The Situation. The Huns continue their desperate work in the Verdun region. After an on Lake Superior. The weather is intense bombardment of two days in showery in Ontario this morning, the neighborhood of Hill 304, they elsewhere it is fair, have penetrated some French communication trenches, and taken 500 yards of some first line trenches. It is said that this success has not in the least shaken the confidence of the FINANCE COMMITTEE French general staff. As this paper has before pointed out, Hill 304 constitutes a very important position. In other directions on this front, the Germans have also been most active, more superhuman effort is in progress. Those who have noted the BUILDING PERMIT magnificent French defence thus far will await the outcome with confitribute satisfactory reports. Petrograd now announces that in the neighborhood of Bagdad, Turkish troops rebel leaders in Ireland, and this is done, be it noted, with the approval POLICE COURT of John Redmond and the other Nationalist leaders. One story has it that Redmond and Carson have personally agreed that they will support a move that all Irish volunteers be disarmed, including Carsons, and that compulsory service be extended to CEMENT CURBING WANTED the Emerald Isle on the basis of the immediate introduction of Home Rule.
