Mercantile Summary.

SHIPBUILDING in the Lower Provinces appears to be active; reports of the launching of five new vessels appear in almost every copy of the Halifax and St. John daily papers.

HENRY HARRISON who kept a hotel, in St. Catherine's, left there rather suddenly, a short time since; some local claimants seized and sold what they could get, but are still worse off for their dealings with him.

THE total shipments of barley from the Toronto warehouses from the beginning of the season to September 26th, were 260,556 bushels. But for the extreme dullness of the American market, the
