable, is as harmless as nature's own beverage. This medicine is a decided benefit in all, and a permanent cure in many of the most distressing ailments, such as Scrophula, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Canker, Pimples, &c. In prescribing this medicine we do not claim that it always performs cures; but this we do say, it purifies and enriches the blood, permanently curing a large majority of diseases arising from its impurity. It stands far ahead and unparallelled among the hundreds of competing medicines of the day. It has stood the test for ten years, and is to-day more popular than ever. As a summer restorative it stands unrivalled; it guards the system against the constant danger to which it is subjected by a high temperature. Persons who are subject to bilious Colic, Dysentery, Indigestion, &c., should take the Shoshones Remedy. Price of the Remedy in pint bottles, $1; Pils, 25 cts. a box. Sold by all medicine dealers.

Over 1,500 persons are employed in cloth making in Quebec, Man. turning out over $2,000,000 worth annually.
