

Mr. Chabot said that the Committee had received a letter from a gentleman who was not named in the bill, but who was known to be a resident of the city of Montreal. He stated that the gentleman had written to him, expressing his opinion that the bill was not in the interest of the city, and that it would be better to leave the matter to the discretion of the Council.

Mr. Chabot also stated that he had received a letter from a gentleman who was not named in the bill, but who was known to be a resident of the city of Montreal. He stated that the gentleman had written to him, expressing his opinion that the bill was not in the interest of the city, and that it would be better to leave the matter to the discretion of the Council.

Mr. Chabot also stated that he had received a letter from a gentleman who was not named in the bill, but who was known to be a resident of the city of Montreal. He stated that the gentleman had written to him, expressing his opinion that the bill was not in the interest of the city, and that it would be better to leave the matter to the discretion of the Council.

Mr. Chabot also stated that he had received a letter from a gentleman who was not named in the bill, but who was known to be a resident of the city of Montreal. He stated that the gentleman had written to him, expressing his opinion that the bill was not in the interest of the city, and that it would be better to leave the matter to the discretion of the Council.

Mr. Chabot also stated that he had received a letter from a gentleman who was not named in the bill, but who was known to be a resident of the city of Montreal. He stated that the gentleman had written to him, expressing his opinion that the bill was not in the interest of the city, and that it would be better to leave the matter to the discretion of the Council.

Mr. Chabot also stated that he had received a letter from a gentleman who was not named in the bill, but who was known to be a resident of the city of Montreal. He stated that the gentleman had written to him, expressing his opinion that the bill was not in the interest of the city, and that it would be better to leave the matter to the discretion of the Council.

THE COURIER

THURSDAY, AUGUST 26, 1863

Mr. Chabot also stated that he had received a letter from a gentleman who was not named in the bill, but who was known to be a resident of the city of Montreal. He stated that the gentleman had written to him, expressing his opinion that the bill was not in the interest of the city, and that it would be better to leave the matter to the discretion of the Council.

Mr. Chabot also stated that he had received a letter from a gentleman who was not named in the bill, but who was known to be a resident of the city of Montreal. He stated that the gentleman had written to him, expressing his opinion that the bill was not in the interest of the city, and that it would be better to leave the matter to the discretion of the Council.

Mr. Chabot also stated that he had received a letter from a gentleman who was not named in the bill, but who was known to be a resident of the city of Montreal. He stated that the gentleman had written to him, expressing his opinion that the bill was not in the interest of the city, and that it would be better to leave the matter to the discretion of the Council.

Table with columns for 'COMMERCIAL', 'MONTREAL', '1863', and various market data including prices for different goods and currencies.

FOR RIDE IN CANAL BY TOWN AND OTTAWA RIVER. The Steamers BYTOWN, KAIR, Master, will LEAVE THE SUBSCRIBERS' WHARF, for the above and intermediate ports, THIS EVENING, at SIX O'CLOCK.

STEAM COMMUNICATION BETWEEN NEW YORK AND GLASGOW. The Glasgow and New York Steamship Company's powerful new Steamship 'Glasgow', 1800 tons and 400 horse-power, is appointed to sail from New York direct for Glasgow, on Saturday, the 11th of October next, at 12 o'clock, Noon.

THE COURIER. THURSDAY, AUGUST 26, 1863. We must bring our remarks on Common Honesty to a close this morning, hoping our hints and strictures have not fallen upon unwilling ears or touched callous hearts.

Mr. Chabot also stated that he had received a letter from a gentleman who was not named in the bill, but who was known to be a resident of the city of Montreal. He stated that the gentleman had written to him, expressing his opinion that the bill was not in the interest of the city, and that it would be better to leave the matter to the discretion of the Council.

Mr. Chabot also stated that he had received a letter from a gentleman who was not named in the bill, but who was known to be a resident of the city of Montreal. He stated that the gentleman had written to him, expressing his opinion that the bill was not in the interest of the city, and that it would be better to leave the matter to the discretion of the Council.

STORAGE AND INSURANCE. THE Subscriber having REMOVED to the new premises, situated at the corner of St. James and St. Nicholas Streets, is prepared to receive and store all kinds of goods, and to insure them against fire and theft, on the most liberal terms.

LAND AGENTS. THE REGISTRY OFFICE has been removed to the new premises, situated at the corner of St. James and St. Nicholas Streets, and is prepared to receive and store all kinds of goods, and to insure them against fire and theft, on the most liberal terms.

STEAM COMMUNICATION BETWEEN NEW YORK AND GLASGOW. The Glasgow and New York Steamship Company's powerful new Steamship 'Glasgow', 1800 tons and 400 horse-power, is appointed to sail from New York direct for Glasgow, on Saturday, the 11th of October next, at 12 o'clock, Noon.

THE COURIER. THURSDAY, AUGUST 26, 1863. We must bring our remarks on Common Honesty to a close this morning, hoping our hints and strictures have not fallen upon unwilling ears or touched callous hearts.

Mr. Chabot also stated that he had received a letter from a gentleman who was not named in the bill, but who was known to be a resident of the city of Montreal. He stated that the gentleman had written to him, expressing his opinion that the bill was not in the interest of the city, and that it would be better to leave the matter to the discretion of the Council.

Mr. Chabot also stated that he had received a letter from a gentleman who was not named in the bill, but who was known to be a resident of the city of Montreal. He stated that the gentleman had written to him, expressing his opinion that the bill was not in the interest of the city, and that it would be better to leave the matter to the discretion of the Council.

AUCTION SALES. JOHN LEE, Auctioneer, has been appointed to sell by public auction, on the 27th inst., at 10 o'clock, the following real estate, situated in the City of Montreal, and consisting of a lot of ground, bounded by St. James Street, St. Nicholas Street, and St. Louis Street.

LAND AGENTS. THE REGISTRY OFFICE has been removed to the new premises, situated at the corner of St. James and St. Nicholas Streets, and is prepared to receive and store all kinds of goods, and to insure them against fire and theft, on the most liberal terms.

STEAM COMMUNICATION BETWEEN NEW YORK AND GLASGOW. The Glasgow and New York Steamship Company's powerful new Steamship 'Glasgow', 1800 tons and 400 horse-power, is appointed to sail from New York direct for Glasgow, on Saturday, the 11th of October next, at 12 o'clock, Noon.

THE COURIER. THURSDAY, AUGUST 26, 1863. We must bring our remarks on Common Honesty to a close this morning, hoping our hints and strictures have not fallen upon unwilling ears or touched callous hearts.

Mr. Chabot also stated that he had received a letter from a gentleman who was not named in the bill, but who was known to be a resident of the city of Montreal. He stated that the gentleman had written to him, expressing his opinion that the bill was not in the interest of the city, and that it would be better to leave the matter to the discretion of the Council.

Mr. Chabot also stated that he had received a letter from a gentleman who was not named in the bill, but who was known to be a resident of the city of Montreal. He stated that the gentleman had written to him, expressing his opinion that the bill was not in the interest of the city, and that it would be better to leave the matter to the discretion of the Council.