Mrs. A. Gardner, of Woodstock, and Mrs. A. B. Higginson and master Gordon, of Port Dalhousie, are visiting at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McMonies.

The annual bazaar held by the Ladies Auxiliary of Grace church yesterday was very successful. A large assortment of useful articles and home baking being disposed of. The proceeds of the day amounting to nearly $200.

We heartily congratulate our fellow townsman, Mr. J. F. Vance, on his elevation to the bench. A recent order-in-council announces his appointment as magistrate for the County of Wentworth. Mr. Vance has held the position of County clerk since 1917, and has had a great deal of experience in county affairs, having served in the council for a number of years and at one time acted as Warden. Mr. Vance states that any case to be disposed of would be dealt with as they came up and that there would be no special day for him to sit. His new duties will not interfere with his clerical duties.

KNOX CHURCH SERVICES

Morning Services at 11 a. m. Children's sermon "The Gospel for All", followed by short sermon, "Unfulfilled Prophecies".

Evening Services: St. Andrew's Day address, "Three Mighty Men".

A certain lady of this village is so painfully neat that she makes life wretched for the male portion of the family. One of her rules is that all members of her household, especially male members, must remove their shoes before entering the house. "Bill" (name camouflaged) she whined one day last week to her husband "I found a grease spot on one of the dining room chairs, and I think it came off those pants you wear in the factory. "Well Mirandy" (camouflage again) shouted Bill, his patience exhausted, "for the last 15 years I have taken my shoes off every time I came into this house, but I'll be hanged if I am going to go any further" Our scribe vouches for the truth of this report. Anyone sufficiently interested may obtain the names of the parties at this office.

Money Well Spent

In these days of expensive living question with most people is to get the best value for one's money. In the case of newspapers or magazines there can be no doubt about The Family Herald and weekly Star of Montreal giving the greatest value for the money on the continent. The Family Herald and Weekly Star is a wonderful combination of newspaper, magazine, and agricultural paper. It costs only $1.25 a year and each subscriber receives a handsome souvenir portrait of the Prince of Wales, 16x22 inches. We learn the subscription price will be $1.50 after December 31st. No better value can be had than a year's trial of the big Montreal Weekly. It consists of 64 pages each week and every page interesting and instructive.

There is an exceptional man in our army. He was a milkman. "I like the army life," he wrote home, "only it's mighty hard to lie abed every morning until 5.30!"
