

MR. HEARD AND THE UNION BANK. -The last number of the Herald has a long communicated article in reference to the Supreme Court--Heard v the Union Bank--defining the duties of the directors and eulogising the conduct of the Bank generally. To this of course we have no objection; but there is one feature of the case to which we call special attention. It is this: An impression has gone abroad that in the complications which arose some years ago in this Bank, Mr. Heard was in some way dishonorably connected. In case any person unacquainted with Mr. Heard may have given credence to the reports put in circulation we may state that during the searching investigation, which lasted for six days, not one single fact was discovered which could in any way injure Mr. Heard's character as an honest and upright man. On the contrary, the evidence of several of the Directors went to show that the Bank had not the slightest suspicion of Mr. Heard's integrity. Even the Judge, in his charge to the jury said he wished it distinctly to go forth that Mr. Heard came out of this business as he always did when he appeared before the Court, with a clean record.--Argus, Charlottetown, P.E.I.

GATES ACADIAN LINIMENT. Joyful News for the Afflicted.

PARKER'S COVE, N.S., March 1st, 1877.

DEAR SIR,--I should have written to you before but owing to sickness and business I have been prevented from doing so. I feel it my duty to send you the following information from gratitude to you and for the benefit of those suffering as I was. I have been greatly afflicted with dyspepsia and biliousness for about 25 years, tried doctors but got no cure. About 5 years ago I tried a few bottles of your Life of Man Bitters and No. 1. Invigorating Syrup, from which I obtained great relief up to the present for which I feel very thankful to God and to you, and would recommend your medicines to all suffering with the same complaints as dyspepsia and the like.

Since you was at my house, Thomas Bice was taken very ill with a dreadful sore throat, bordering on diphtheria, we used your Acadian Liniment and herve Ointment freely from which he obtained great relief. Others in our neighborhood are using your medicines and the result is good. Wishing you great success. I remain yours, REV. H. ACHILLES.

FITS!

FITS! FITS! FITS! FITS! CURE OF EPILEPSY OR FALLING FITS BY HANCK'S EPILEPTIC PILLS.

Persons suffering from this distressing malady will find HANCK'S Epileptic Pills to be the only remedy ever discovered for curing it. The following certificate should be read by all afflicted: It is in every respect true.

A MOST REMARKABLE CURE. Tongues, Leesworth, Co., Ken., April 2, 1876. I have HANCK'S Epileptic Pills to be the only remedy I received from you last September have accomplished all that you recommended them to do. My son is hearty, stout, and robust; he is as hearty as any child in Kansas--indeed he is in the manner a new boy, being red and rosy. Before he commenced taking your Pills he was a very pale and delicate looking child, and had Epileptic Fits for about four years, and seeing your Pills advertised in the Christian Instructor, I sent to you and got two boxes of them, and he has not had a fit since he commenced taking them; he has been exposed to all changes of weather in going to school and on the farm, and he has not had a fit nor a symptom of one since he commenced taking your Pills. He learns well at school, and his mind is clear and quick. I feel that you are not sufficiently paid for the service and benefit you have been to us in restoring our child to health. I will cheerfully recommend your Pills to every one I hear of that is afflicted with Epilepsy. Please send me some of your circulars, so that I can send them to any that I hear of that is afflicted in that way. Respectfully, etc., LEWIS THORNBRIGHT.

Sent to any part of the country by mail, free of postage on receipt of a remittance. Price one box, $3; two, $5; twelve, $27. Address SETH S. HANCK, 108 Baltimore St., Baltimore, Md. Please mention where you saw this advertisement.
