CLIFFORD.

A skating rink is talked of being built in town.

F. Filsinger and son, of Mildmay, were in town on business Tuesday.

Another wedding is to come off soon round Clifford. The sooner the better. Mrs. Guchs, of Hespler, has been here at her aunt's, Mrs. Geo. Tuch, the last few weeks.

Business is improving in town lately and all the stores and shops are doing a fair business.

We had quite a fall of snow here on Tuesday last. A number of farmers came out to town in sleighs and cutters. Messrs J. Hood, T. Fry, M. Hollinger and several other boys have returned from their excursion trip to Manitoba

W. H. Scott, "the tailor" and Miss Lizzie Smith, of the Mansion House drove to Palmerston on Sunday last visiting the latter's parents.

Belmore.

Mr. G. Barton has sold the September and October cheese for nearly ten cents, the highest price paid in Ontario. This speaks well for the cheese maker and also Mr. Barton.

Christian Endeavor.

The Christian Endeavor Society met in the Methodist church on Tuesday evening, the president, Rev. J. H. Mc-Bain in the chair.

The topic for the evening was "Our enemies, our weapons, our allies" Eph. guide them past the snares so artfully 6; 10-18. Mr. Gray was the leader for the evening and struck out on a new ticed, ensnared, and often ruined. We invite you to call and examine goods and youwill find prices right. We must use these weapons if we would gain the victory. In order to be skillful in the use of these weapons we need to practice continually. Strength is supplied to all who ask it, skill is acquired by using the strength given us by God. Our allies in this Christian warfare are God the Father, God the Son, and Gud the Holy Ghost, and all the people of God. Jesus is the Captain of our salvation. Under his leadership victory is certain. Thanks be unto God who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. # Temperance Criminals. The longer we live the more we are convinced that the many temperance reformers criminally neglect the productions of the press. They are safe themselves and think that their example should be sufficient to prevent their sons and daughters being lured into the abyss of intemperance. But many a drunkard, shaming us and vexing us, comes from a temperance home, only they were never trained in temperance truth, never led to the temperance meeting never induce to read solid temperance literature. nor a temperance weekly newspaper and never encouraged to give something to support the cause of temperance in their locality. What hope could there be of these families standing firm? None. Their gross ignorance of the question makes them easily ridiculed out of their shallow beliefs. Their father's or mother's culpable disregard of the temperance moment showed to then how little value it possessed for their parents and now their sons with none to point out set for them, are drawn away, and enshould set before them the choicest one of temperance literature. They returning in an abundant harvest in afsave their child. it would at least diminish their responsibility.
