

The is no fancy sketch. We have in mind one who from boyhood has ever exercised the strongest influence in whatever community his lot was cast, and all thoughtful people agree that he owes his position mainly to these two well-adjusted reins, gentleness and firmness; to the fact that while his speech and behaviour to all are gentle and kind and considerate as a tender woman's, his principles in matters great and small are as fixed as is the mountain-chain of his native land.

LOOK AND LIVE!

My lady reader, don't pass me by with the unkind remark, "Only an advertisement," I may do you good. I may unfold to your view the "pearl of great price." I may be the means of restoring to you health and happiness. I surely will if you are suffering from any form of nervousness or female weakness, and will act upon my suggestion. I bring to your notice, with every confidence in its merits, a remedy especially compounded to meet just the requirements of your case—Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, bidding you look and live! Ladies everywhere, who have used it, speak volumes in its praise!

—Though the world is crowded with scenes of calamity, we look upon the general mass of wretchedness with very little regard, and fix our eyes upon the state of particular persons, whom the eminence of their qualities marks out from the multitude—as, in reading an account of a battle, we seldom reflect on the vulgar heaps of slaughter; but follow the hero with our whole attention through all the varieties of his fortune, without a thought of the thousands that are falling around him.
