Make the Wall Strong
*that shelters your wife,
your children and you from
the winds of adversity.*

Prosperity sometimes changes. The health that now ensures your earning capacity may fail. Your dependents and you must then take shelter behind whatever income you have from your accumulated savings.

What about this income? Of course, in the first place, you must have saved something. But on what you have saved are you getting the highest possible return consistent with safety? On the answer to this question depends your security against possible need—The Wall between you and the World. A Bank will give you 3% and almost certain safety. A speculative stock may yield you, for a time, 10%—with no guarantee of safety. A mortgage may be safe enough and pay 7%, yet cause you embarrassment if the mortgagor falls in arrears or a moratorium supervenes. Of all securities, debentures and bonds are the soundest. They are first charges against the particular Company's assets. The debentures of the Standard Reliance Mortgage Corporation are not only safe, but profitable. They yield 5% per annum.

Is your money earning that much? If so, is it amply secured? If not, let us send you our book on "Idle Money." Standard Reliance Mortgage Corporation Debentures are the very best sort of "stones" you can use to build your "wall" high and staunch.
